

DR. POLING DESIGNS "FLYING SQUADRON OF AMERICA" AS SOLOIST.

Congregational Pastor to Join "Flying Squadron of America" as Soloist.

CHANGE IS SEPTEMBER 15

Pilgrim Church Loath to Accept Resignation Offering Leave of Absence - Preacher's Music Talent in Demand.

Dr. D. V. Poling, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church and one of the best-known and most prominent Congregational ministers in the state, yesterday announced to his congregation that he has tendered his resignation from the pulpit in which he has been serving for the past year and a half, the resignation to take effect September 15.

His resignation, he announced, was due to no conditions that had arisen in the church but because of the opening of a new field of service for him in the "Flying Squadron of America."

The church is loath to accept the resignation and a preference is expressed to grant Dr. Poling a leave of absence during his service on the "Squadron" and to secure a temporary supply while he will be away.

Dr. Poling, however, expressed his preference that the church secure another pastor as soon as conveniently possible.

Solo Work to Be Done. Dr. Poling is a thorough musician and it is the solo engagement with the ten numbered ones in the "Squadron" that he will sing afternoons and evenings. The committee agreement states: "You will be expected to do only solo work."

His musical talent has also made him widely known in the Northwest.

The "Flying Squadron of America," which he is going to lead for its immediate and sole object the inauguration and execution of a great forward movement for the National abolition of the liquor traffic.

To visit the capitals of the several states, the National Capital at Washington, and others of the largest cities of the Nation, to the approximate number of 150, including the great university cities, at a series of meetings of two sessions each in each of said cities to educate and arouse patriotic men and women to the National abolition of the liquor traffic.

Notables in Personnel. The personnel is: J. Frank Hanly, ex-Governor of Indiana; Dr. Ira Landrith, national Y. M. C. A. secretary; Dr. J. B. Seldon, author and preacher, of Kansas; J. B. Lewis, of Boston; Dan A. Poling, Massachusetts; president of the National Council of One Hundred, a vice-president of the National Anti-Saloon League; Oliver M. Stewart, of Illinois, and others.

Three musical directors, Fred Butler, of New York; Emmett R. Nofziger, of Indiana, and E. C. H. of Ohio, will carry the charge of the music. Three teams of six each will carry forward the campaign. Team No. 1 will consist of Dr. Sheridan, Dr. E. O. Eccell, musical director; D. V. Poling, soloist; Professor Roper, of Chicago, accompanist.

The campaign will open at Peoria, Ill., September 30, next, and close May 1, 1915. Two hundred thousand dollars will be required to finance the campaign.

The "Squadron" will not be under the auspices, management or control of any political party, league, union, sect or organization. It will be managed by its own members, and conducted absolutely for the abolition of all who drink, and the total prohibition, and in such a way as to strengthen the hands of all worthy movements now in the field. The National Council of One Hundred, composed of representatives from 87 National, reform, educational, religious and temperance organizations, will be the depository of all funds remaining at the close of the campaign.

HINT IS GIVEN VACATIONERS "Leave More Than Money" in Country, Says Pastor.

Visits of city dwellers to rural vacation haunts are not uplifting all ways to the moral and spiritual life of the community to which they go, the opinion expressed by the Rev. James Diamond Corby, of the Universalist Church, in his sermon yesterday.

"We carry with us far more than the grip or trunk contains," he said. "We carry an atmosphere. We set an example for those we meet. We pay our dollars for our board and room, but grumble if the manners and morals of the host do not suit. We expect of our country hosts an example of us. What do we give them? Are they altogether pleased with the way we invade their quiet homes, spend their lives and sow ideas, practices and fashions which they may well view with alarm, if not with indignation?"

Rural families cultivate economies and frugal habits, yet the city children who go among them scorn simple pleasures, and must have a pocketful of money and spend more in a week than the children of rural families do in a year. While the country folks have children, and scribble what note the show and parade of folks whose watchword is, "Never mind the expense. A single holiday is a great treat to them, but many of their city visitors serve pleasure and chase enjoyment all the year.

"Country folks who are teaching their young people to put a premium on sobriety, decorum and decency often are shocked by the carousing and lack of decorum they witness.

"Many who take city boarders tell me their boys learn bad habits, hear coarse stories, their girls have the bad example of loud, brazen ways of dress and language, and the constant visiting on that day serves to break down the higher standards and harm life."

WE RUSH TO THE RESCUE.

When there is something to be done for the public good, it is up to the Crawfish to back right in and do it.

Not a paper in the town has mentioned this matter, and it is high time that somebody should call the attention of the city authorities to it.

We have had complaints from thousands of our readers, more or less, of the smell that smites their nostrils when they come across the Broadway bridge, near the west end of the handsome structure, that is particularly when the wind is from the north, it smells like a sewer factory working overtime under forced draught.

We suggest that the town and county get together on this matter by the county's donating whatever extra dredging poles it has on hand, and the Commissioner of Public Safety applying it to the source of the odor, so that it could not possibly make the matter any worse, and it might be done.

Anyway, something ought to be done for the benefit of the town, for the bridge on the Broadway, Mississippi, St. Johns and Vancouver canals, and the bridge when the wind is from the north, it smells like a sewer factory working overtime under forced draught.

Watch The Crawfish.

FRESH AIR.

There are still a good many thousands of our readers who would like, perhaps, to find a wasp's nest or a real cork, and chase wasps, or do any one of a number of things that kids may do in the country.

George Merrifield, who comes down from Seattle whenever he is in town, and is in town now, says that he has seen a wasp's nest, and he is going to take it to the country, and he is going to help some of the boys get some fresh air.

W. B. Smith wrote his name on the register of the Mult last Monday from Selah, Wash., which must be the last word in town.

LOCALS AND PERSONALS.

We outgassed the weather man last Monday. Emma Goldman and Dr. Ben Reisman, of N. Y., were in town last week on business.

Leonard Becker, who deputized under U. S. Marshall Montag, wears a smoking coat in the office, and he is in town now, and he is in town now, and he is in town now.

When Postmaster Myers writes a letter to Senator Lane he writes "Dear Senator," and he writes "Dear Senator," and he writes "Dear Senator."

Three musical directors, Fred Butler, of New York; Emmett R. Nofziger, of Indiana, and E. C. H. of Ohio, will carry the charge of the music.

NEW RACE FORECAST

Another Continent Now Emerging, Says Dr. S. M. Unger.

CHANGING CREEDS TOLD

Succeeding Peoples and Their Faiths Reviewed and Position Taken That Another Teacher Will Arise to Unify Present Beliefs.

In the United States is forming at the present time a new race that is to be the root stock of one that is to inhabit a new continent, even now beginning to emerge from the Pacific Ocean, according to David S. M. Unger, of Chicago, National lecturer for the Theosophical Society, in an address yesterday at the library.

The race now forming in the United States, Mr. Unger declared to be the sixth that has developed in a period of world change involving the arising and subsidence of many continents. The new continent which he predicted is to be the seventh and the home of the seventh race of humanity.

"First Races Not Embryos." "We are the newcomers in our world," said Mr. Unger, "but we have lived many times before. The story of the past is the story of our childhood. But let us look at the great continent Lemuria. Australia forms the southern part of that mighty continent. New Zealand is also related to it, Easter Island in the top of a mountain submerged beneath the ocean, and Madagascar is also a part of that stretch of land. Northward, where the great Pacific rolls, stretched the continent of Lemuria, which Haeckel has termed the cradle of the human race.

"Catastrophes spread over intervals of thousands of years, but never quite destroy the race. This is one of the means of the working out of mightier ends. The story of Noah, whose great ship rested on the mountain top, and of the flood, tells the story in allegory that to which I refer today as history.

"Atlantis Sinks Into Sea." "Leaving here and there a remnant, Lemuria vanished, but the growth of humanity passed from that third race to another great stage of growth. While Lemuria was sinking, other continents were rising.

OFFERING FOR SUFFRAGE.

As this remarkable story bears out, we have decided to offer a prize of all our wireless stock to the reader who will tell us the name of the man who was elected to the office of mayor of the city of Portland, Oregon, at the election of July 27, 1914.

Two busy women sat at the table and one of them said to the other: "I had my ballot on me when I went to the polls, but I forgot to put it in the box."

Another woman passed and she had her ballot on her, but she forgot to put it in the box.

JESUS CHRIST MAY FIGHT BATTLE OF ARMAGEDDON

Battle of Armageddon Will Be Followed by Ascension of Righteous Dead for Thousand Years.

Declares Elder St. John.

The end of the present world following the Battle of Armageddon, with Jesus Christ as a possible participant, and the rebirth of a new world for the righteous only, is predicted by local Seventh Day Adventists, who base their prophecy on the present signs of a coming general European war. Biblical passages are interpreted by them to indicate that these phenomena are at hand.

"The Bible prophesies the movement of a great army from the north and the annihilation by it of the Kingdom of the South," said Elder Milton H. St. John, pastor of the Central Portland Seventh Day Adventist Church, yesterday. "By this we understand that Russia, drawing into the conflict as it is likely to be, will swoop down upon Constantinople, elsewhere known in the Bible as the Kingdom of the South, and drive the Turks from Europe into the Holy Land."

"Then will follow the Battle of Armageddon, consisting of a series of conflicts around Jerusalem. If Christ does not come to earth during the battle he will descend soon after its conclusion. When he returns to earth, he will take all of the righteous dead with him. These righteous people, who died during the great final battle between the nations according to the Bible, will live in heaven with Christ for 1000 years."

"Meanwhile, Satan will be bound on earth, which will be inhabited by the 1000 years Christ will return to earth with all the righteous people and will settle with them in the New Jerusalem. Satan, unbound again, will lead them in attack against the New Jerusalem, with the promise that they will conquer the city. As they are marching to the battle, a great fire will come down from heaven and devour them, at the same time ridding the earth of all diseases and disease germs. A new earth, inhabited with righteous people, then will be born."

"From the prophesies of the Bible we can see that the conditions in Europe now indicate that the time is ripe. We predict that the final battle of the nations will come soon, as a result of the present complications in Europe. America, because of her intimate commercial connections with Europe, probably will be drawn into the great war. The Bible says that the prophesies of the Bible seem to converge just at this time, when the nations of Europe are entangled, indicating that the great crisis is near at hand."

Elder St. John yesterday cited the following passages in the Bible in support of his general prophecy: Book of Revelation, 16th and 20th chapters; third chapter of Joel; Daniel, 11th and 12th chapters, and the 38th chapter of Ezekiel.

Beginning August 9, the Seventh Day Adventists will conduct a series of meetings in a great tent pavilion on the southwest corner of Thirteenth and Morrison streets, when sermons will be preached bearing on the prophesies made by Elder St. John yesterday.

ACTING DE THURSDAY

DEACONS REFUSE TO DISCUSS DR. HINSON'S RESIGNATION.

Minister in Sermon to Large Congregation Inveighs Against "Ecclesiastical Anarchists."

Action upon the resignation of the Rev. W. B. Hinson from the White Temple probably will be taken by the deacons of the church at a meeting Thursday. None of the members of the body, however, would make any statement yesterday as to what action probably would be taken.

"In case the resignation is accepted, the church law requiring three months' notice undoubtedly will result in a continuance of his occupancy of the pulpit several weeks after his return from his vacation at Sunset Beach, where he will go this week."

Dr. Hinson made no positive announcement on Thursday, but he filed his resignation on with the trustees in either of his sermons last night. The news of the fact that the resignation was in the hands of the body pending in the hands of the deacons and the theme announced for his evening sermon, "Finally, Brethren, Farewell," aroused widespread interest in the church.

"This is not my farewell sermon," said Dr. Hinson, in closing his address to the body, "but my way for a time to rest, and so far as I know, I shall preach here in this pulpit the first Sunday in September. I do not know what the future may bring forth or whether the winding road may lead me in the future."

Dr. Hinson preached his sermon from the farewell words of Paul in the epistle to the Corinthians, and sharply characterized the Church of Corinth as the most "materialistic and carnal church in its time."

"Paul said to them that he could not preach to them the real truth that was within them because they were 'babblers' and 'boasting'."

"There were also in the Church of Corinth ecclesiastical anarchists—those who thought that the fate of every ecclesiastical anarchist who makes bombs against others might be the same as that of the anarchists that made the bomb to blow up Rockefeller; that they might be blown to inch pieces by their own bombs."

"I know I am skating on thin ice," he said at one point in his characterization of the Church of Corinth. "I must skate carefully."

A portion of his words he applied to the church and directly to the congregation before him, saying: "Hear me, for I am talking about you."

Dr. J. Q. Henry will occupy the pulpit of the White Temple next Sunday and until the return of Dr. Hinson from his vacation. Dr. Hinson will not leave for the beach until later in the present week.
