Later the Japanese war-ships appeared outside the harbor and shelled a small island off the coast which was not occupied by the Ger-

All native shipping in Klau-Chau has been suspended. Bay has been suspended.

American Consul Still Stays

The German government notified William R. Peck, American Consul at Kinu-Chau, that he had 24 hours to leave if he so desired. Mr. Peck, however, elected to remain.

PEKIN, Aug. 27.—In his wire-less message notifying the German Governor of Klau-Chau of the Japa-nese blockade of Tsing-Tau, Vice-Admiral Kato said he would grant neutral shipping 24 hours in which to leave the harbor and the same period for non-combatants to leave the town. The blockading fleet is the Japanese record squadron.

The Japanese legation has asked this government to remove the Chinese troops from the 50 kilometer zone (the area extending about 30 miles around Kinu-Chau) in order to preclude the possibility of disagreement.

Demands on China Denied.

Both the Japanese legation and the Chinese Foreign Office deny sensation-Chinese Foreign Office deny sensational newspaper statements, some of them emanating from the press of Japan, to the effect that the newly arrived Japanese Minister, Eki Hioki, brought from Tokio demands that would make China a suserain state. Such publications supported by reports of America's suspicions of Japan, are exciting intense feeling among the Chinese, whose sympathies appear to be entirely with the Germans. tirely with the Germans.

TOKIO, Aug. 27.—The censoring of news from China is most effective. It is believed here, however, that Japan has not yet landed troops at Klau-Chau. There is reason to believe that the Japanese navy is carefully sweep-ing the waters around Kiau-Chau for mines, which, it is known, have been submerged recently in large numbers. Assurances have been received here from Pekin that President Yuan Shi Kai and his government are amply satisfied with Japan's pledges concerning the future safeguarding of Chinese and British interests and the maintenance of the commercial status quo, and he has promise of assistance to Chinese revolutionists from "The Chancellor," says the report. "began a harangue, which lasted about 20 minutes. He said the step faken by England was terrible to a degree. Just for a word, 'neutrality'—a word, which in war time had been so often disregarded; just for a scrap of paper England was going to make war on a kindred nation who desired nothing better than to be friends with her. All his efforts in that direction had been rendered useless by this last terrible step and the policy to which, as I knew, he had devoted himself since his accession to office, was tumbled down like a house of cards.

It Rupture of Relations.

WASHINGTON. Aug. 27.—President Wilson today issued a proclamation of neutrality recognizing that a "state of war unhappily exists between Japan and Austria-Hungary." It is similar to other proclamations previously issued.
Ambassador Dumba, of Austria, to-day formally notified the United States that diplomatic relations between Austria and Japan had been severed, but made no reference to any declaration of war.

The Issuance of the President's proclamation of neutrality as between Japan and Austria followed an unusual sequence of events, during which, so far as officials here are aware, neither country actually declared war.

"State of War" Defined.

"A state of war" was recognized by this Government as existing because Ambassador Dumba, of Austria, notified the State Department that the Emperor of Austria-Hungary had instructed the cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth to join the German fleet in defense of Tsing-Tau. Orders were transmitted last Monday from Vienna through Washington to the officers of the Austrian vessel to dismantle her. Press dispatches from Tsing-Tau last night said the orders had been carried out and the crew had left.

The American Government, however, took cognizance only of Austria's notification of her intention to join the Germans in defense of Tsing-Tau and the proclamation of neutrality fol-

Arriving at the mouth of the upper harbor, off Tompkinsville, about 9:15 o'clock, the Graecia encountered the battleship Florida, which is preserving the port's neutrality. The German lay to at the Florida's order, remaining at anchor more than half an hour while the warship's captain satisfied himself that she had her clearance papers. The Graecia was then released and started to sea at full speed.

The nature of the Graecia's cargo was not made known but it was learned that the German had taken on 3000 tons of coal and a large supply of stores. She is one of the smallest of the foreign ships in port, having accommodations for about 50 passengers and about 15 knots an hour. Her owners have given her a new captain, Theodore Metzenchin, on whom now rests the responsibility of running the British blockade. When outside the bar the Graecia propped her pilot, put out her lights and was lost to view.
