DETROIT. July 31 .- Detroit was unable to hit Ayres effectively today and Washington won the third game of the The was the went experienced. With the game well in hand and the score 7 to 2 in their favor, the break came when the easiest sort of a double play went against them, and from that lime the source of the score of the score of the score of the score when the easiest sort of a double play went against them, and from that lime the source of the score of the Bush and Veach also were features. The visitors hit Dauss hard. Score:

The whole game, as things turned out, hinged on that one play and the problem of whether Catcher Alexander problem of whether Catcher Alexander was stradding the plate on one of those important moments or had his feet securely planted on the rubber, thereby enabling him to pull off a double play. Umpire Finney said the catcher was off guard; that his feet were not on the plate and the run would have to score. It was this way: The bases were filled. Lober filed to second, slightly relieving the situation, and then followed the big trouble of the afternoon.
