SOCIETY

THE Monday Musical Club will hold a special meeting this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Ellers' Hall for final arrangement of plans for the "Community Sing," to be given Tuesday evening, August 18, from 7 to 9 o'clock, on Multnomah field. Assisting in this delightful Midsummer musical event will be the following: W. H. Boyer, Harold Hurlbut, L. P. Bruce, of the Apollo Club; Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, president of the McDowell Club; Mrs. Ralph C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Lachmund, Pauline Miller Chapman, T. S. Chapman, Robert Lovell Wilson, Warren Erwin, George E. Jeffery, Mrs.

Ralph Robinson, Mrs. R. E. Tait, H. C. Bayley, Mrs. A. E. Steele, Mrs. W. T. Wade and Mrs. Florence Crawford, of the Psychology Club; Mrs. E. P. Preble, Mrs. Allen Todd and Mrs. R. E. Jones, Portland Shakespeare Study Club; Mrs. G. J. Frankel, president Portland Woman's Club; W. J. Hofmann, Royal Rosarians; Charles F. Berg, Portland Ad Club; Franklin T. Griffith, president Portland Railway, Light & Power Co.; Miss Genevieve Gilbert, Miss Florence Jackson, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Kathryn Ensey, Miss Martha B. Reynolds, Miss Abby Whiteside, Miss Nona Lawler, Mr. and Mrs. Montrose M. Ringler, Owl Drug Company, Sherman

Clay Company and Woodard Clarke Company. The programme will consist of old favorite songs, hymns, National and patriotic airs, which will be sung by everybody present, under the direction of W. H. Boyer. Dr. and Mrs. Courtland L. Booth and little daughter, Frances, have returned from a two weeks' outing at Detroit, Or. Dr. Booth, with F. J. Steinmetz, of Portland; Rev. W. W. Reid, of Spirit Lake, Idaho; County Recorder F. E. Van Tassel, of Albany, and Professor Flo. of Albany College, made the trip to Marion Lake, and enjoyed hunting and fishing in that most beautiful forest and lake region at the summit of the Cascades. They report the trails in fine condition, lakes and streams abounding in fish, and the scenery repaying many times the effort of the trip. Miss Margaret Raeder, house guest of Miss Lillian Morgan, was the moti-

of a jolly motor trip to Canon Beach last week. In the party were Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Lyons and Russell Summers, of Spokane, and Miss Margaret Raeder, Miss Lillian Morgan and Mrs. W. L. Morgan, of Portland. Miss Irene Mosher is passing her vacation at Seaside, as the guest of Miss Edna Sattler, at the Royal Knoll cottage. Mrs. Arthur A. Kayser and her little daughter, Ellen Caroline, have returned from a visit to Seattle and the Sound cities, where they visited Mr. Kayser's relatives. Mrs. Kayser was the honor guest of Mrs. Friday at a luncheon, after which they motored into the country. Mrs. Kayser and daughter plan to leave about August 15 to pass the remainder of the season at Seaside and Gearhart. An extensive deposit of asphalt of high quality has been discovered in the Philippines.
