At the end of the fourth it was 2 to 1 for Venice, the Tigers having got to Martinoni for two singles and a triple, the same, with a couple of bad heaves, being good for two runs. Portland made its first count in the fourth on Rodgers' walk, Kores' single and Speas' long fly.

on Rodgers' walk, Kores' single and Speas' long fly.

They let the game struggle along this way until the seventh, when Speas singled with one down. Lober made first when McArdle tried to get Speas at second on Ty's infield tap, but all hands were safe. Fisher flew out after trying to hit the ball out of the lot. Ryan, however, used more judgment and singled, scoring Speas, and then retired to let Rieger run for him. Bancroft's only hit of the day came right here, and Lober trotted in. Doane had one on him when Bancroft started for second. Elliott shot the ball down to Leard, but Banny suddenly stopped

Last year Huggins was discredited as a manager by the owners of the St. Louis club and the newspapers of St. Louis, which were clamoring for his release. He encountered many dissensions among his players, some of whom refused to try to do their best for him because they found fault with his style of managing. One of the star pitchers complained that Huggins wanted to tell him from second base what kind of a ball to throw every wanted to tell him from second base what kind of a ball to throw every batter that faced him when he was working in the box. Huggins was slated to be removed and the owners wanted to sell the club, when Miller prevailed upon them to keep him another season and to let him put over the big trade with Pittsburg, which cleared his team of the kickers and trouble-makers.

Many experts proclaimed Huggins as crazy after he made the deal and

Defenders to Go Out of Commission

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 5.—Although the New York Yacht Club had received no official word today from Sir Thomas Lipton regarding his reported withdrawal from the international yacht races because of the war, the intended American cup defenders, Resolute and Vanitie, probably will go out of commission Saturday.

HUNTER-SLAYER ARRESTED Louis Dodge Must Stand Trial for

Killing Henry Olson for Deer. MEDFORD, Or., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—
Louis Dodge, of Ashland, who shot and killed Henry Olson Saturday night, mistaking him for a deer, was arrested this afternoon and arraigned in Justice Taylor's court on a complaint sworn out by Prosecutor Keily charging him with manslaughter.

The defendant walved examination and was bound over to the grand jury on $1000 ball furnished by the defendant's father and E. A. Estes. Carelessness on the part of Louis Dodge caused the death of Henry Olson on Elk Creek last Saturday evening when a Saxon"

-this expression is becoming proverbial among knowing motorists-their hot weather slogan. Everywhere is the Saxon delighting its owners by its surprising ability to remain cool in the hottest weather and under the most trying conditions.

The Saxon has a honeycomb radiator, the finest type of radiator built - the same kind of radiator, in fact. that is used on many of the high priced cars, Its large cooling surface plus the exceptional design of the motor simply precludes any possibility of overheating.

And this feature is but one of the many that have rendered the Saxon the automobile sensation of the year. Have you had a demonstration drive ! If nottake one today.
