WASHINGTON TO OPERATE QUARRY.—Washington County will take over and operate the Linton rock quarry until it can be operated in Multnomah County or a sufficient quantity of crushed rock has been supplied for Washington County and Multnomah County receive 10 per cent of the cost of operation of the plant for the use of the machinery. The County Commissioners received a request to this effect from Washington County officials yesterday and referred the matter to the roadmaster, who immediately agreed to this plan. The quarry, owned by Constable & Putnam, of Multnomah County's road department, who is now directing road work for Washington County, will be in charge of the plant.

FATHER AND AUNT CAUSE LAD'S ARREST.—Arrested at the request of his father, F. V. Whittier, and his aunt, Georgiana Whittier, on a charge of vagrancy, E. V. Whittier will be given a hearing in District Court today. It was charged by the relatives of Whittier in making the complaint that he had a wayward and that his latest offense consisted in going to Oregon City last Saturday and inducing his grandmother, a woman over 70 years of age, to leave the home of Professor Zinsler, where she was staying, and come to Portland in his care. It is stated by the complaining witnesses that he was in the hope of getting money from the aged woman who is said to have been left a fortune of $50,000 by an English relative some years ago.

SMARTZ GETS LERCH FOR TRIAL.—Albert Lerch, alias Leigh, is such a much-wanted man that a contest between Portland and Seattle is being waged to which city should have him to prosecute on a charge of forgery. He was returned to Seattle yesterday from Astoria, where he was arrested by Sheriff Burns of that city. The Constable's office had made requests that Lerch be arrested and held for return to this city for trial, but in Astoria Lerch was arrested by using his alias and in this way requests from Seattle were given precedence because the alias was used in services from the northern city. It is charged that Lerch passed a number of forged checks in Portland.

FAMILY ABRAVED AGAINST HUSBAND.—Charged with beating his own former home George Strayer, an ex-street preacher, was in Municipal Court yesterday. His mother-in-law, sister-in-law and wife appeared against him. He was arrested by Sergeant Burke and Patrolmen R. Nelson and Elliott on complaint of the women. A divorce suit against Strayer is pending in Superior Court in Vancouver. Pending a decision in this case, the Municipal Court charge was dismissed by Judge Stevenson.

COLLECTOR SUES CLIENT.—Charging he collected an account for Dr. Kenneth J. Mackenzie representing 20 per cent, which was not paid, H. C. Eastham, a local attorney, yesterday filed suit against Dr. Mackenzie for $552. The complaint alleges that the services of the plaintiff were enlisted in 1909 to collect an account of $350 with the understanding that he was to receive 16-2/3 per cent of the money collected. In accordance with this agreement, the attorney states, he secured a promissory note for the amount owed, and later a judgment was secured amounting to $552. The plaintiff, however, charges he is entitled to $83 and asks judgment for that amount.

CLUB LETS BOWLING ALLEY CONTRACT.—H. J. Mackenzie, representing the Rose City Club, yesterday signed the contract for construction of bowling alleys at the clubhouse. For the alleys an addition will be built to the main clubhouse on Sandy boulevard and East Fifty-seventh street from the southwest corner of the clubhouse to Sandy boulevard. The alley will be so far from the main building that the noise will not interfere with functions in the clubhouse. Mr. Blaessing estimated the cost of the improvement at $800. He said the club planned placing a billiard table in the main reception-room of the clubhouse.

STREET CLEARING TO BE URGED.—A conference of City Commissioner Dieck and officials of the Meier & Frank Company will be held this morning to discuss the blocking of the sidewalks at Fifth, Morrison and Alder streets where the Meier & Frank Company is erecting a new 12-story building. Although the building code permits the use of the sidewalk, Commissioner Dieck will request that the temporary street fence be moved back to the inside of the sidewalk.

HORSE STEALING CASE UP.—Roy McIntyre, arraigned on a charge of horse stealing yesterday in Judge Day's court, waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury. McIntyre, who is part Indian, was brought to this city by Sheriff Word's office to stand trial. It is charged that he took a racehorse valued at $750 from the county of Clatsop, in the vicinity of the city and drove it to the Siletz Indian reservation in Lincoln County, where he is said to have left it.
