

RIOTING RENEWED IN DUBLIN; 4000 MARCH

Street Cars Stoned by Mob From Slums.

"THE MASSACRE" DENOUNCED

Concerts by Military Bands in Other Towns Canceled.

POLICE THREATEN STRIKE

Law Guardians Demand Reinstatement of Officers Dismissed for Disobedience of Orders. Feeling Runs High.

DUBLIN, July 27.—Rioting broke out again tonight but subsided without serious results. The rumor was spread that the Scottish borderers would entrain at the Amiens-street station. A great crowd, for the most part from the slums, surrounded the station. The rioters amused themselves by stoning streetcars.

Six hundred volunteers paraded through the streets, a crowd of 4000 following them, marching in step and singing.

Feeling runs high throughout Nationalist Ireland. Town councils are adopting resolutions denouncing "the massacre." The soldiers of the Limerick and Kilkenny garrisons are confined to barracks, and concerts by military bands in several towns have been canceled.

The lord mayor of Dublin has called a meeting of the magistrates to consider the action of the castle authorities in calling out the police and soldiers without consulting the city officials. The police threaten a strike unless those members of the department who were dismissed for disobedience of orders are reinstated.

It is announced here that Sir John Ross, the police commissioner, resigned as a protest against the suspension of Deputy Commissioner Harrell. The Nationalists are delighted, as Commissioner Ross was unpopular.

ASQUITH'S PLANS ARE UPSET

Irish Nationalists in No Frame of Mind to Give Concessions.

LONDON, July 27.—The first effect of the Dublin home rule tragedy has been to smash Premier Asquith's plans for taking up the amending home rule bill tomorrow. The Premier announced today that the question had been indefinitely postponed.

The Irish members are so exasperated over the killing of four persons and the wounding of many others in the clash yesterday between the regular troops and the Nationalist volunteers that they are in no frame of mind to grant any concessions to Ulster. The Laborites and many Liberals support them.

One Suspended; One Quits. The government announced in the House of Commons today that Deputy Police Commissioner Harrell, who ordered out the troops, had been suspended and that his superior commissioner, Sir John Ross, who expressed a desire to share the responsibility, has resigned his office.

A special inquiry will be held probably by a judicial commission. In the meantime the demand for the removal of the Scottish borderers from Dublin has not been granted, largely because an attempt to march them out would be the signal for attacks by the mob. They will remain prisoners in barracks until the anger of the people has cooled.

The Nationalist members of Parliament held a meeting this morning and showed more animus against the castle than the government. They consider Viceroy Aberdeen's official family prejudiced against the Nationalists. Troops Withdrawal Demanded.

A heated discussion was started in the House of Commons by John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, who demanded an impartial inquiry into the conduct of the troops and their punishment. He demanded, also, that the recruits should be removed from Ireland, that the proclamation against the importation of arms into Ireland should be withdrawn because it constituted a serious danger, and that the law be administered impartially.

He called for the suspension of Sir John Ross, the Police Commissioner of Dublin, and said:

"We had an experience with him in the Larkin riots. He is unfit to hold his office. He is a well-known political partisan."

Mr. Redmond compared "this monstrous business" with the parades of armed volunteers in Belfast.

"To such a state of impotence has the British government been reduced in Ireland," he said, "that a subordinate official is able to call in soldiers without consulting the executive of the country."

He expressed the hope that the Irish people would not blame the troops too much, and concluded amid great cheers: "Four-fifths of the Irish people will not submit any longer to being bullied and punished for conduct which is allowed to go Scot free in Ulster by another section of their fellow countrymen."

Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, blamed Deputy Commissioner Harrell for the rioting.

TAG RECALLS FATE OF PRIVATE PARKS

PIECE OF ALUMINUM WORN BY MEXICO VICTIM FOUND.

Identification Mark Is Sent to General Funston—Hat Pierced in Back by Bullet Cast Away.

VERA CRUZ, July 27.—Mute evidence of the fate of Private Samuel Parks, of the Twenty-eighth Infantry, U. S. A., who was shot to death by a Mexican outlaw in front of Vera Cruz early in May, reached Brigadier-General Funston today, when the aluminum tag of identification which Parks wore when he wandered out of the American lines was forwarded by mail from Mexico City.

The tag and parts of his blood-stained uniform have been deposited in the Mexican War office for many weeks. They were sent there when an investigation of the killing of the American soldier demanded by the Washington Government was undertaken by the Mexican officials.

The Mexican War Office apparently considers the incident closed, however, as the uniform, including Parks' campaign hat, caked with blood and a hole in the back of it made by the bullet which probably caused his death, was given to a janitor employed about the War Department last Friday with the statement of an attaché that "we don't want this stuff here any longer."

The incident was reported to an American residing in Mexico City and he obtained possession of the identification tag and forwarded it to General Funston.

BOUDOIR BAG HIDES BOMB

Militant Sentenced to 15 Months for Toting Explosives.

NOTTINGHAM, England, July 27.—Irene Casey, a militant suffragette, was today sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment on a charge of being in possession of explosives with the intention of committing a felony. Miss Casey, who is the daughter of a London physician, was arrested during the King's recent visit to Nottingham. She was carrying a dressing bag containing four boxes full of a high explosive besides detonators, fuse, benzene, a chisel, pycners and glass cutters.

HUNDREDS OF SHEEP BURN

Loss in Stockyards Fire at Louisville, Ky., Is $600,000.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 27.—Fire, which broke out in the sheep pen of the Bourbon Stockyards here tonight, caused damage estimated at $600,000. Hundreds of sheep were burned.

SAM HILL IS SCORED BY GOOD ROADS MEN

Tri-State Delegates Attack Policy.

ATTEMPT TO BOSS ALLEGED

Plan to Change Pacific Highway Route Also Charged.

100 ENVOYS AT MEDFORD

Campaign Is Started for States Themselves to Enter Road-Making Business—Representative of California Governor There.

MEDFORD, Or., July 27.—Severe condemnation of Samuel Hill for attempted dictation of the good-road policy of Oregon and his alleged effort to change the route of the Pacific Highway from Willamette Valley to Eastern Oregon and the launching of a campaign for the states themselves to go into the road-making business marked the second annual convention of the Tri-State Good Roads Association, which opened here today, with 100 delegates from California, Washington and Oregon.

W. H. Gore, of Medford; George E. Boos, secretary of the association; B. P. Nichols, of Kiddle, Or., and John H. Alberts, of Salem, Or., all took occasion to criticize the prominent good-road advocate and president of the Pacific Highway Association, while Bert R. Greer, of Ashland, Or., and other delegates, who opposed Mr. Hill's attempt to change the Pacific Highway route, warmly supported his efforts on behalf of better roads throughout the three states.

The discussion followed a letter read by the secretary from Mr. Hill, in which he declared the refusal of Marion and other counties in the Willamette Valley to bond for good roads made the construction of the Pacific Highway a matter of life and death.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

Table listing various news items and their page numbers, including weather, local events, and national news.

TRAFFIC HEARING PRODUCES TILTS

Speed Limit Debated With Vigor.

AUTO DRIVERS ARE CRITICISED

Variance of Opinion Shown as to Street Rights.

PLEA FOR CHILDREN VOICED

Commissioner Bigelow Thinks Rest on Rockpile for Some of Reckless Would Be Beneficial. Slight Changes to Be Made.

Proper speed limits and regulations for automobiles in Portland were subjects of heated controversies yesterday at an informal meeting of the City Commission, at which Commissioner Brewster's proposed new traffic ordinance was up for discussion.

The autist and the pedestrian took opposite sides at the session, and their views were considerably at variance on many important points.

Speed and the use of streets by pedestrians were the principal topic under discussion.

In the contention that the speed limit should be lower than 25 miles an hour outside the congested district, pedestrians had the support of some of the autists, including the proprietor of one of the big taxicab companies and the man who has charge of all the autos of the Meier & Frank Company.

Train Speed Used as Argument. "Speed must depend upon conditions," said C. W. Hodson. "There are places where 25 miles an hour is not fast, and there are other places where it is dangerous."

"Why, the average time of the famed Shasta Limited is less than 25 miles an hour," said L. R. Talbot, of the City Taxicab Company. "There is not a train running out of Portland that makes such speed."

"A speed of 25 miles an hour is certainly not too great for the maximum," declared H. L. Handler. "I operate an automobile."

FIRE IMPERILS BIG WATERFRONT ZONE

DOCKS AND SHIPPING AT FOOT OF MORRISON ENDANGERED.

Scores of Women and Men Driven to Street Turn Sidewalk Into Dressing-Room.

Territory lying between Morrison, Alder, Front streets and the river was menaced by fire that started in Pap's restaurant shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. Six buildings were destroyed, entailing a probable loss of $10,000. The insurance is unknown. The property belonged to the Meier & Frank estate.

After an hour's fighting the department had the blaze under control. G. J. Kimball, traveling salesman from Lethbridge, Can., was saved from the building by his wife, who awoke him as the smoke was filling the Eastmond Hotel. Scores of the occupants, among whom were many women, scurried to the street in night attire, many carrying their clothes. The sidewalks for several blocks were converted into dressing-rooms, while the flames lit the entire district.

Detective Abbott, one of the first to respond to the alarm, walked through the rooming-houses and hotels, knocking on the doors and waking up the roomers.

Fire Tin, reporter for Chinese papers, Phil Polsky, a newspaper man, Detective Vaughn, Attorney Ryan and others awakened roomers.

The buildings lost were those occupied by the Ed Schmeer restaurant, Pap's restaurant, Morrison shoe repair, a vacant saloon and two confectionery stores.

Launches saved the Merrill boat-house by towing it into midstream. The fireboat David Campbell directed its efforts effectively to saving the commission houses and river craft docked in the imperiled zone.

Mrs. Johnson, overcome by smoke in one of the restaurants, was brought out into the street by a policeman. Her son rushed from the building, looked through the crowd on the street, and, not seeing his mother, dashed back into the flames to save her. He met the officer bringing her out.

Mrs. Mola Erickson, part owner of the Schmeer restaurant, says that one of the Chinamen was lost in the fire. Chinese of the district believe he escaped.

MAN AND WOMAN HELD UP

H. J. McEhrin Is Robbed of $8 by Outlaw Near Park.

H. J. McEhrin, 341 Eleventh street, and a woman companion were held up last night about 10:30 o'clock on the Canyon road near the City Park. McEhrin was robbed of $8. The highwayman is described as being about 25 years old, slenderly built and smooth shaven. While taking the money from McEhrin the highwayman continually admonished him not to look at him, but McEhrin's companion was able to give a fair description.

Three other holdups in the neighborhood of the park have been reported in the past week, and Detectives Abbott and Hammerley, who were out on the case last night, believe that this man is the one who operated in the previous cases.

STRIKE MEDIATION SCORES

Enginemmen Agree to Continue Negotiations With Roads.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Mediation between the 98 Western railroads and their enginemmen scored a victory when the men agreed to continue negotiations with the roads. A week ago July 28 had been set by the men as the final date for conference.

The board of mediation met with the general managers' committee of the railroads and was ready to confer with the men when the board members received a notice asking a day's postponement to let the enginemmen consider recent proposals.

The mediation board has given up hopes for a direct settlement of the controversy and now is directing every effort to have the enginemmen agree to arbitration.

BARN BURNED AT CHARIVARI

Sherwood Boys and Young Men May Be Arrested for Wedding Act.

SHERWOOD, Or., July 27.—(Special.)—As a result of the charivari party Thursday evening at the Cooper ranch north of town, following the Palmer-Cooper wedding, warrants may be issued for the arrest of nearly 50 boys and young men who assisted in the noisemaking.

The charge is the serious one of firing the big barn on the ranch of Mrs. Cooper, which burned to the ground about midnight of the same evening. The loss amounted to more than $500, about half of it covered by insurance. The insurance company has taken up the matter with Mrs. Palmer and expects to follow it to some action.

AIRMEN LOST IN CLOUDS

Greatest Alpine Flight With Passenger Attended by Pangs.

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 27.—The greatest Alpine flight on record with a passenger, following the Palmer-Cooper wedding, was accomplished today by the Italian aviator, Achille Lantini, who was accompanied by Dr. Lampugnani.

They left Novara, Italy, at 3 A. M. and traversed the Monte Rosa range, 15,217 feet in height. They landed safely at Vish at 7:50 o'clock, thus taking nearly three hours to cover a way in the clouds and suffered greatly from the cold.

TWO GREAT POWERS WORK TO AVERT WAR

England Seeks 4-Nation Move for Peace.

RUSSIA ACTS SINGLE HANDED

Engagement Between Austrians and Servians Reported.

RIGID CENSORSHIP HOLDS

Vienna Is Extremely Warlike and Press Maintains Country Cannot Retreat Even Should Serbia Accept Unconditionally.

PARIS, July 28.—A Vienna despatch says very important preparations are on the point of completion with a view to military action which will be applied against Serbia Tuesday morning.

LONDON, July 27.—An engagement between Austrians and Servians is reported to have occurred on the Danube, but no details are available. As far as the censorship permits to be known, Austria has not yet opened her military operations.

Meanwhile, diplomacy is proceeding with energy along two separate lines to avert the war if possible, and if that is an impossibility, to localize the conflict. First, Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has proposed to the powers a plan for joint mediation, which, it is stated, France and Italy already have accepted. Germany has not yet replied, and her acceptance is regarded as doubtful.

Four Powers Aid Sought. Sir Edward Grey explained in the House of Commons his idea, which was that the four powers, Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy, cooperate in an endeavor to arrange the dispute between Austria and Servia on the basis of Servia's reply to the Austrian ultimatum. This reply he regarded as the foundation on which friendly and impartial powers should be able to arrange an acceptable settlement.

Should these British efforts be unavailing, his efforts will be directed to many other powers. It is expected he will endeavor to prevent complications by confining the operations to Austria and Servia.

Russia's Plan Important. The second line of endeavor, from which even more is hoped tonight, is taking place at St. Petersburg between the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Sergius Sazonoff, and the Austrian Ambassador. It is understood that M. Sazonoff is making a tremendous effort to bring about a direct understanding and that a solution on these lines would be more agreeable to Germany than Great Britain's conference proposal.

The Russian Emperor has postponed his intended visit to Finland in order to remain at the capital during the crisis. It is said Russia is urging Servia to give Austria the fullest possible satisfaction.

Vienna Extremely Warlike. An extremely warlike spirit prevails in Vienna, where the evening papers declare that the Servians are only making evasions and that therefore it is impossible for the Austrian government to retreat. Further, they hint that, even should Servia accept the Austrian ultimatum unconditionally and offer to pay the cost of Austria's mobilization, Austria now would be compelled to ask for new concessions.

GERMAN POLICY DETERMINED

Optimism Gains Despite Run on Banks by Small Depositors.

BERLIN, July 27.—Important conferences were held at Potsdam this afternoon between the German Emperor, the Imperial Chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, and the strategic heads of the army and navy, to determine definitely the German policy in the crisis.

The British and French Ambassadors, Sir Edward Goschen and Jules Cambon, called on the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Herr von Jagow, with communications from their governments.

Authentic information has been received in Berlin that Russia, though not mobilizing her army, is taking certain precautionary military measures.

Runs on the savings banks were made by small depositors in various parts of Germany. These were the outstanding features of the day, which, despite the first bloodshed in the Austro-Servian conflict, registered a slight but distinct increase in optimism regarding the situation.

The British Ambassador made no concrete proposals. It is understood he told the German Foreign Minister that Great Britain's object was not to intervene in the Austro-Servian controversy, which he declared was not England's affair, but sought a basis on which Great Britain, France and Germany, by action at Vienna and St. Petersburg, could prevent the spread of the conflict.

The French Ambassador proposed that Germany use her influence at Vienna in favor of moderation. He was informed Germany was perfectly willing to let the other powers try to settle the matter.

(Concluded on Page 2.)

PHOTOGRAPHS OF SCENES AND PERSONAGES ILLUSTRATING HOME RULE CRISIS.

TOP—LEFT, JOHN REDMOND, NATIONALIST LEADER, WHO WAS STORM CENTER OF DEBATE IN COMMONS YESTERDAY. RIGHT, WOMEN NURSES ATTACHED TO ULSTER VOLUNTEERS. MIDDLE—LEFT, PREMIER ASQUITH. RIGHT, AUGUSTINE BIRRELL, CHIEF SECRETARY FOR IRELAND. BELOW—LATE PHOTO SHOWING ULSTER VOLUNTEERS USING AUTOMOBILES TO MOBILIZE FORCES.