PARTY LINES SPLIT IN CALIFORNIA

Primary Election Returns Show Candidates Will Be Progressives.

SWEEP IS ALMOST CLEAN

Frank C. Jordan, Republican Secretary of State, Overwhelms Progressive Opponent, O'Brien. Eshleman Easy Victor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The outstanding feature of yesterday's primary election in California, returns from which continued to straggle in today, was the havoc played with party lines.

While the registration of voters was overwhelmingly Republican, it appears on the face of the returns that a majority of the Republican candidates for important state offices at the November election will be Progressives.

In addition to seeking the nominations of their own party, several Progressive aspirants contested also for places on the Republican ticket, and they appear to have won all such contests except that for Secretary of State, in which the Republican incumbent, Frank C. Jordan, overwhelmed his Progressive opponent, F. J. O'Brien.

Woman Second to Eshleman.

John M. Eshleman, running unopposed for the Progressive nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, captured hands down the Republican nomination, leading his nearest opponent by nearly two to one. Mrs. Helen K. Williams, one of two women aspiring for state office, is second to Eshleman.

Progressive candidates for Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and Surveyor-General have won not only the Republican nominations, but the Democratic nominations also.

In the First Congressional District William Kent, who preferred to be returned to the House of Representatives as an independent, and therefore sought to be placed on the November ballot by petition, had his wishes vetoed by the voters of the district, who wrote his name in on the Progressive ballot so extensively that he appears to have been nominated by an overwhelming vote.

Late Returns Help Knowland.

Today's returns changed last night's indicated result in only one important particular, Joseph R. Knowland assuming a commanding lead over Samuel M. Shortridge for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. James G. Phelan, for the Democratic nomination, and Francis J. Heney, for the Progressive, increased their leads over their opponents.

John D. Fredericks' plurality for the Republican nomination for Governor seemed today likely to reach the figures claimed by his manager—40,000.

The five Democratic candidates for Governor were still running closely, with Edward White, a Watsonville orchardist, leading by a narrow margin. Governor Johnson obtained a Progressive renomination unopposed.

Committee Adopts Platform.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 26.—The Republican State Committee met in this city tonight and adopted a platform reaffirming belief in a protective tariff. The policy of the present administration in connection with the affairs in Mexico is deplored. The party is pledged to woman suffrage in the next Legislature, when the amendment to the constitution comes before it.

RAIN IN 83 DAYS SLIGHT

Astoria Records Show Dryest Summer in Many Years.

ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Eighty-three days have elapsed since Astoria was visited by what might be termed a rain. It is true there was .13 of an inch precipitation during the month of July and the precipitation thus far this month amounts to .11 of an inch, but as that amount was the total for six different days, it was little more than a heavy fog or mist and was hardly sufficient to dampen the dust.

The last real rain was on June 4, when .94 of an inch fell. The total precipitation for the month and thus far this month is .26 of an inch. The only time that low record has been excelled since the records have been kept was in 1885, when the precipitation for the months of July and August was .06 of an inch.

ELECTRICITY NEAR SANDY

Six-Mile Line to Bull Run May Be Ready September 1.

SANDY, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The construction outfit of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company has been taken to Sandy to complete the six-mile light and power cable line from Bull Run to Sandy, which may be ready by September 1. It will be a high tension line of 6600 volts stepped down to 110 for lights and 220 for power.

Sandy has contracted to take 32 lights, 80 private consumers have contracted to take light, and six will take power at rate prevailing in Gresham and elsewhere. All poles are up and wires are being strung.

GERMAN HELD AS SPY

Sender of Code Message Caught by Canadian Immigration Agent.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 26.—Charles Natt, German reservist, when attempting to send out a code message from the Canadian Pacific telegraph office here last night, was arrested on the charge of being a German spy and turned over to the police by the immigration officers who had watched him.

Already several arrests of supposed spies have been made here and the men are held pending instructions as to their disposal from the federal government.

"SPOILED" VOTES DECIDE

Fifteen Ballots With Errors Ousted May Settle Justice Race.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Governor West received information from Curry County today which may lead to the settlement of the contest for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court between Justice McNary and Judge Benson.

W. H. Meredith, District Attorney, wired the Governor from Wedderburn that the messenger sent for the poll book at Sixes Precinct informed County Clerk Stannard that 15 ballots in the precinct were designated "spoiled" by the election officers because the electors voted for more than one aspirant for Governor.

The ballots, it is contended, should have been counted for all candidates but those for Governor, and it is probable that Justice McNary and Judge Benson will ask that they be counted in the race for Supreme Court Justices. According to latest reports Judge Benson is leading by one vote, and it is believed the 15 votes in Curry County, if counted, will give one of the contestants a majority of at least two or three.

John D. Fredericks, of Los Angeles, Nominated by Republicans of California for Governor.

WAR HORRORS RELATED

FORMER RESIDENT OF PENDLETON WRITES FROM BELGIUM.

Thousands Killed, Polydore Moens Says in Letter, and "Independence or Death," Cry of All.

PENDLETON, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Polydore Moens, a wealthy retired farmer formerly of Pendleton, now living in Belgium, has written to W. L. Thompson, president of the American National bank, asking that his money be kept there subject to call, instead of being sent to Belgium, as he thinks it safer in Pendleton.

Mr. Moens writes under date of August 10.

"The war is frightful now—worse, far, than anyone in America can imagine, and the Germans now are fighting on Belgium soil. We are daily expecting the help of England and France. There are thousands killed here already. I expect before many days the bloodiest battle in the history of the world will be fought here in our country. You never saw such patriotism in your life. They are drafting thousands, but they do not need to call for volunteers, as everybody is ready to fight to the last drop of their blood. Married men are bidding goodby to their wives and children, and going to their death while wives and old folks kneel and pray in patriotic despair. The cry over the nation, from village to city, is: "Independence or Death." I will not be surprised to see, before long, Belgium drenched with blood. If we can, we will try to get away back to the United States. We have a hard time getting money here, as the banks have closed business, and some cannot get enough to leave, but I have enough for present needs, and most of us have good friends to help out. This war is unspeakably terrible. You can never guess how bad it is. The papers over in America do not know half."

FIREBUGS BURN BARNS

Two Buildings at Goldendale Lost and Fire Hydrant Broken.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Two fires that are thought to have been of incendiary origin occurred in Goldendale last night. The first alarm was given when a building belonging to D. Wilder on East Main street was discovered afire.

The volunteer fire department was delayed 10 minutes because someone had tampered with a fire hydrant. The building, some household goods and an automobile were destroyed. Adjoining property was saved.

The second alarm proved to be a barn on the outskirts of the town belonging to E. O. Spoon. The building was entirely destroyed. The total loss on both fires is estimated at $1000.

KNOWLES WARMLY MET

Nature-Man, Fresh From Woods, Has Big Reception at Roseburg.

Fishing Shifts Out of Columbia.

ROSEBURG, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Joe Knowles, the "nature man," received a cordial greeting during his 15-minute stop in Roseburg this afternoon. He was completely surrounded by admirers and answered hundreds of questions as to his late experiences in the Oregon woods.

Knowles occupied a seat in the cab of the locomotive from Grants Pass to Roseburg. The sight of deer grazing along the railroad track in Cow Creek Canyon made Knowles become enthusiastic, and he promised to return here for a hunt soon.

FIRE PROTECTION PLACED

Gresham Lays Pipe and Provides Hose for Fair.

GRESHAM, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The Gresham Council has instructed Street Superintendent McKinney to lay a four-inch water main to a central point in the fair grounds near the grandstand for the protection of exhibits from fire. Two fire hydrants will be placed near the pavilion and stock buildings, and while the fair is in progress a cart with 500 feet of hose will be at hand ready for emergency.

An adjourned meeting of the board of directors of the Fair Association will be held this afternoon at the fair grounds.

SHERWOOD BANK ELECTS

W. J. Dodson Succeeds to Presidency of Valley Institution.

SHERWOOD, Or., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—At a meeting here this week of the board of directors of the Bank of Sherwood, W. J. Dodson, a prominent resident and rancher, was elected president; L. S. McConnell, ex-postmaster and ex-president of the bank, as cashier, and W. I. Calkins, assistant cashier. These changes were made, due to the resignation recently of W. M. Evans, cashier, who long has been actively in charge of the institution. Mr. Dodson and Mr. Calkins were elected to the new directorate. Mr. Evans' health would not permit of longer confinement to inside work.

The bank will move into its new building September 1.

Russia has 464,500,000 acres of forest. That is to say, more than one-third of the whole country is covered by trees and there are four acres of forest to every inhabitant.
