ROSE FESTIVAL IN 1915 IS DEMANDED

Ad Club President Says City Cannot Afford to Discontinue Advertisement.

ROSARIANS TAKE ACTION

Resolutions Adopted for Presentation to Association Declaring Members Will Work Harder to Add to Portland's Fame.

Suggestions from some of the members of organizations represented in the Portland Rose Festival that the annual entertainment be abandoned the coming yar have met with strong dissent from many other sources. F. Berg, president of the Portland Ad Club, yesterday gave his opinion that Portland never will be able to afford to give up the Festival, which has spread her fame so far through the world, and representatives of other organizations
