PROGRAMME TODAY

Rose City Track, in Fine Shape, Awaits Dash of Speedy Horses Here.

Opening Programme Includes Two Paces, Trot and Free-for-All. Contests to Start Promptly. Fast Time Expected.

The first annual horse-race meeting nder the auspices of the Rose City Speedway Association will open promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon with a large list of entries. The course is in fine shape, there are large entries is in fine shape, there are large entries of class horses, with the probability of exceptionally fast time, and all that is wanting for the success of the four days' meet is a good crowd. The size of the crowd will determine whether horse racing, so long dominant in Portland, will take on a new lease of life. For today's festivities the manage-ment has put out a large programme of four events—a 2:25 pace, a 2:25 trot, a 2:12 pace and a free-for-all half-mile

The entries in the first two races total 13 spiece, with all the good horses of the North Pacific Circuit entered. In the third race there are seven entries, while the entry list for the half-mile dash will not close until this morning. Centralia's Opening Is Aid.

Had it not been for the closeness of the opening of the North Pacific Circuit at Centralia August 24 it would not have been possible to obtain the large number of high-class horses that

Frank Alley Is Judge. Fred Brooker has been appointed starter, Frank Alley presiding judge, with E. A. Parker and Captain David

Glimore as his assistant judges. All concessions will be handled by the management of the association, with the intention of doing away once and for all with the exorbitant charges that some concessionaires have been in the habit of charging in times past. For the half-mile dash five starters already certain, with more likely
