GRAC TEAM WORK REPEATS AMERICA

McLoughlin and Bundy Put Up Wonderful Fight but Australians Win.

STRAIGHT SETS ARE TAKEN

Wilding and Brookes Now Have but One Match More to Win to Take Cup Across Seas to Isles of Australasia.

FOREST HILLS, L. I., Aug. 14.—In a doubles match that ran from sensational to mediocre tennis, Norman Brookes and Anthony P. Wilding defeated Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy in straight sets, 6-2, 8-6, 9-7 here this afternoon, putting the Australasians in the lead for the Davis cup two matches to one.

The final contests for the trophy will be played tomorrow, and to retain possession of the massive silver bowl the world's championship, McLoughlin must defeat Wilding and R. Norris Williams II. defeat Brookes in singles, a feat which tennis experts predict may be a hard one.

The Australasian victory was well earned and without flaw. The teamwork of the Antipodeans was that of master tacticians, who thoroughly understood each other's plays and tactics both at net and on the deep court.

Although the American pair fought desperately, they never equalled the teamwork of their opponents, who outplayed them at crucial moments.

The Australasians opened with a rain of invaders' aces. McLoughlin covered two-thirds of the net and scored many points, but the pace was too fast for Bundy, whose short lobs were easily placed or killed. McLoughlin played like a demon and, almost single-handed, made it six-all after the Australasians needed but a point to win the set. He could not batmen being Collins, Baker and Bressler. Johnson knocked a home run in the third inning and the run which decided the contest was scored in the sixth on Gandoli's double and Morgan's single. Ryan and Williams were ordered off Washington's bench for obstructing a decision by Umpire Evans.
