DETROIT, July 29 .- Six heats failed to decide the Merchants' and Manufacturers' stake, topliner on today's Grand Circuit programme, and the race went over to tomorrow, when three heat Kansas City ...010693180-5 10 0 winners will go to a finish. When Pittsburg066000210-3 4 1 darkness put an end to the struggle. Batteries Stone, Adams and Enzendarkness put an end to the struggle, two horses had won two heats each and another, one. The winner of the the second round and broke at the first turn. She ran a quarter of a mile and was far back of the distance when showed wonderful speed nearing the wire and five horses were well bunched when the heat ended.

Only heat inners were eligible to start the fifth mile, but through an oversight of the judges, McCloskey was permitted to go away with Peter Scott, Lassie McGreggor and Linda Wrona. Lassie McGreggor took this round rather easily. But when McDonald drove McCloskey from the rear and captured the sixth heat, Cox objected drove McCloskey from the fear and captured the sixth heat, Cox objected. After a long discussion the protest was allowed and the other starters were placed as they finished behind McCloskey. This gave Peter Scott the heat with Linda Wrona second and Lassie McCreary third. The race was then McGreggor third. The race was then postponed.

The record for the stake, which previous to this year was for 2:24 class horses, was broken by Linda Wrona in the second heat when she did the mile in 2:05%. The previous mark, 2 was made by Sonoma Girl in 1907.

NEVILLE'S DESPERATE FIGHT IS SPECTACULAR.

Golf Tourney Grows Exciting When Milwaukee Youth Defeats Sun Francisco Star.

KENT COUNTRY CLUB, Grand Rapida, Mich., July 29.-Playing brilliantly this afternoon, but unable to overcome the handicap of poor work this forenoon, Jack Neville, of San Francisco, the champion of the Pacific Coast, was eliminated from the Western amateur golf championship tournament by E. Allis, III, of Milwaukse. Allis won he 36-hole match I up and one. Neville's desperate fight against overwhelming olds was the spectacular incident of the afternoon play. When the forenoon half of the match was over the Milwaukee youth w up. Allis won the first hole of the afternoon 18, but Neville braced and literally played Allis off his feet thereafter going out. Neville, two down on the turn, halved the next three holes and won the list four and three. That was the nearest he got to Neville's drive into the rough, cost him the 33d hole, decided the match. Another light fight was a 37-hole duel between R. A. Hunter, of Midwick, Pasudena, and France Hale, Edge-water, Chicago, Hale, like Neville, was considered a strong contender for the title, but Hunter won the deciding point. The defeat of Harold Weber, of Toledo, by Phil Stanton, of Grand Rapids, by the top-heavy score of 2 to 8 was the big surprise of the day. Charles Evans, Jr. of Edgewater, and Albert Zeckel, of Hiverside, won their matches rather easily, and, being paired against each other tomorrow.

Manager Christian was non-committal.

"I don't know why Zacher didn't report this afternoon," he said. "I suppose that he was sick and couldn't leave. However, he has sent no word to me. I have had no trouble with him, but ordered him out of the game on Tuesday for reasons that I do not care to discuss."
