Potter, which is on the North coast route, is carrying a record, an unusually large Monday crowd, yesterday. On Saturday she had 417 passengers aboard.

POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS GROW-A net gain of $22 in postal receipts over July of 1913 is shown at the Portland Postoffice for the past month as compared with an increase of $205 for the same month in 1913. Portland's receipts during July, 1914, for the Postoffice were $94,160.33 as compared to $91,132.70 for July, 1913. The delivery of foreign mail is doubtful, states Postmaster Meyers, for, though it is still leaving New York, its disposition on the Continent depends mainly upon London's ruling in the matter.

"LOAN SHARK" CASES UP-In charge of Deputy District Attorney Hamersley, the grand jury began work yesterday, but was not ready to return any indictments last night. The first cases taken up were those of the five alleged loan sharks arrested during the police raid on the same night. The grand jury is expected to return indictments on the charges of receiving illegal interest. The statute said to have been violated is the state law of 1913, and in the event of conviction, both fine and imprisonment are provided.

REV. J. R. FREELAND COMING-Rev. J. B. Freeland, of Pasadena, Cal., will assist at the annual camping of the Free Methodist Church, Hawthorne avenue and East Sixty-first street, which will open tomorrow morning. Rev. Frank Burns, district elder, will be in charge of the services. A large pavilion tent has been erected in the center of the grounds, and the smaller family tents have been placed near the large one.

COLONIST RATES ANNOUNCED-A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific Railway, with headquarters at Portland, has placed telegraphic information from St. Paul yesterday that colonist tickets will be on sale this year from September 24 to October 8, inclusive. They will be good over the same territory as in 1913, from any point East to any point in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. The same fares will prevail as last year.

DAMAGE SUIT TRANSFERRED-The $12,000 damage suit brought by Mike Hagman against the Coos Bay Pulp & Paper Company was removed from the Circuit to the District Court yesterday. The plaintiff asks damages for a leg broken on November 15, 1913, when an iron sheet fell on him while he was working in the mill. The injury was represented by Anderson & Erickson, the defendant by Sheppard & Brock.

PENTON'S HEARING SET-Arrested yesterday by Deputy Marshal Armitage on a white slavery charge, Charles H. Penton will be given a hearing before Commissioner Campbell at 2 o'clock today. It is alleged that Penton transported Marie Morris from Seattle to Portland on July 15 for immoral purposes.

SIGNAL TOWER TO RISE-Plans were filed yesterday at the City Hall by the O. W. R. & N. Co. for the construction of a two-story reinforced concrete signal and switch tower, which will be erected at the intersection of the railroad with Irving street.

More Water is Promised. Improvements in Irvington and Vernon Will Aggregate $156,000. More than five miles of 12-inch, 16-inch and 20-inch water mains will be laid in the Irvington and Vernon districts to supply the rapidly increasing demand for Bull Run water in those territories, according to plans made at a meeting of the Board of Waterworks yesterday. Present mains are insufficient to care for the water needs of the northeast part of the city, according to Water Engineer Charles H. Penton, who stated that that district will supply Vernon and Irvington. The estimated cost of the improvement is $156,000. According to preliminary plans, a 30-inch main will be constructed from East Fifty-ninth and Fremont streets to the Vernon standpipe at East Twentieth and Prescott streets, a distance
