

CLAIM OF TEXAS ON INNES IS APPROVED

Governor West Orders Extradition of Couple Accused of San Antonio Murder.

FIGHT NOT TO BE MADE

Miss Fern Hobbs Hands Warrant to Deputy Sheriff, Who Hastens to Eugene for Prisoners—Children to Go Along.

SALLEM, Or., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Governor West today honored a requisition of Governor Colquhoun, of Texas, for Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Innes, wanted in Bexar County, Texas, for alleged murder. A warrant for the prisoners was handed to A. Newton, Deputy Sheriff of Bexar County, by Miss Fern Hobbs, secretary to the Governor, today. The deputy left for Eugene immediately and said he would start for Texas with the prisoners on the first train.

A report that attorneys for the prisoners would resist their being taken from Oregon was denied by John McCourt, their counsel, who came here this afternoon and examined the extradition papers. He said they were regular, and so far as he was concerned, he could do nothing further.

Children to Go Along.

Mr. McCourt asked that Mr. and Mrs. Innes be allowed time to have their children taken from their ranch to Eugene, that they might accompany them on the trip to Texas. Miss Hobbs telephoned to the Sheriff of Lane County to try to have the children in Eugene early tonight.

"I don't know what evidence the authorities in Bexar County have against Mr. and Mrs. Innes," said Deputy Sheriff Newton. "So far as I know they have not found the bodies of Mrs. Dennis and her sister, or any trace of them."

Prompt Departure Planned.

"I believe they found acid stains in the house in which the Inneses lived, and may base their case on the theory that the bodies were destroyed with acid. The couple had no children with them in Texas, and they expect to leave Eugene on the first train after my arrival there, which will be about 3 o'clock."

The indictment charges Innes and his wife with killing Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis by administering poison. Mrs. Margaret Mimms and Mrs. M. M. Hardman are aliases of Mrs. Innes cited in the indictment.

VICTIMS' SISTER IN CITY

Marshall Nelms Discusses Evidence Against Innes.

Money was the motive for the alleged murder of Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Mimms, according to Marshall Nelms, 22-year-old brother of the slain sisters, who is in Portland. Mr. Nelms makes the charge that his sisters, who were seen last at San Antonio, Tex., June 14, 1914, were slain by Victor E. Innes.

"At the time Innes obtained Mrs. Dennis' divorce at Carson City, Nev., in 1912," said Mr. Nelms in the office of the Burns Detective Agency, "Innes had some of my sister's money. In June, 1914, Innes and my sister, Mrs. Dennis, commenced corresponding relative to purchasing old stock in Texas and Mexico and my sister's money. Innes had given money to Innes to make those investments for her. As to the amount, it must have been about $14,000 for Innes to go on his trip."

"Innes had an evil influence over my sister, the same as he now has over his present wife. I am confident that my sister had a high opinion of Innes, but I understand he told her that he would get a divorce."

"A few days before Beatrice's disappearance in Atlanta and the telephone rang. Beatrice answered and a voice over the wire said: 'This is Mr. Innes talking. I am in Birmingham and I am looking for the Beatrice Nelms, my younger sister answered. Well, I had an appointment with your sister this evening and she didn't show up.'"

"Look here," my sister said to him," continued Nelms. "I demand an explanation from you. What did you do with my sister's money? 'Come over to Birmingham to see the papers,' Innes answered. 'Beatrice took the train the next day, June 10, for Birmingham. To her surprise Innes was in the train. He was on the same train. Beatrice didn't know either, but recognized Innes from a photograph she had seen in her sister's possession. He was greatly agitated when Beatrice introduced herself. He then explained to my sister that he had told her she was in Birmingham and he didn't want Elois to know he was in Atlanta, and he introduced his wife as his aunt, Mrs. Mimms.'"

"Innes promised to explain to Beatrice about the money investments with Elois' money when they got to San Antonio. At New Orleans, my sister, Mrs. Dennis, boarded the train and the four of them—my sisters, Innes and his wife—got off at San Antonio. They left the train and that was the last seen of Mrs. Dennis. Beatrice, however, became interested and engaged an attorney. Beatrice returned and demanded the proof that Innes had invested any of Mrs. Dennis' money. Beatrice has not been seen since.

"I am glad that extradition of the Inneses has been allowed. I shall remain in Portland, for I am confident that the key to the Innes case will be found in Portland within a short time."

Francis S. Alkus, local manager of the Burns agency, expressed hope last night that the look-out for evidence Mr. Nelms referred to would be gathered in the course of a few days, in Portland. Mr. Alkus and Mr. Nelms said last night that the Burns agency is donating its services in assisting the Nelms family in running down the alleged slayers of the Nelms sisters.

The average to each man will be about $10. Some will get as high as $12.50.

BALLOON BAG RECOVERED

Rangers Remove Wreckage From Bull Run Reservoir.

The big silk gas bag of the balloon which carried Pilot Donaldson and Aide Henderson over the forests to Bull Run Lake during the recent balloon races in Portland, is now being carried to various parts of the state in the form of small souvenirs. Forest rangers recently pulled the bag out of the lake, on a raft and after taking it to the north side of the lake carried it on mules to Lost Lake, outside the Bull Run reservoir and left it there for souvenir seekers.

WIFE IS CALLED SHREW

Clayton Fallas Says Woman Made Life Burden and Asks Divorce.

Clayton Fallas, a saloon man and horse fancier of the city, yesterday filed suit for divorce from his wife, Sarah Fallas, charging incompatibility of temperament. The two were married at Hastings, Mich., in 1891.

It is alleged that the wife has been cruel and inhuman in that she is nagging and quarrelsome, making cutting remarks and untrue criticisms of the things the plaintiff says or undertakes. These personal irritations, says the complaint, have made life a burden and for the past seven years, on this account, states the plaintiff, he has been unable to live with the defendant.

OUR ONCE-A-WEEK "NEW BOOK" REVIEW

"EAT AND GROW THIN." The Mahdah Menu, with a Preface by Vance Thompson. Describes the scientific nutrition and yet pretends to be true. "What to Eat and What Not to Eat." These are the subjects scientifically treated in conjunction with the famous Mahdah Menu and Recipes hitherto unpublished and for which high fees to some have been paying high fees to fashionable physicians to escape the tragedy of growing fat. This together with a highly humorous preface goes to make up the book that is causing a high demand. Price, $1.29.

"THE LITTLE ANGEL OF CANYON CREEK." by Cyrus Townsend Brady. Told with a vivid, heart-felt interest and yet with a pathos indescribable and yet with a pathos indescribable. A story of a typical Western Colorado mining camp, in the days when Law and Justice were almost unknown—when the taking of another man's life was but an incident in the day's events. The roughest men were touched by the beauty, simplicity and sweetness of a little child, whose love for the beautiful, the good and the pure saved him from a life of degradation, and who earned for himself the name of "The Little Angel of Canyon Creek." Price, $1.25.

"LILIECRONA'S HOME." by Selma Lagerloef. Different from the ordinary book. By the famous Swedish author—winner of the Nobel Prize. A blending of the fanciful and real, with that touch of Northern Magic, impossible for American writers to achieve. A book graphically describing the customs and life of the Far North, by means of a fairy tale, told with a simplicity enjoyed by young folks and thoroughly appreciated by booklovers of more mature years. And it has a happy ending. Price $1.25.
