Columbia River Advertised,—The Scenic attractions of the Columbia River and the many points of interest for the tourist in a trip to Portland, Seattle Spokane, Tacoma and other Northwest towns are set out at length in a beautifully illustrated booklet of 64 pages, entitled "The Scenic Columbia River Route to the Great Pacific Northwest," just issued by the Union Pacific system. Pictures of Rooster Rock and of Multnomah Falls, on the Columbia River above Portland, occupy places on the covers. The inside of the book is beautifully and profusely illustrated, pictures of Columbia River scenery being most numerous.

ROADMASTER YEON SUGGESTS CHANGE.— Temporary abolition of the prisoner system at Linuton rock quarry was recommended to the County Commis-sion yesterday by County Roadmaster Yeon. Mr. Yeon suggests that instead of turning the rockpile over to Wash-ington County, as has been planned, that County Superintendent of Properthat County Superintendent or Proper-ties Eatchel work the quarry with hired laborers and supply Washington County with crushed rock at 75 cents a cubic yard. Owing to a shortage of "supply" of prisoners, Linnton quarry has been closed until the Municipal Court commits more to the sub-jail.

REN VOTE FEDERATION DOWN.

Conference at Quinaby Decides, 13 to 10. Against Merging of Philomath Institutions.

The colleges of the United Evangelical and United Brethren Churches at Philomath are not to federate. At the special meeting of the Oregon conference of the United Evangelical denomination at Quinaby, Saturday, the proposed federation was defeated by 13 to 10. Rev. C. C. Poling, who presided, and who has advocated federation for the past three years, returned yesterday from Quinaby.
The conference adopted the following resolution:

turned yesterday from Quinaby.

The conference adopted the following resolution:

Whereas, the United Brethren in Christ have submitted to this conference a proposition relative to federating the two colleges of the churches at Philomath; and Whereas, these propositions have been set forth in the spirit of fraternal regard and fairness; and

Whereas, this proposition involves federation in a location which we deem incommensurate with the interests concerned and with the demands by recent legislation; therefore be it

Resolved, that we in speaks conference session appreciate these overtures locking toward federation and the spirit in which they were submitted; and be it further Resolved, that we do not deem it advisable to take action at this time federating our college interests; and be it further Resolved, that it is our earnest hope that conditions eventually may change so that practical negotiations relative to our educational interests may be consummated in all respects; and be it further.

Resolved, that in view of this hope we encourage all young people of the United Evangelical Church who contemplate collegiate training to attend and obtain that training at Philomath College.

"This ends my endeavors to federate the education interests of the two denominations," said Mr. Poling. "It was my hope and that of Bishop Bell to unite the two colleges at Philomath and select later a more suitable site for a large college."
