

"JUNE THE BLONDE" MAY GAIN FREEDOM

Four Victims of Bad-Check
Dealing Willing to Drop
Charges Against Her.

MOTHER TO PAY LOSSES

Woman, Infatuated With Crook Consort, Still Protests Love for Fugitive—Ball Not Yet Furnished.
Hearing Is Due Soon.

Mrs. Kota Pierce Heim, better known as "June the Blonde," accused of passing bad checks in Portland, may be released by the authorities upon payment by her mother of approximately $200 she is said to have obtained from four Portland business houses.

Her attorney, John Shillock, is trying to arrange this outcome of the woman's troubles. He has received assurances from each of the firms said to have been defrauded that it will gladly accept a return of the money and withdraw its charge. All seem to feel sympathy for the young woman.

Four Firms Defrauded.
Checks are alleged to have been passed by "June the Blonde" upon A. C. Feldensheimer, L. Aronson, Lowy & Co., and the Eastern Outfitting Company, all of which, she says, were given her by Hammond, whom she continues to see yesterday. Money obtained from these business houses, she says, was given by her to Hammond.

Failing to produce a $4,000 required by District Attorney Evans, Mrs. Heim was put in charge of Matron Rogers at the County Jail yesterday. Efforts to get her released are continuing today. She will be arraigned either today or tomorrow with E. H. Carpenter, a Portland shoe salesman, jointly indicted by the grand jury.

Sympathy Shown Women.
Mrs. Heim talked freely of her troubles yesterday and of her infatuation for Hammond, which, she says, is the cause of it all. She referred to her case yesterday as a "wretched affair." Her mother, Mrs. Mary Pierce, a woman of dignified appearance, was with her daughter when detectives took her to District Attorney Evans' office yesterday morning, and the two passed most of the day together. Considerable sympathy for the two has been expressed. A woman called at the County Jail yesterday and asked that Mrs. Pierce stay at her home while in the city. Carpenter maintained a gloomy attitude yesterday and refused to talk.

PANTAGES SONGS NEW

"PUSSY CAT RAG" AND CALLS SET
HOUSE IN LAUGHTER.

Original Songs, Melodies and Old Favorites, Playlets and Juggling.
All Are Amusing.

Pantages patrons were introduced yesterday to a new "double" act which is a winner. The couple are Harry Antrim and Betty Vale, both possessed of pleasing personalities.

Every one of their songs is new. The "Pussy Cat Rag," with genuine cat calls by Antrim, is a scream. Betty Vale is his farmyard song. After some new jokes, Miss Vale has a charming dance, with a whirling accompaniment by her partner, and then she recites. While she is busy telling how father loved mother just the same, whatever happened, Antrim is busy with a violin obbligato. Three encores had to be given and even then the house was left asking for more.

Another good singing act was that of James Brockman, a character singer, whose songs are all his own. In his opening ones he makes a plea for the return of the old-time songs, which he sings cleverly from ragtime to operatic airs, and finally sings a new rag of his own with a catchy refrain.

How a time and a half retiring young man can be brought to his knees and made to propose is shown, for the benefit of those who need instruction in this delicate art, by Miss Ruth Hoyt, as the pride of the seminary, is well deserving of the title.

Some sensational juggling with articles of furniture, cigars and even a dog are introduced in the opening act by the two Malcoms and the big bill closes with war scenes by the Mutual Weekly.

HOPPICKERS' EXODUS ON 2000 or 3000 Persons Leave for Willamette Valley Yards.

Between 2000 and 3000 hoppickers left Portland on special and regular trains yesterday on their way to the yards up the Willamette Valley, and railroad men announce that they expect the tide of the hoppyard emigration to continue almost unabated for the next four or five days.

More than 1500 people went out over the Southern Pacific. One special train to Brooks carried a party of 400, and the regular trains carried more than 1000 pickers to hopyards in other parts of the Valley.

The Spokane, Portland & Seattle and its electric lines have been carrying an equal number of pilgrims.

New Book REVIEW

"THE WORLD SET FREE," by H. G. Wells. A prophecy of present conditions, based in a masterful manner by this great and well-known author, a picture of the various stages in the civilization of man, from a remote past to the future, during the past quarter of a million years. A story of mankind, told with a prophetic subtlety and imagination, anticipations which you'll instantly recognize as coming from a "Master Mind." After the prelude, "The New Phase" and "The Last Days of Marcus Karwin." Price, $1.25 Net.

"THE MIRACLE MAN," by Frank L. Packard. A powerful story with a "grip" at each turn with human interest and strong heart appeal. Creating even wider comment than Packard's recent book, "Greater Love Hath No Man," "The Miracle Man" is one of the most dramatic creations in modern fiction. It is a story of a man who revives a story of a band of thieves who ennobled themselves by their own trickery, and were extricated from the net of crime and deceit by a cunning miracle. The usual "love story" is in evidence. Now staged in New York. Price $1.25 Net.

"THE CALL OF THE EAST," by Thurston Farnham. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," with a setting of the blossom-laden islands of the eastern coast. An indescribable freshness in the telling, enhanced by the glow of the great pioneer missionary, Dr. MacKay, and depicting the life and charm of a Scotch Lassie—the heroine, Price, $1.25 Net.

"HELP WANTED," Webster DeLano. A novel of modern life—thrilling and enlightening. Taken from Jack Lacy's great play. Telling in detail the trials of one who, in the business world, went up in one of New York's towering skyscrapers at the same time giving an insight into the trials of thousands of others. As timely as "Within the Law" and just as much to be read as the best. The story is in the pages of this book is a story with interest and a new twist. Price, $1.25 Net.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Reuter Company from Ostend says that a small party that has just returned from a visit to Liege describes the destruction wrought by the war as appalling.

"All along the road to Vise," said one of the party, "there was nothing to be seen but walls blackened by smoke, the remains of burned factories, mounds of earth freshly dug, the sepulchres of the first German to fall."

"And then comes Vise. What a painful sight for those who knew the proud city, now nothing but a mass of ruins, while many of the inhabitants lie all over the place, their chests riddled with bullets. I was told here that the natives were put to work building roads for the invaders from Vise to Aix-Chapelle."

"On the road to Argeteau we met a procession of able-bodied men, marching four abreast and commanded by a non-commissioned officer, all carrying implements for road or trench building. These men have to submit to severe discipline."
