WAR NEWS DRIVES WHEAT PRICE DOWN

Disruption of Ocean Trade Is Feared and Export Business Paralyzed.

HAZARD IS KEENLY FELT

Market on Whole, However, Shows Advance of 6 to 7 Cents Over Preceding Night, and Cereal Crosses Dollar Line.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Contrary to all previous experience, wheat prices in the final dealings here today were being driven down, not up, by prospects that the war would spread. After a rise of 9 cents a bushel, values shrunk as much as 5 cents in 30 minutes, largely on account of bold assertions that the bulk of the surplus crop of the United States, instead of being rushed to Europe because of widespread needs due to war, might be held in this country as a result of general war disrupting all ocean trade.

Leading exporters here did not hesitate to be quoted by name in declaring that export business in wheat from the United States already had been paralyzed.

To a lesser degree the same statement applied, for the time being at least, to all dealings in wheat, especially transactions of a speculative character.

Business which three days ago was counted in millions of bushels dwindled at times today to almost the vanishing point.

It was pointed out that virtually all the ocean-carrying tonnage was owned by foreign capital and was subject to government use for army transports and that grain-laden vessels in the case of a general war would be the most keenly sought prey of hostile fleets.

That views so gloomy, however, were not universally accepted by holders of wheat was made apparent by the fact that prices tonight were 6 to 7 cents higher than last night and that wheat prices today, for the first time this year, went above the dollar mark.

FURIOUS LIQUIDATION IS ON

New York Market Bears Brunt of World-Wide Selling.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The New York Stock Exchange bore the brunt today of tremendous world-wide liquidation of securities. This was solely inspired by the clouds of war which today, more ominous than ever, hung over all Europe. It centered here because there is no other primary security market in the world which is not either closed or under restriction.

Prices broke from 6 to 17 points under an overturn of 1,300,000 shares of stock, a large part of which represented the "dumping" of foreign holders of American securities or the selling of foreign speculators. While it was the most drastic decline since the domestic panic of 1907 and recalled the scenes of excitement that attended those days, international bankers who have their fingers on the pulse of the situation expressed pride in the fact that the American market had so well withstood the avalanche of selling.

PRICES IN NORTHWEST SOAR

Disposition to Act Cautiously Is Shown Toward End.

There was another excited flurry in the Northwestern wheat market yesterday. Buying was carried on from early morning until night wherever farmers could be found who would dispose of their grain. The total purchases were the largest for any day this season.

Prices soared in response to the sensational advances in the foreign markets. Wheat was bought in some sections of the interior on the basis of 81½ cents, delivered at Portland, the price current on the previous day, and in other parts of the Northwest buyers paid the equivalent of 83½ cents, 84 cents and 85 cents.

The average price of wheat in Oregon, Washington and Idaho is now 6 cents higher than it was a week ago.

100 "BULL MOOSERS" BACK

Indianapolis Men Rejoin Republicans and Urge Others to Follow.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30.—More than 100 men who voted the Progressive ticket in 1912 held a conference here today, declared their allegiance to the Republican party and issued an appeal to men of all political parties to join them in support of the Republican ticket this year.

Every section of the state was represented at the conference.

In the appeal issued it is declared that there were reasons in 1912 "which we deemed sufficient whereby thousands of Republicans voted other tickets. These reasons no longer exist."

FIRE AT SISSON JUMPS

Town Several Days Endangered Now Safe; Another Menaced.

REDDING, Cal., July 30.—With danger to the town of Sisson virtually removed, the great forest fire, which for four days has been raging on its outskirts, has jumped the McCloud River Railroad and, fanned by a steady south breeze, slowly is making its way toward Weed, the largest town in Siskiyou County.

Three hundred men, weary with fire-fighting, are bivouacked in Sisson tonight.

CIRCUSMEN SEIZE 12 CARS

Members of Young Buffalo's Disbanded Show Use Wild West Way.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 30.—Armed with repeating rifles and firing volleys into the air, 18 former employes of Young Buffalo's Wild West show seized the entire equipment of the recently disbanded company and drove off a train crew which attempted to take 12 of the show cars out of the railroad yards at Alton, Ill., near here today.

Herrick to Present Recall.

Peace footing.....361,747 War footing.....401,000

If any faith can be placed in the figures above, computed according to the latest statistics available, the Triple Entente can muster a larger body of troops than the Triple Alliance—8,972,615, against 8,603,150. It must be remembered, however, that Italy's army is problematical, while the figures given for Russia include her large Asiatic army, which could not at once be placed in a European conflict.

The naval figures do not include scout cruisers or the lesser miscellaneous ships of the several fleets. Austria has six monitors in its flotilla on the Danube and two more building for the same service. The naval figures are for May 1, 1913. Many of the ships included as "building" have since been put in commission.

BRITISH NAVY READY

Portsmouth Harbor Closed; Suspected Spies Arrested.

IRISH ISSUE IS POSTPONED

All Factions on Home Rule Question Present Solid Front in Support of Government—Opposition to War Develops.

from other points and a battalion of the Duke of Cornwall's regiment, which was about to embark for Hongkong, has been detained.

The searchlight stations on the eastern coast, whose office is to guard against a surprise invasion and which usually are manned by skeleton staffs, are now fully manned, largely by territorials. Coastwise steamers report the lights all along the coast as being in operation all last night, playing their shafts on every incoming and every outgoing vessel.

None but the admiralty, which is in constant touch through wireless at Whitehall, knows the whereabouts of the first fleet, which left Portsmouth yesterday, but it is a safe presumption that the fleet is in a position close to the channel, where it can strike the North Sea in the event of hostilities.

Crisis Well Timed for Navy.

The crisis could not have arisen at a more convenient time for the navy, as the fleet has just been through a review on a war footing, which took the place of maneuvers this year.

A notice has been issued virtually closing Portsmouth Harbor to private craft, according to a Central News dispatch. Only certain anchorage may be used and vessels may be fired on without notice if they move. They cannot enter or leave the harbor without permission. The ferry service may be stopped at any time.

Two Germans, suspected of being spies, were arrested in the Isle of Wight today and are detained in jail.

The political forces of the country also are almost mobilized solidly, presenting in Premier Asquith's words to the House of Commons today "a united front."

Political Foes in Same Car.

The remarkable sight was witnessed today of Premier Asquith and Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, who a few days ago were on terms of personal as well as political hostility, driving in the same car for a consultation with Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs.

The Prime Minister announced in the House of Commons that the amending bill to the home rule bill would be dropped by the consent of all parties. All parties included the Irish nationalists and the Ulster covenanters.

Mr. Bonar Law said:

"In view of the Prime Minister's pronouncement that 'peace and war are in the balance,' domestic differences must not prevent our presenting a united front in the council of the world."

He added a word in behalf of Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, to the same effect.

Traditional Sentiment Forgotten.

The spectacle of a solid front in support of the government by all sections of the Irish members in the House of Commons was even more remarkable than the reconciliation of Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law. The traditional sentiment of the home rulers that England's extremity is Ireland's opportunity was buried when the Irish members murmured "Hear, hear" to the Premier's plea for unity.

Not only the home rule question but all measures likely to arouse party or international hostilities have been sidetracked. They include the naval vote, which inevitably excites discussion of Germany's policy, and the vote for imperial defense. Nevertheless, there is a strong, although apparently a minority feeling that Great Britain should maintain neutrality whatever comes, and refuse to be drawn into the quarrels of the continental powers.

The peace section of the Liberal party, which through past years of strained relations with Germany has worked for reconciliation, and which often has been called "the little Englanders," is taking a strong stand against the war.

The Labor party also opposes war unitedly. Its members in the House of the Commons today adopted a resolution praising Sir Edward Grey for his attempts at mediation and saying "The Labor party hopes that on no account will this country be dragged into a European conflict in which, as the Prime Minister has stated, we have no direct or indirect interest."

The resolution calls upon all the labor organizations to oppose the war vigorously. Socialist societies in several cities have held meetings to protest against the war.

The Dutch reservists in England have received telegraphic instructions to return to Holland forthwith.

The Cunard Steamship Company denies the report printed in the United States that the Quatania has been commandeered for war service.

Applications for passports at the foreign office this week have exceeded all records.

COAL MUST NOT BE SHIPPED

British Admiralty Sends Warning to Welsh Mine Owners.

CARDIFF, Wales, July 30.—The British admiralty has sent the proprietors of the collieries notice warning them against shipping coal and has notified them that all coal is liable to be taken by the admiralty under emergency contracts and that the admiralty will indemnify them for breach of private contracts.

The admiralty agents have asked tenders of steamers ready to sail immediately on charter of 15 days or longer.

All the crews must be British.

Washington Tablet Installed.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 30.—Washington State's memorial tablet was today installed at the 390-foot level in the Washington monument here, and dedication ceremonies will be held later under the direction of the Washington Congressional delegation.

FEAR OF GENERAL WAR APPALLS CITY

Germany's Demand Upon Russia Looms as Most Stirring News Discussed.

PROPHECIES ARE VARIOUS

Judge Colvig, Close Student of European Politics, Says Trouble Is 'Coming to' Countries and C. E. S. Wood Sees Peace Ahead.

Although there was no such interest or excitement in Portland yesterday as marked the days a few months ago, when war between the United States and Mexico was believed to be a possibility, the great heart of humanity beat with a quickened throb because of the rumors of a possible general conflict in Europe.

Germany's demand that Russia explain the reason for her concentration of troops within 24 hours was regarded as quite the most significant occurrence of the present imbroglio, and the prediction was made freely that the great Slav nation would answer the Kaiser as her little Slav neighbor answered the peremptory demand of Austria-Hungary a few days ago.

It was agreed that, with Russia returning a non-conciliatory reply to Germany, the prospects of a general European conflict would be accelerated to such an extent as to make such a consummation inevitable.

"Chip on Shoulder" Seen.

"Those fellows over there have been carrying chips on their shoulders for so many years," said Judge William M. Colvig, right-of-way agent for the Southern Pacific and for years a close student of European politics, "that it is about time some of them were getting knocked off, or fall off by their own weight. The very psychology of the situation points almost inevitably to war. A man who goes heavily armed, expecting trouble, is sure to run into it sooner or later. There is everything, apparently, to make a war—preparedness for it on the part of all hands, two great branches of the Caucasian race, the Slav and Teuton, arrayed against each other, with every breeze fanning the long-smoldering embers of race hatred, and, perhaps, the need of something to make the people forget the very troubles that have been visited on them by reason of the high taxes resulting from war-preparedness."

Big War Debts Cited.

"I hope there will be no war, and logically there cannot be one," said Colonel C. E. S. Wood, "for the seeming sufficient reason that the nations concerned can't afford one. All economists agree that the present war debts of Europe can never be paid, that they will be a galling burden on the backs of the people forever. It would seem that the rulers, whatever their insanity for territorial aggrandizement, must be compelled to pause and patch up their differences peacably for this if for no other reason. More than 50 per cent of all the government incomes of Europe are now devoted to war purposes. We all know the terrible time Russia had to finance herself in the closing months of the war with Japan, and as for Japan, her people now groan in heavy harness to pay the interest on money borrowed with the greatest difficulty for that same war.

Ultimate Good Expected.

"But if the human craze for conflict, the hysteria that runs riot in men's veins at the throbbing of the war-drums will not be satisfied, as it has not been satisfied through all the blood-drenched centuries, save by the spilling of the precious blood of fellow human creatures, then I say I most fervently hope that there will be the bloodiest and most devastating war of history.

"A general war such as this, and such as may be in prospect, would surely be followed by universal disarmament. So if war must come I take the attitude that a surgeon does who sees that both a man's legs must be amputated to save his life."

Socialists' Silence Noted.

The Rev. Henry H. Koppelman, pastor of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, said that, while the present prospects were that there would be a general war, he hoped that the difficulties in which the nations find themselves may be settled by arbitration.

In all the war talk local Socialists have been remarkably silent. War or rumors of war usually is the signal for their street orators to get busy in denunciation of the ancient game, but up to last night nothing had been heard from them.

C. W. Barzee, a prominent Socialist, admitted that he did not know what preparations had been made, or what the possibilities were, for a general strike of European workmen in protest against the apparently impending hostilities.

Charles J. Schnabel, attorney, declares that someone, working anonymously by telephone, yesterday was trying to stampede local Austrians to return to join the army.

"A number of Austrians," said Mr. Schnabel, "have called on me today for advice. They said they had received telephonic notice from some unknown source in Portland telling them that unless they make immediate preparation to return to Austria they are liable to condign punishment.

"I told them that so long as any native of Austria, whether an American citizen or intending to become one, desires to remain in this country, nothing short of the combined armies and navies of Europe would be equal to the task of forcing him to leave the shelter of our flag. And I added that even these amalgamated armies and navies might have to go some to do it."

Interest Not Lively.

Despite the fact that Worndle & Haas, attorneys in the Stock Exchange building, Third and Yamhill streets, yesterday received and published a notice from the Austro-Hungarian Consulate at San Francisco, saying that pardons would be given deserters from the Austrian army who would return to serve again, but little interest was reported.

Dr. F. H. Dammasch, president of the Portland Turn Verein and Republican nominee for Coroner, said last night: "It looks like something is Russia will do in answer to Germany's note."

Many others, including Thomas Erskine, British Consul, said: "We must wait until tomorrow, and see what going to pop, and that very soon."
