AUDITORIUM TO BE RAZED.—Although a request had been made to withhold such action until a committee investigating the unemployed labor situation has finished its work, the City Commission by vote of three to two yesterday adopted a resolution authorizing the municipal purchasing agent to advertise for bids for the razing of the old Gipsy Smith Auditorium building. Mayor Albee and Commissioners Bigelow opposed the action while Commissioners Brewster, Dieck and Daly voted for it. The plan is to have the structure removed as soon as possible under the terms of a lease held on the building by the city.
