Beleaguered Garrison, Without Water, Will Abandon City to Rebel Forces.

TRANSPORTS REACH BAY

Constitutionalists Will Then Hold Entire Pacific Coast of Mexico, Except Manzanillo, Which Is Being Pressed Hard.

NOGALES, Ariz., July 30.-Report received here Inte today from Mazstian NORTHWEST RUG CO.—Rugs from old carsaid fighting was in progress there, with no advantage to either side as yet.

MAZATLAN, Mex., July 30 .- The water supply of this beleagued city is exhausted and evacuation will begin at any moment. Federal transports are lying in the harbor to receive the decamping garrison.

Under convoy of the gunboat Guerrero, the transports arrived here today. One, the Pesquiera, received a field place, to cover the shore in case of interference with the operations of evacuation.

In all probability evacuation would now be under way, had it not been that a heavy tropical squail swept the harbor today, driving ashore the steamship Bonita, which arrived here yesterday loaded with 600 federal troops, women and cattle from Lower California. All on board were gotten safely to land, and are now housed in the federal bar-

General Tellez, commanding, today sent 60 constitutionalists prisoners of war, as well as the captured crew of the sunken constitutionalist gunboat Tampico, to General Obregon at Colima. Arrangements have been made to reove all foreigners still residing in Mazatlan to the foreign warships in the harbor, in case of disorders or danger from the constitutionalist fire during

With the evacuation of this port, the constitutionalists will hold the entire Pacific coast of Mexico, except for Man-zanillo, which is still held by the gar-rison that evacuated Guaymas. Constitutionalist troops are pressing it

SCHOLLS BRIDGE GIVES WAY Washington County May Have to Settle for Accident.

SHERWOOD, Or., July 30.—(Special.)
—An accident which, it is reported, will cost the county a settlement, occurred at the foot of Celey hill, two miles north of Sherwood, on the Scholls road yesterday, when the bridge across the creek at that place gave way under the weight of a threshing engine.

allowing the engine to drop to the creek ten feet below. The engine belonged to Ferd Langer, ELEVATOR AIR of Sherwood, and was badly damaged The bridge, which is on a main traveled road, has been neglected by the county, it is said, and at the time of the accident was in bad shape. It was at this snot that a similar accident occurred about a year ago, which resulted in the killing of one man and the injury of two others.

OAKLAND ROBBERS ESCAPE

Four Men Seen Carrying Off Postoffice Safe and $110 Is Taken.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 30 .- (Special.) No trace has been found of the four thleves who last night robbed the Oak-land postoffice of $112 in cash. It is thought almost certain that they drove north in an automobile. The robbery occurred about 1 A. M. Falling to knock the combination from the safe, they dragged it outside, placed it in a pushcart and wheeled it to a creek some distance from the postoffice, MILWAUKIE, Or., July 30.—(Special.)—The amended franchise for right to construct in Milwaukie the street has been in Roseburg for several days and it is thought the men also have been here for some time.

Stamps in the safe were not taken.
