AMERICANS GO TO ROME

Movement Is Started to Ask War ring Rulers for Armistice and Effort Is Being Made to Prevent Any Schism in Session.

ROME, Aug. 21.—Despite universal mourning for the death of Pope Pius X, preparations for the election of his successor have been commenced.

Arrangements are being made for holding a conclave of the Sacred College of Cardinals, and there is much speculation as to the probable outcome speculation as to the probable outcome of the election. It is generally con-ceded the new head of the church will be an Italian. This impression is strengthened by the division of Europe It is expected that the conclave will be held early in September.

Among the so-called political cardinals, headed by Cardinal Agliardi, a movement is under way to have the Sacred College of Cardinals address the Emperors, Kings and Presidents of the countries engaged in war, asking them to declare a truce while the new pontiff is being elected. is being elected.

The greatest efforts are being made by the cardinals here to prevent the conclave's presenting a spectacle of schism among the foreign cardinals on account of the war in Europe.

Two Ballots Daily Proposed. It is asserted that the cardinals have discussed the advisability of holding the conclave for the election of a successor to Pius X without shutting themselves within the Vatican through their deliberations, as has been the tradi-

It has been suggested that the cardinals meet at the Vatican twice daily for a ballot until a choice has been made, and at the close of each session return to their homes or wherever they may be staying.

The new Pope will be the first Pontiff elected, without the veto previously accorded foreign powers, as one of the first acts of Plus X was to suppress this privilege of centuries, although he owed his own election to it.

As a preliminary to the meeting of the Cardinals, the Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Merry del Val. gave up his office in accordance with custo and all the other high officials of the Vatican did likewise.

The late Pope's physician. Dr. Mar-chiafava, says his patient suffered much physically and mentally through the outbreak of war.

Formal Ceremonies Held.

"Five times last year the Pope suffered from bronchial catarrh with affected lungs and only once was he ill with real gout," said Dr. Marchiafava "The last illness, which was grave from the beginning, commenced on Sunday. The Pope suffered in trying to conceal it, and he refused to eat."

Formal ceremonies in connection with the death of the Pope occurred at an early hour in the morning on the arrival of Cardinal Della Volpe, who was received at the Vatican by the papal secretary. Part of the ceremonies consisted of official recognition of the Pope's death. Amid deep silence, the chamberlain sprinkled the body with holy water, at the same time thrice calling the Pope by name, "Guiseppe Sarto."

Then turning to those who knelt by the bedside, he announced solemnly: "The Pope is really dead."

At 4 o'clock in the morning the celebration of masses began in the death chamber for the repose of the soul of Pius X.

Nothing is officially known about the lates Pope's will, but the Glornale.

Nothing is officially known about the late Pope's will, but the Giornale d'Italia says it is drawn in humble, pious language. It recommends that his successor grant his sisters a pension of $60 monthly each, but does not mention his niece, Glida Parolin. It also expresses the desire that a pension of $12 monthly be granted to his valet.

Burial in St. Peter's Asked.

The will contains a recommendation that the burial be a modest one in the crypt of St. Peter's. It ends by invok-ing God's forgiveness of the sins which the testator may have committed, especially as pontiff.

The Tribuna states that the Austrian Ambassador to Italy, K. Merey de Kapos-Mere, before his resignation because of ill health, asked the late Pope Pius X to bless Austria-Hungary and the Austrian armies. The pontiff "I bless peace."

New York this afternoon for Rome to participate in the conclave which will select a successor to Pope Plus X. They are Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, who left Boston yesterday on the White Star liner Canopic, and Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore, who expected to join him when the Canopic should arrive here on her way to Naples.

The third American Cardinal, John Farley, of this city, is in Switzerland.

RAIN NEEDED FOR FIRES

Washington Forest District Now

Forester Ferris and George C. Joy, at the head of the Washington Forest Fire Association forces, who have been in consultation here, regard the fire situation as one needing most careful attention possible, but by no means acute.

Almost as much money will be spent this year in fighting fires as during 1910, the most disastrous fire year in the Northwest, but losses in this state will be much less than in 1910, Mr. Ferris and Mr. Joy estimate. From $150,000 upward is their estimate of the money that will have been expended in this state in forest fire fighting this season. The Washington Forest Fire Association will spend $50,000 of this, the state possibly $40.000, while accurate estimates are not 000, while accurate estimates are not ascertainable for the amounts expended by Federal forces and private timber interests. These amounts, how-ever, will be considerable. The state and association men now permanently in the field total 250, the Government has 100 more men on duty and private timber-owners' forces total a still greater number.

In 1918 another total eclipse of the sun will be visible in the United States. Scientific parties are being organized in Florida.

Several American parties went to Russia to observe today's phenomenon. The eclipse was visible for about 11 minutes in Washington. It began soon after sunrise. The moon made only a slight indentation on the sun's northeastern limb. The fine sun spot first photographed at the naval observa-tory a week ago on the eastern limb of the sun, now has passed the sun's center and is visible to the naked eye. It is 50,000 miles in diameter.

TREASURY BACKS EXPORTS

Funds to Be Placed at Shipping Centers to Finance Transportation of Grain to Marts of Western South America.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21. - Establishment of a branch of a Chicago bank in Lima, Peru, and of a trade clearing-house to stimulate trade between the Central West and Western South America is contemplated, it was learned here today.

John J. Arnold, a Chicago banker, has persuaded Senor Perez, the Peruvian Minister to Washington, to come here September 3 to discuss trade relations. Mr. Arnold sald, in a message received here today, that the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington had agreed, at the request of the committee of exporters and bankers appointed last week, to deposit Treasury funds last week, to deposit Treasury funds in the leading export centers to be used only for the purpose of financing ex-

Board of Trade reported to the committee that 16,000,000 bushels of grain which had been consigned to the Continent of Europe was diverted to Engiand, though the banks negotiating the exchange covering these shipments had forwarded documents to their continental destinations. Some of the grain was sold by the British Admiralty and some of it held. Meanwhile, without the presentation of the documents, the funds and grain thus held cannot be released, thus tying up the entire amount.

British Negotiations Begun. Secretary Bryan, however, at the committee's request, took up negotiations with the British government looking toward the early release of the shipments or to the proceeds.

Speaking of the proposed international clearing house Mr. Arneld said:

tional clearing-house, Mr. Arnold said:
"This question was discussed with the members of the Federal Reserve Board, but inasmuch as at present it will be impossible to include Germany and Austria in the membership, it is the opinion of all concerned that the neutrality of the United States might be involved."

George McReynolds, the Chicago banker, suggested today that the Fed-eral Reserve Board establish the pro-posed South American reserve bank. All dangers of sectional jealousies would be removed that way, he thinks.
