FOTTRELL YET IN RUNNING

Young Californian Will Meet Touchard Today and McLoughlin Is Pitted Against Griffin, With Behr Playing Williams.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 27. - The matches today in the fifth round of the all-comers' tournament for the lawn tennis championship in singles, left in the running three players from San Francisco, including the titleholder, McLoughlin, three from Philadelphia and two from New York. The pairings for tomorrow will be:

Murray took the first set, 6-3, but lost the next two through Behr's fast play. The Californian squared the match in the fourth set and had the advantage in the fifth, being within advantage in the fitth, being within two points of victory, when Behr passed him twice and won the contest. The last set went 14 games.

The other three Californians, Mc-Loughlin, Fotirell and Griffin, won their matches, the last through a default

Behr seemed to anticipate many of Murray's shots. The play from start to finish was sharp and returns were remarkable, while the court work by Murray covered a wide area. He was far more exhausted than Behr at the McLoughlin had the easiest match of the day, allowing E. P. Pearson, a local player, but six games in three sets. In the four matches so far this week Mc-Loughlin has lost 17 games out of 89.

Two matches in the semi-finals in the interscholastic championship left E. R. McCormick, of Southern California, and Beekman, of Columbia, for the title round tomorrow. McCormick beat R. Weber, Chicago, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Sounding the Sport Reveille

THOSE ballplayers who hope to stack both ends against the middie this Winter would do well to get under cover. To date the owners have been meting with ill success trying to sign players for 1915, 1916 and 1917. We don't blame the players for trying to get all the coin possible while the Feds are in the ring, but if we were a ball athlete we would grab the lucre while salaries are high because there is going to be baseball peace before Spring.

Don't fool yourself in believing that organized baseball will attempt anoth-er year of warfare against a legitimate competition.

mate competition.

We imagined there must be something Doble was trying to offset with his gloom story. Here 'tis, Jack Abrams, for three years end on the Spokane North Central high football team and considered one of the greatest stars in Northwestern interscholastics, has announced his decision to attend the University of Washington this Fall. Abrams is also a star basketball and track man.

Doble surely has a tough lot.

Ivan is now with the St. Louis Ameri cans and he had a toenail torn off in a game at Bosion a few days ago. "I was struck on the toe two years ago by a foul tip," said his brother, Del Howard, manager of the Seals, yesterday, discussing the news, "and that toe hurts me to this day."

His hands, however, are tougher. Del has been playing ball for 18 years and the only bruise on his hands is an enlarged joint on the little fin-ger of his right hand. This is quite a

FREDERICK HARDING BENNETT, Your Special Correspondent at Front.

It is, gentlemen, the poem for today,
A San Francisco lady fan
Called up the other day.
She warbled, "Tell me, if you can,
Who won the opening fray?"

"The score shows Howard's men have won."
She shouted wild with gies,
And chortled down the telephons
"They'll win the flag; you see!"

And then, when Howard's doughty men Were next day winners rated She phoned again about the "Pen." She sounded most clated.

We won today. I seized the phone To chuckle o'er the game. How could I, when I neither knew Her phone, address or name?

Your kind indulgence was appre-ated. We will sin no more.

The way the Germans have the Parisians jumping by their talk of "knocking at the gate" must be nothing to the way the Giants feel with the Braves scratching at their heels.

It looks much as if the war correspondents are simply guyongyos when they talk of the capture of Gyongyos. And the fall of Namur makes that city Namur on the map!

Peace! Be still! We have worse coming.

FIREMEN'S TESTS ARE OVER

The grandstand struggle between Karl Behr, of New York, and R. L. Murray, of San Francisco, today developed the best tennis of the tournament thus far. Murray was a slight favorite and for four sets and part of the fifth he fought brilliantly.

Then the so-called "silent" member of the Davis Cup team began a rally. Although he lost his service in a critical game, he soon squared the match and finally pulled out the set marked with brilliant shots.

The network of both was unusually sharp, their court covering was remarkable and the entire match was marked with brilliant shots.

Itaking the various tests provided for firemen by the Municipal Civil Service Board, were subjected to oral examinations yesterday. This was the last part of the general examination which started nearly two weeks ago with 200 applicants.

Civil Service Commissioners Caldwell and Logan and Fire Chief Dowell conducted the examination. The men were required to answer questions regarding their knowledge of fire-fighting and their acquaintance with the buildings and streets of the city.

LAID TO RETAILERS

Charge of Federal Attorney Is Denied and Further Inquiry Is Urged.

SUGAR ADVANCE IS CITED

Grocers Could Not Control Quotations and Had to Pay More and Charge More, Says Secretary of Association.

Assistant United States District At-torney Johnson yesterday charged the Portland Grocers' and Merchants' As-sociation with taking advantage of the sociation with taking advantage of the increased wholesale price of sugar for their own profit. His charges were in answer to the resolutions adopted by the association, in which that body goes on record as being "opposed to the unreasonable advance in prices of products sold to them and by them to the ucts sold to them and by them to the consumer, and condemning the indi-viduals and concerns rightfully re-sponsible for the present inflated

Mr. Johnson said, however, that there would be no Government prosecution in Oregon, so far as he knew, because Board, were subjected to oral examinations yesterday. This was the last part of the general examination which started nearly two weeks ago with adopting the resolutions, a copy of Pushing Inquiry Urged.

Secretary Merrick also declared that t was the desire of his organization that Federal investigators proceed en-ergetically with the inquiry. "The average retail grocer in Portland or elsewhere has an insufficient capital or credit to admit of any appreciable quantity purchase," said Sec retary Merrick.

"When the advance of sugar was announced, it found most of the retailers without sufficient supply. They were compelled to buy more from the jobber at the advanced prices and naturally compelled to advance the price to the public. Some, it is true, held a supply secured at the lower price and from a sentimental viewpoint it might be said that this dealer should main-tain his old selling price. This, how-ever, would be pure philanthropy.

Wholesalers' Offer Explained. The District Attorney has indicated that the wholesale grocers of Port-land out of the goodness of their heart notified the retail trade of the sure advance of sugar. The real reason for this solicitation rests in the method by which it was expressed. The job-ber did telephone retailers concerning the advance and induced them to place stipulated order for sugar. a gregate orders were substituted for a lump order to the refinery. All re-tailers were compelled to pay for the sugar within ten days, while the job-bers had better credit arrangements with the refineries. Thus the philan-thropic jobber was enabled to secure his ample profit on the sugar sold without risking a cent in the transaction The responsibility for the sugar advance lies far beyond the retailers and even a step beyond the Jobbers, and although the grocers of Portland welme an investigation of their methods of selling merchandise and of deter-mining profits, it seems to them that situation should not be permitted to continue their manipulations, and 'pass the buck' to the small distributor."

Self Condemnation Alleged. Assistant United States Attorney Johnson said that the Portland re-tailers, in condemning price-jugglers, were with few exceptions condemning

M., as usual, and all ads received too late for proper classification will be run under heading "Too Late to Classify."

The Oregonian will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement offered for more than one time. "I have just reported to the Attorney-General," he said, "that with one exception we found in Portland the grocers generally raised the price of sugar just as soon as it advanced wholesale, and this in the face of the fact that they had stock on hand and that the wholesalers had ordered additional supplies for them at the low

In other words, the wholesalers protected the retailers, and the retailers took advantage of the situation by taking all they could get from their customers.
