HENRY CUE, SACHEM

Red Man of The Dalles is Head of State Council.

WIGWAMS ARE PACKED

Reports, Memorial, Election of Officers and Committees are Hurdled—Lodge Picks Tillamook and Adjourns.

Henry Cue of The Dalles is the great sachem of the 62 Oregon tribes of the Improved Order of Redmen.

He was chosen at the fiercely contested elections held at the convention session in this city yesterday.

The Great Council for 1915 was awarded to Tillamook.

By rushing through all the business matters scheduled, the Redmen cut short their meeting by one day, adjourning after the banquet last night.

The complete result of the election was: Great Sachem, Henry Cue, The Dalles; Great Senior Sachem, J. A. Donovan, Pendleton; Great Junior Sachem, E. A. Coe, Svensen; Great Prophet, F. G. Micelli, Portland; Great Chief of Records, L. H. Hamig, Portland; Great Keeper of Wampum, L. A. Nobel, Oregon City; Great Representative to Great Council of United States, F. G. Micelli, Portland, (two-year term).

Committees are Chosen.

Following the election, Great Sachem Cue appointed the following officers and committees: Great Trustees, J. V. Lankin, Portland; W. C. A. Pohl, Astoria; and F. H. Saylor, Portland; Great Sanmap, Max Schoren, The Dalles; Great Mishewena, A. Y. Anderson, Astoria; Great God of Wigwam, C. W. Kelly, Oregon City; Great God of Forest, Grafton Worthington, Roseburg.

Board of Appeals—H. L. Henderson, Astoria; Bart West, Scappoose; S. L. King, Portland.

Finance—J. H. Fitzgerald, Portland; George M. Orton, Portland; J. H. Rowan, Oregon City.

Ways and Means—F. H. Vinvil, Roseburg; J. A. Devlin, Pendleton; L. S. Jacobs, Medford.

Orphan Fund Board—Theodore Fessler, Portland; Walter L. Little, Oregon City; F. J. Micelli, Portland.

Plans were made yesterday at the council sessions to add 43 more tribes to the Great Council, within the coming year, the arrangement being to place a new lodge in every city of 1000 or more population.

Memorial Service Held.

At 11 yesterday morning Great Sachem Micelli called a special order of business and the meeting resolved itself into a "council of sorrow."

The role of deceased members was read, hymns were sung, invocations said, and 30 minutes devoted to the past. In the final three minutes silence was maintained.

The role of departed members during the past year included: Adam Schmidt, of Jacksonville; Charles Walrus, of Astoria; Ed Linquist, of Astoria; John Dickerson, of Astoria; M. G. Franctovich, of Astoria; Victor Birch, of Clatskanie; E. Wildt, of Portland; J. M. Bernard, of Astoria; Charles Dahlstrom, of Astoria; Paul Zak, of Oregon City; E. Matthias, of Oregon City; A. E. Valraath, of Pendleton; William Borsh, of Pendleton; F. B. Gerra, of Pendleton; George Coe, of Clatskanie; Jacob Nussbaumer, of Goble; L. O. Caskey, of Medford; E. C. Boeck, of Medford, and D. M. Livingston, of Roseburg.

Orphan Report is Made.

The great council reported yesterday on its work with orphans, only inaugurated last year. Four had been cared for in the year and a fund of $1800 was deposited as a surplus toward the orphan work. The children are placed in homes of relatives, expenses being paid by the order. Each member is taxed 20 cents a year for this work.

What was called the "Long Talk of the Great Sachem" given yesterday morning showed the order to be most prosperous. Great Sachem Micelli, of Portland, pointed out that four new tribes had been instituted in the past year, one consolidated, none surrendered, with a net gain of 382 members, making a total membership in this reservation of 2021.

Banquet at Benson Held.

Last night, following the evening campfire, the Red Men trailed to the crystal dining hall of the Benson tepee for the "Huy Muckamuck" (Red Man for "big feed").

The feast of Indian relishes, over, G. M. Orton, of Portland, past grand sachem of the state, officiated as toastmaster for a brief programme.

Past Grand Sachem Frank G. Micelli, of Portland, was called upon to speak on "The Great Council of Oregon," and the remainder of the programme, which was interspersed with music, was as follows: "The Great Council of the United States," Theodore Fessler, of Portland, great representative; recitation, "The Flag," Edward Hoppe, of Portland, past sachem; "Modern Methods of Organization," G. N. Farrin, of Portland, past grand sachem; "Origin and Criticisms," A. G. Clarke, of Portland, past sachem.

ASHES WILL GO TO VIRGINIA

Funeral Rites are Said for the Late Brigadier-General Butler.

Funeral services for the late Brigadier-General John G. Butler, who died Monday evening following an apoplectic stroke, were held yesterday afternoon at the home of his son-in-law, Major Jay J. Morrow, 823 Kearney street.

The body was cremated and final interment will take place later in the Arlington National Cemetery, Virginia. The services yesterday were conducted by the Rev. A. A. Morrison, of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Honorary pallbearers were: Brigadier-General Thomas H. Anderson, retired; Colonel James Jackson, retired; Colonel George S. Young, Twenty-first infantry; Colonel Charles A. Varum, retired; Colonel John E. Baxter, Quartermaster, U. S. Army; Lieutenant Iremus McGowan, commander of local Loyal Legion; Wirt Minor, Morton H. Insley, F. H. Pendleton and Whitney L. Boise.

CHILDREN GET OUTFITS

PARTY OF YOUNG FOLKS TO START FOR TURNER TODAY.

Miss Isabelle Gauld at Headquarters All Day Helping to Prepare Youth for the Jaunt.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE FRESH-AIR FUND.

Previously reported, $2436.35

W. D. Whedwies, 20.00

Joe Price, 1.00

J. L. Wright, 12.00

Total, $2473.35

Contributions of cash should be sent to the secretary of the Associated Charities, V. E. Manning, 411 Commercial block; R. S. Howard, treasurer, at Ladd & Tilton Bank, or The Oregonian. Contributions of clothing should be sent to the Associated Charities, 411 Commercial block.

Twenty children who are to go to Turner for 10 days' outing in the fresh air were outfitted at the offices of the Associated Charities yesterday and will start today.

The medical examination was made by Dr. Allen T. Noyes.

One little boy was lame. His friend, a boy about the same age, wanted him to go on the outing, but the little fellow insisted on paying his own fare to Turner and back. Miss Isabelle Gauld was at the headquarters all day helping outfit the children for the trip.

They will leave this morning at 8:15 on the Southern Pacific, under the escort of Mrs. John Nissen, who has volunteered her services in the Fresh Air movement and has been a faithful worker since its beginning.

It was hoped that the fund would be sufficiently large at the end of the present season, but if donations continue to decrease as they have since the beginning of the war excitement, this is almost too much to hope, and the time when a permanent outing place for poor children and tired motorists may be assured must remain still a year or more in the future.

WIRE TOUCH TO START MILL

Button Pressed Here Will Move Wheels at Springfield.

The new electric sawmill of the Booth-Kelly Company will be started at Springfield at noon, August 23, by the pressure of an electric button in Portland by F. T. Griffith, president of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company and chairman of the executive committee of the Portland Commercial Club.

The opening of the mill for operation will be the occasion of an elaborate celebration in Springfield.

The wires will be run to the Commercial Club and in the presence of representatives of the leading organizations of this city, Mr. Griffith will transmit the spark which will launch this new industry in the Willamette Valley.

INDIA TO BE PICTURED

Illustrated Lecture by Missionary to Show Manners of People.

An illustrated lecture on India will be given free this evening at 8 o'clock at the Big Tent, corner Thirteenth and Morrison Streets, by Evangelist G. F. Enoch, who has been a missionary in British India for the past nine years and is visiting the United States on a furlough.

Mr. Enoch was formerly a resident of Portland. Mrs. Enoch will sing a native song and appear in native costume.

Besides his stereopticon views, the missionary generally uses images correctly representing in every detail the various castes of the Indians. His weird experiences in this far-away country, some of them in the big cities like Bombay, and others out in the remote districts, make a most interesting tale, and a big crowd is expected. The tent seats 1500.

Pupils in the Dickerson high school, Jersey City, N. J., went to school from 4:30 to 10:30 p. m. last night on an occasion lately, in order that the adult members of their families might see the school plant in operation.
