NORTH BEND, Or., Aug. 20 .- (Spe cial.) - Five persons were killed outright today when an auto driven by J. Bluford Davis went through the railing on the county bridge across Pony Point and dropped 20 feet.

One other person was slightly injured and one escaped unscratched.

The desd are: J. Bluford Davis, wealthy rancher of North Coos River;
Chris Peterson, Marshfield, a saloonkeeper; James Wasson, fisherman of Marshfield; John Negithon, a Willamch Inlet rancher, and William Worth, also a rancher from the same place.

The party had started for South Inlet on a pleasure trip. Mr. Davis was driving. When approaching the bridge. where there is a sharp turn, Davis lost control of the steering gear and the ear plunged through the railing, throwing its seven passengers, only two of whom lived, George Wasson and Jack King. The five who were killed were inned under the car and either killed outright or drowned. George Wasson the only one unburt, held Jack King's head above water until help arrived and King was saved with only slight bruises. George Wasson could not ex-plain how he escaped and only knew he was thrown from the car as it turned

The accident happened at the bridge where Pony Inlet narrows and the tide was in at the time, about two feet of water being in the stream. The sharp turn was responsible for an accident two years ago, but it happened at the approach. Although the car turned turtle, none of the four occupants were Detention Occurs in Golden Gate on Account of Lute Shipments and 6000 Sacks of Sugar Come.

Standing 20 miles on short steaming in a general northerly direction, a strange vessel was sighted by Peaver at 6:30 P. M. Wednesday of Heceta Head. First Of-ficer Parker, of the Beaver, who was on watch, said that the stranger was in sight for over an hour, and while at first she stood in toward the Beaver, apparently her identity was established she again stood seaward. To all appearances the vessel was a burner and, while small, the fact had a boom-rigged aft and a gaff for-ward distinguished her from a coaster. The Beaver was on a course about 15 miles off the land and the stranger

Off Cape Blanco a school of whales, perpoises and small salmon was sight-ed and the number of leviathans was variously estimated at from 60 to 100. The weather had been fair up to that time, but for about six hours after passing Blanco there was a heavy northwest sea and seasickness in-creased accordingly. There were 266

MANY CLAIMS MADE FOR LAND FOR COLUMBIA HIGHWAY.

About 100 Farmers, Several Attorneys and Road Engineers Appear Before Court at St. Helens.

ST. HELENS, Or., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—About 100 farmers, several attorneys and State Highway Engineer forneys and State Highway Engineer Bowlby and his assistants, appeared before the County Court today in the condemnation proceedings for right of way for the Columbia Highway. Charles H. Carey, attorney for the Northern Pacific and Seattle, Portland & Spokane Railroads, whose properties are affected by the highway, asked for a later date for the hearing of his claims. He said he did not want to speak the said he did not want to be objecting to the highclaims. He said he did not want to appear to be objecting to the highway, but he averred that much construction work had been done over properties without rights of way and he intended to ask for damages.

Judge McGinn Scores Plaintiff for Not Notifying Defendant.

With a sudden drop in the temperature and slight rains in several sections of the country, all the timber fires are now under control and it is believed by those in charge of the work that within about a week all will have been extinguished. There are four fires burning. The four are: The one south of Cascade Locks, from which it is believed the Sidney-Smith Lumber Mill caught; the one southeast of Estacada, on the North Fork of the Clackamas River; the one east of Scott's Mills, in Clackamas and Marion Counties, and the one in Linn County, northeast of Foster.

On the fire near Estacada there are about double that number checking the flames near the Cascade Locks. The other fires are being prevented from "There have been too many stipu-lated agreements in these divorce cases to please the court," declared Circuit Judge McGinn yesterday in refusing to grant Lillie Gokey a divorce from W.
