Federals "Sure of Recognition."

The former boss of the Chicago world's champion White Sox says it is a cinch that the Federals will make good. He says President Gilmore proved it convincingly to him before he signed with St. Louis.

"I am absolutely positive that the Federal League will be taken into organized baseball as a third major league before another ten months," he exclaimed. The National Commission will be forced to bow to them. The minor leagues are the basic foundations of all baseball and the minors are the ones that are suffering now.

"Outside the Coast League every mi nor league in the country is disrupted. The Coast is reasonably safe because of its distance from the East."

Jones does not know any of his new St. Louis hirelings, except Bobby former Portland twirler, and Miner Brown, deposed manager. Brown remains as a pitcher at his former sal-
