Zapata Promises to Co-operate With Carranza in Task of Pacification.

From these four leaders, representing all factions concerned in the estabcounsel and advice which the United States has been lending through consular and diplomatic agents to smooth the way to an agreement.

General Zapata, about whom little had been known hitherto, answered a communication sent indirectly to him, promising to co-operate with the constitutionalists in the work of pacification.

It became known also that two emissaries from General Carranza to General Zapata were due in Vera Cruz tomorrow and would explain to the Southern military leader the concessions and reforms planned by the confident an amicable understanding would be reached and did not attribute the southern military respectively. any significance to the activity of the roving Zapata bands in the vicinity of General Carranga, through the Amertean Consuls accompanying him, sent renewed assurances of his friendliness for the United States and indicated that he would make satisfactory arrange-ments concerning the amnesty and guarantees desired by the Carbajal government. Carranza arrived at Tam-ples today and while there will meet Reginaldo Cepeda, his intimate friend, the has been authorized by Provisiona President Carbajal to make preliminary arrangements for the transfer of the government to the constitutionalists.

Guilty Ones in Flight.

While General Carranza is ready to grant an amnesty and give guarantees to those who have opposed the consti-tutionalists, persons criminally respon-sible for the assassination of Madero and Suarez will not receive immunity. As most of the guilty have fled the country, the Carbajal government is not disposed to object to such exceptions as are made by General Carranza in this connection, especially as it is intended to prosecute them through the courts, and those accused will have an opportunity to prove their innocence.

Provisional President Carbajal sent for the Brazilian Minister, who is caring for the interests of the United States in Mexico, and asked him to in-States in Mexico, and asked him to in-form the Washington Government that he and his associates wanted no share in the new administration, but simply an amnesty and guarantees for the property of all Mexicans, regardless of direct communication having been set up by way of San Luis Potosi.

Doubts as to Villa Quieted.

Doubts which officials had expressed over General Villa also were quieted to a considerable extent today, when word came from the fighting General word came from the fighting General himself that he would do all in his power to restore peace in Mexico and ould unite with the other constitutionalist leaders toward that commo

Villa's message was sent in response to the personal appeal of the Washing-ton Government urging him to forget his personal differences with Carranza in the interest of National patriotism. Officials felt, after the receipt of Villa's message, that even if political dissension did arise over promotions or divisions of political spoils, such fric-tion would not be permitted by Villa to develop to the point of a counter revolution, a circumstance on which he now realizes the American Government

Joseph Buettgenbach Gives Fortune and Later Life to Poor, After Early Career of Riotous Living in Fatherland.

EUGENE, Or., July 24 .- (Special.)-Secrets of health, for which he is said to have refused offers for more than million dollars, died with Joseph Buettgenbach, a man who abandoned wealth and sought to live the life of mystery of this character, long known in Eugene as "the little old man who wears long hair and sandals on his bare feet," but who, secretly and anonymously, gave his entire estate and everything he could earn to charity, was unfolded today when G.
