Clearing-House Head Says Banks Here Will Aid in Financing Situation.

GRAIN RELIEF IS FORECAST

Steps Taken to Organize Currency Association Under Aldrich-Vreeland Act—Clearing-House Basis Held Needless.

Preliminary steps were taken at a meeting of the Portland Clearing-House Association yesterday to organize a currency association in Oregon similar to those that already have been formed in New York, Chicago, Boston and other Eastern financial centers under the Aldrich-Vreeland act.

The Portland clearing-house had telegraphed to Washington on Monday asking if Aldrich-Vreeland currency, as provided for by that act, could be forwarded here should it be desired. At yesterday's meeting the following answers from John Skelton Williams, Controller of the Currency, was read: "I will send an amount of Vreeland currency to which Portland banks may be entitled under Aldrich-Vreeland act. It can be shipped to sub-treasurers at San Francisco and delivered from that point when provisions of the act have been complied with by the applying association. If desired, will forward blank forms."

Steps to Organize Finance. In reply, the Clearing-House Association telegraphed to Controller Williams that steps already were under way to organize a currency association, and asked him to forward the San Francisco sub-treasurer the amount of the currency to which the Portland banks would be entitled.

The Portland banks are in excellent condition. At the meeting today, representatives of the various banks said that the demand for currency is but little different than usual, and that they were confident that there would not be any unusual strain put upon them by the public.

The Portland clearing-house felt that there was absolutely no need of going on a clearing-house basis here, and the opinion of the members, it was the general opinion that within a short time, probably two weeks, ways and means would be devised to finance currency in amounts that have been accomplished, there is nothing in the situation to cause the least anxiety.

Telegrams were received today from banks in such Eastern centers as New York, Chicago and St. Paul, as well as from San Francisco. They assured us that the financial situation is better than it has been for some time, and that the general financial situation all over the United States was better than it has been for the last few days and was steadily improving.

English War Ineffective. "The possible effect of the declaration of war between England and Germany has been entirely discounted in financial circles here, and no effect on the financial situation. For several days it had seemed inevitable that England should be drawn into the war, so that tonight's news of the actual declaration of war between the two countries has occasioned no surprise and cannot affect the situation."

The announcement got abroad that Dr. J. A. Pettit was still in London. Dr. Pettit's office was besieged by telephone calls and the doctor, who had been fortunate enough to get away before the trouble commenced, and who had returned to Portland Sunday, was busy all day explaining that he wasn't marooned in Europe.

"TOLSTOY'S VISION" OF CONFLICT IS RECALLED Message to Kaiser in 1911 Contains Prediction of World-Wide War, Rise of New Napoleon and United States of Nations.

A SUDDEN notion induced the Kaiser to write to the czar in the early Autumn of 1911 asking to obtain for him a message from Tolstoy. Something that was the request made by the Emperor.

The czar, desirous of obliging his "cousin"—all sovereigns claim blood and divine relationship—commanded Countess Nastasia Tolstoy, grand-niece of the sage, to interview Leo Nicolaevitch, as he was familiarly called, and to secure from him the desired document.

This prophetic message, singularly timely at this hour, is known as "Tolstoy's Vision" by his admirers. Printed in Russian in 1912, it was translated and first circulated among the friends of the great Muscovite philosopher as a privately-printed and little-known pamphlet.

Tolstoy Hears Command. Following the royal command, Countess Nastasia Tolstoy, grand-niece of his country estate and explained briefly her mission. He listened curiously and replied: "I would be glad to send a message to royalty, but the trouble with me is that I have written all my life messages for the mob."

LANE JARS TRADE BILL WEEK'S LIST TOPS 300 Oregon Senator Bitter in Attack on Commission.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 4.—Senator Lane today denounced the Administration's trade commission bill, but concluded his 20-minute "roast" by saying: "I expect to be compelled to vote for this bill because there will be nothing better offered."

Senator Lane voiced his entire lack of confidence in such a commission by saying he would vote against it, giving it as his opinion that the commission, being in no way responsible to the people, is likely to be dominated by the interests of the manufacturers.

Senator Lane declared Congress should handle this problem by passing a brief, plain and easily-understood law, conferring upon the Attorney General or some other recognized law officer of the Government full power to deal with unfair trade transactions, suppression of competition and like "good results from this measure," he said.
