WAR LESSENS BALL CROWDS Victoria and Vancouver Clubs Suffer at Gates.

Great Britain's part in the grea European war is knocking the spots out of Northwestern League ball at Victoria and Vancouver and it is openrumored that the league schedule is to be lopped short about two weeks.

The season is supposed to end September 27, but Pat Eastley, Ballard pitcher, dropped into Portland yester-day for a short visit and Pat said baseball hostilities likely would cease about September 13.
Victoria isn't drawing a corporal's guard and already Joshua Kingham, owner, has announced his determina-tion to turn the franchise over to the stake Bill Burnside, Northwestern League umpire, also drifted into Portland yes-

day by way of Chicago and expects to arrive here Sunday. He has been kept in touch with the situation here by Bill Hayward and other footbail enthusiasts and is ready to step directly

Bill ought not to have much difficulty making good with the Napa, for he is a much more valuable man than most of the local fans appreciate. Me-Credie drafted him from Waterbury, in the Connecticut League, in the Fall of 1810 and he has been one of the league enders in all departments ever since.

ord follows: 1911, 99 games, batted .265, fielded 953 and stole 18 bases. 1912, 184 games, batted 306, fielded 47 and stole 25 bases. 1913, 193 games, batted 305, fielded

.965 and stole 42 bases. This Year's Record Is .300 So far this year he has batted .300 and loads the league in base-stealing, with nearly 70 to his credit. Bill will not be able to touch Jimmy Johnston's world record of 125, but he bids fair to top 100, and that is going some. Rodgers is 25 years old, married, bats left-handed and began playing ball with Rochester in 1909. He was farmed that year to Waterbury. Bill's home is at Cincinnati. This sale marks the fourth from the Coast League this year. Invasion of Federals Long Way Off, Say Ball Magnates. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. - The Pederal League's contemplated inva-sion of Pacific Coast League territory, as indicated in the admission of E. N. Walter that such plans are under consideration, and that a rival league may be launched in 1916, is not taken seriously by Coast League officials now here. Secretary Harry Walton, speaking for the San Francisco Club, said today

"From reports at hand the Federals are having a hard time in their own territory this year. It is a long time until 1916. Before then the Federals may be taken into organized ball, so we are not worrying about outlaw eagues at present."

As the tentative plans do not call for an invasion of Sacramento, Harry Wolverton and Lloyd Jacobs, Sacramento magnates, said they would not borrow trouble till it came to hand.
