Ambassador Denies Russians Are Sweeping Irresistibly Toward Berlin.

Abandonment of Lemberg Declared to Have Been Strategic Move, in View of Fact Defense Meant Unwarranted Loss.

NEW YORK, Sept. L-Dr. K. T. Dumba, the Ambassador from Austria-Hungary to the Uhited States, who at present is at Manchester, N. H., received today from the War Office Vienna a report of a victory of his country against Russia. The report was made public by Dr. Charles Winter, the Austrian-Hungarian Consul-General here, as follows:

"Mobilization in Austria-Hungary was accomplished most successfully and with great enthusiasm among the was accomplished most successfully and with great enthusiasm among the troops. All races and all parties in the kingdom rallied to the colors in high spirits of patriotism and good will. Two army corps, one of them the famous charges, Mr. Seller wrote, but the banks

"It cannot be successfully disputed, however, that this Government has the right to buy ships from German companies or any one else so long as it buys those ships for neutral uses."

"It is stated that payment for the ships would be in the nature of supplying funds to a belligerent nation, observed Representative Saunders.

"The ships are not owned by the government. They are owned by private citizens and the money would be paid to those citizens, not the government, answered Mr. McAdoo.

He said that, as some of the lines to be established would probably be operated at a loss, private capital would not be attracted, the Government probably supplying the entire capital.

"Do you understand," Representative Saunders asked, "that there is grave objection on the part of England and France to our taking over the German bottoms which have been driven out of the foreign trade by the war?"

"Of course I cannot discuss the diplomatic phases of the question," said Secretary McAdoo. "That is the business of the State Department.

"I think there is nothing in that objection," said the Secretary. "There is no more punctilious citizen of the United States with respect to neutrality," who would be the chief representative of the Government in the company to be formed under this bill. We can rest assured of absolute neutrality."

The Secretary asserted that the covernment would be in exactly the same position as a private stockholder, so far as international conditions were concerned, and that the question of avoverignty would never be raised in a private stockholder, so far as international conditions were concerned, and that the question of Trade, was read, protesting against the bill and recommending direct subsidy to build up the merchant marine.
