A number of society maids and matrons are planning matinee box parties for "The Candy Shop" this afternoon and others will make up parties for Saturday afternoon to witness the delightful musical comedy.

Shamrock Lodge, the Summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund B. Gaze, which is situated beautifully on the banks of the Willamotte River, was the scene of a merry party recently when 24 ma-trons assembled for an old-fashioned picnic. A long table on the lawn was bounteously screed and was decorated bounteously spread and was decorated in rich red giadioli. To celebrate five birthdays an immense birthday cake was made in honor of Mrs. Gaze, Mrs. J. E. Wright, Mrs. George Eastman. Mrs. Harlan Curtis and Mrs. J. C. Hare. Bridge occupied the afternoon hours. Mrs. Koa Ervin and Mrs. Robert Townsend won honors for high scores. Other guests present were Mrs. Koa Ervin, Mrs. Robert Townsned, Mrs. William Hare, Mrs. D. Kuettner, Mrs. Charles Levis, Mrs. Francis Waring, Mrs. Charles E. Fields, Mrs. Charles L. Boss, Charles E. Fleins, Mrs. J. C. Matthes, Mrs. W. M. John, Mrs. J. C. Matthes, Mrs. E. H.
