

LEADERS OF MINE WORKERS ARRESTED

First Day of Military Rule Is Without Disturbance; Guns Command Streets.

MEETINGS ARE RESTRAINED

Search for 'Muckie' McDonald Fails to Locate Him—Long List of Men Wanted by Authorities—Children Kept In at Night.

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 2.—Butte's first day of martial law was without disturbance. The Montana National Guard occupied the courthouse and City Hall. Headquarters of the state militia were established in the Courthouse with Major Jesse B. Roote as commander.

Orders were given soon after the militia moved to the business district to arrest leaders of the Butte Mineworkers' Union, the organization formed to oppose the Western Federation of Miners. Four arrests were made late today, one of the men being James Chapman, chairman of the jurisdiction committee and who acted as judge in the deportation of men who refused to join the new union.

Major Roote searched the city for "Muckie" McDonald, president, but he could not be found. He is wanted on charges of inciting riots. The list of men wanted was said by Major Roote to be a lengthy one.

The police of Butte and the Sheriff's forces of Silver Bow County were ordered by Major Dan J. Donohue, who is in command here, to co-operate with the militia in making the arrests and in maintaining peace.

For the first time in three days the jurisdiction committee of the union did not appear at the mines and enforce its order that prohibited non-members from entering the mines.

Machine Guns Command Streets. For several blocks around the courthouse the streets were patrolled by militiamen, who prohibited persons from passing through the Courthouse district. On two sides of the Courthouse Gatling guns were placed in the streets. Two machine guns were placed on the roof of the Courthouse also. The state troops will sleep in the Courthouse for the present.

The order of Major Donohue placing Butte under martial law prohibited boys and girls under 18 years from being on the streets at night. Women, unaccompanied, are requested not to appear on the streets. All public meetings have been prohibited, but certain organizations will be allowed to meet if they obtain permits. Theaters are allowed to remain open in the city, however, decided to close for the week.

The mines of Butte worked as usual, but when the miners came to the surface after completing their shifts they were searched for dynamite, it having been reported that miners have for some time carried dynamite which they did not use in blasting, from the mines.

McBain and William Sheahan.

LOOP ROAD SURVEY ASKED

Hood River Committee and Citizens Petition County Court. HOOD RIVER, Or., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—Following plans recently inaugurated by the Upper Valley Good Roads Association, a committee, appointed several weeks ago, and citizens from the city today appeared before the County Court and asked that a competent engineer be appointed to make the survey of a proposed loop highway to penetrate the Upper Valley. It is proposed that the highway connect with stretches of macadam laid on the east and west sides of the Lower Valley. The Upper Valley citizens not only want the route surveyed as to the grade specified, but ask that cost estimates be made.

LIQUOR ISSUE UP AGAIN

"Wets" Get Demand for Submission of Question in Dry Wenatchee. WENATCHEE, Wash., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—This city will vote again at the November general election on the liquor question. Two years ago the dry forces won an overwhelming victory, the vote against saloons standing 1209, for saloons 469. The wets now claim a decided revulsion of sentiment because of stringent financial conditions, said to be due, in large measure, to prohibition. Their success in circulating a petition for the resubmission of the question seems to bear out this claim, for nearly 400 voters, many of them women, signed the petition last Saturday. Later more than 200 more names were added, thus passing the required number of 500. The anti-saloon forces are preparing for vigorous resistance.

INSURANCE MEASURE WINS

Washington Judge Allows Medical Attendance Change on Ballot. OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—Initiative measure No. 3, proposing medical attendance amendment to the industrial insurance act, was given a place on the ballot, by decision of Judge Mitchell, of the Thurston County Superior Court, today. It is the only one of six contested measures considered by the court to have sufficient valid signatures. Judge Mitchell's decision in this case is in sharp contrast to that of his associate, Judge Claypool, in the case of measure No. 8, which was allowed a margin of 520 signatures by the Secretary of State's official count, but was rejected by Judge Claypool. No. 9, having a margin of only 14 names by the official count, is approved by Judge Mitchell. The Supreme Court will call upon to harmonize the lower court's ruling.

BUILDERS DO NOT AGREE

EFFECT OF LABOR CONDITIONS ON CONTRACTS PROBED. Complaint That Union Men Restrict Output Made—Roofers, Hodcarriers and Calkers Acquiesced. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Efforts of the Federal Industrial Relations Commission today to learn from witnesses whether working conditions which organized labor has brought about in the shipbuilding industry here have resulted in a loss of business developed conflicting answers. Sam J. Eva, a shipbuilder, said that local shipbuilders had lost at least 35 contracts, totalling about $13,000,000, because they could not compete with Eastern builders, who have a longer working day. "And the local bids were made on the basis of exchanging old dollars for new ones merely to keep the plants busy," he added.

Mr. Eva has had several differences with labor organizations regarding working conditions in his plant. On the other hand, John A. McGregor, another builder, said he did not believe that in the long run working conditions here have much to do with the loss or gain of business. Efficiency in local shipyards, he insisted, was much higher than in many Eastern yards where longer hours are worked.

Both Mr. Eva and James Tyson, a lumberman, who is opposed to the closed shop, declared that many industries have moved away from San Francisco because of labor conditions. Mr. McGregor knew of no iron works that had left here on that account. After he had several strikes among his lumbermen and sailors here he moved away all of his plants except one. He testified that many of his ironworkers were assaulted up to a year ago and then "both armies became worn out and quit."

Both Mr. Tyson and H. H. Sly, a local contractor, who operates on the open-shop plan, complained that union men restricted their output. Among the men charged with doing this were roofers, hodcarriers and calkers.

ANTI TRUST BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Measure Shorn of Price Discrimination and Unfair Competition Features. PROGRAMME IS COMPLETE

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TO HARMONIZE BILL WITH ONE PROVIDING TRADE COMMISSION—SEVEN REPUBLICANS VOTE AYE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The Clayton anti-trust bill, to supplement the Sherman law, which will complete the Administration trust legislative programme for this session of Congress, passed the Senate today. The vote was 65 to 16. Seven Republican Senators, Brady, Clapp, Cummins, Jones, Kenyon, Norris and Perkins, and Senator Poindeexter, Progressive, voted for the bill. The bill was amended by the Senate in many particulars and will be sent to conference, where the Federal trade commission bill—first of the Administration—will be under consideration. Reports on both measures are hoped for within two weeks.

Imprisonment Provided For. The bill provides fines and imprisonment for officers of corporations convicted of offenses against the trust laws; prohibits exclusive and tying contracts which restrict independence of purchasers; prohibits holding companies where their effect is to lessen competition or create monopoly and makes illegal two years after the passage of the act interlocking of competing corporations, any one of which has capital of more than $1,000,000. It also forbids the interlocking of railroad directors with corporations dealing in securities, railroad supplies or contracts and liberalizes procedure in injunction and contempt cases.

Sections of the House bill relating to price discrimination and unfair competition were stricken out in the Senate.

Metal Organizations Exempt. Labor, agricultural and horticultural organizations, not conducted for profit, are exempt from the provisions relating to monopoly. The maximum penalty fixed for violation of the provision preventing exclusive contracts is $5000 or one year's imprisonment, or both. The provision against holding companies would not prevent common carriers from acquiring branch lines where there is no substantial competition.

Sections relating to interlocking directors are made effective two years after the passage of the bill. Directorates of railroads, under the terms of the bill, cannot be interlocked with corporations dealing in securities, railroad supplies or contracts for construction, maintenance, etc., to an amount more than $50,000 in any one year, unless purchases are made through competitive bidding under regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission. A penalty of two years' imprisonment and $2500 fine is prescribed for violation.

Another provision makes a felony for officials of contracting firms who misapply or promote misapplication of funds of the corporation, the penalty being not less than $500 fine or working conditions in his plant. The section dealing with court procedure provides that no injunction shall issue between employers and employees in labor disputes unless necessary to prevent injury to property or property rights, and no such order shall prohibit the right of either to strike or peacefully persuade other to do so. WAR NOT TO AFFECT FRUIT

Lane County Reports Light Prune Crop and Heavy Apple Market. EUGENE, Or., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—Despite the fact that the Eugene Fruit Growers' Association sells annually a large share of its prunes to England and thousands of cans of pears to France, the war will have little effect on Lane County fruit this year, says J. O. Holt, manager of the association. The prune crop is light and shortage in the West is so great that the English market, which is completely demoralized, will not be missed. Europe buys from this country five million barrels of apples, which this year cannot be shipped. This means that apples must crowd American markets.
