

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

UNSKILLED LABOR SOUGHT.—The United States Civil Service Commission announces that application (form 412) will be received at the office of the secretary, Eleventh Civil Service District, Seattle, Wash., for the position of unskilled laborer in the Federal building at Portland. Salary is to be $550 per annum. Both men and women may file applications for this position, and the age limits are from 20 to 35 years. Blanks and other information may be obtained by applying to the local secretary, Board of Civil Service examiners, Postoffice building, Portland, Or., or to the secretary, Eleventh Civil Service District, room 207 Postoffice building, Seattle.

WIFE COMPLAINT WITHDRAWN.—Mildred F. Wise, who was arrested and held in the County Jail upon telegraphic advices from Spokane, was released yesterday after being the enforced guest of Jailer Kennedy for about a week upon word from Spokane that the complaint against her had been withdrawn. She was charged with removing plumbing and other fixtures from a public building. Chafing at his confinement here, he had started to sue out a writ of habeas corpus. Judge McGinn, before whom the petition came yesterday morning, decided Wise would be held a reasonable time for the Spokane officers and then released.

GRISHAM GRANGE PREPARES EXHIBIT.—At a special meeting of the Grisham Grange the first of the week plans were adopted for its competitive exhibit to be made at the Multnomah County Fair, which will be held September 15-19. The following committees were appointed to take charge of the exhibit and arrange the display at the fair pavilion. On decoration of the booth, Mrs. D. W. Metzger, department of horticulture; Roy Kern, department of agriculture; Mrs. M. D. Kern; agricultural exhibits, George Sleret; domestic science work, Mrs. J. R. Cavanaugh; and the exhibit of the new variety of corn to be first prize of $200.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, THE first in the state. It is composed of a precinct committee woman from each precinct. On last Saturday they held a meeting in Dallas and 24 out of the 49 precincts were represented when the organization was perfected. Mrs. Mary Steiner, of Monmouth, was elected chairman, and Nettie Boche, also of Monmouth, secretary. The women are going to maintain separate headquarters and conduct their campaign in their own way without any interference from the regular county central committee.

BRING an eager appetite and go away satisfied when you dine at The Portland. All the good things in their season that Mother Earth can produce—savory, tempting, delicious. Luncheon 11:30 to 2. Afternoon Tea 3:30 to 6. Dinner 5:30 to 8. Grill Service to 1 A. M. Delightful music in the grill every evening.

The Portland Hotel. C. J. Kaufmann, Manager.

Where Prices Are Lowest for Safe Quality. Where every customer receives personal attention, and where there is one price for everyone, the true success of "The Store of Quality," Portland's exclusive handlers of everything good to eat. L. MAYER & CO. 148 Third Street. A 4432, Main 9432.

One, Two, Three or Four Passengers. First Mile 50c. Each Additional Mile 30c. Pay by the Meter—a Safeguard Against Overcharge. Competent, Honest, Courteous Drivers. Be Sure You Call Main 98.

HOTEL HOYT. Hoyt and Sixth Sts. New—Fire Proof—200 Rooms. RATES 75c UP. Permanent guests solicited—Special Rates. One Block from Union Depot. H. JENNING & SONS, Props. W. A. Burleigh, Mgr.

Portland Academy. 13th and Montgomery Streets, Portland, Oregon. This school makes a specialty of preparing boys and girls for college. Its graduates enter Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Bryn Mawr by examination. Its certificate is accepted without examination at Cornell, Michigan, Vassar, Smith, Oregon, Reed, Stanford, California and other colleges.

The Imperial Hotel Grill. Where dining is good every day in the year. Everything properly served, clean, wholesome and appetizing. Lunch 12 to 2 35c-50c. Dinner 5:30 to 9 75c. Sunday Dinner One Dollar.

FOOK SANG & CO. 246 Pine Street, Portland, Or. Phone A 3770. CHINESE PURE JADE JEWELRY. Gold bracelets, silver rings, belt buckles in any design. Made to order, with names of good luck Chinese characters engraved thereon. Prices reasonable. Orders promptly executed and sent prepaid anywhere in U. S. We are skilled Chinese jewelers. JAY YU CHONG MAN MGR.

EUGENE WOMAN 87, PASSES. Mrs. E. M. S. Frank, whose kin Served in Revolution, is Dead.

A Chinese Love Song—with all the romantic mystery of the Orient—will be sung in native costume by Miss Lillian Earle, Miss Veta Florenze, Lynn F. Cowan. This is an attraction of great charm for the guests at "Ye Oregon" Miss Blanche Barret will entertain with a number of new novelty songs.

BRING an eager appetite and go away satisfied when you dine at The Portland. All the good things in their season that Mother Earth can produce—savory, tempting, delicious. Luncheon 11:30 to 2. Afternoon Tea 3:30 to 6. Dinner 5:30 to 8. Grill Service to 1 A. M. Delightful music in the grill every evening.

Where Prices Are Lowest for Safe Quality. Where every customer receives personal attention, and where there is one price for everyone, the true success of "The Store of Quality," Portland's exclusive handlers of everything good to eat. L. MAYER & CO. 148 Third Street. A 4432, Main 9432.

One, Two, Three or Four Passengers. First Mile 50c. Each Additional Mile 30c. Pay by the Meter—a Safeguard Against Overcharge. Competent, Honest, Courteous Drivers. Be Sure You Call Main 98.

HOTEL HOYT. Hoyt and Sixth Sts. New—Fire Proof—200 Rooms. RATES 75c UP. Permanent guests solicited—Special Rates. One Block from Union Depot. H. JENNING & SONS, Props. W. A. Burleigh, Mgr.

Portland Academy. 13th and Montgomery Streets, Portland, Oregon. This school makes a specialty of preparing boys and girls for college. Its graduates enter Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Bryn Mawr by examination. Its certificate is accepted without examination at Cornell, Michigan, Vassar, Smith, Oregon, Reed, Stanford, California and other colleges.

The Imperial Hotel Grill. Where dining is good every day in the year. Everything properly served, clean, wholesome and appetizing. Lunch 12 to 2 35c-50c. Dinner 5:30 to 9 75c. Sunday Dinner One Dollar.

FOOK SANG & CO. 246 Pine Street, Portland, Or. Phone A 3770. CHINESE PURE JADE JEWELRY. Gold bracelets, silver rings, belt buckles in any design. Made to order, with names of good luck Chinese characters engraved thereon. Prices reasonable. Orders promptly executed and sent prepaid anywhere in U. S. We are skilled Chinese jewelers. JAY YU CHONG MAN MGR.

EUGENE WOMAN 87, PASSES. Mrs. E. M. S. Frank, whose kin Served in Revolution, is Dead.

A Chinese Love Song—with all the romantic mystery of the Orient—will be sung in native costume by Miss Lillian Earle, Miss Veta Florenze, Lynn F. Cowan. This is an attraction of great charm for the guests at "Ye Oregon" Miss Blanche Barret will entertain with a number of new novelty songs.

REGISTRATION TELEPHONES

Managing Editor Main 7076. A 9093. City Editor Main 7076. A 9093. Sunday Editor Main 7076. A 9093. Advertising Department Main 7076. A 9093. City Circulation Main 7076. A 9093. Composing-room Main 7076. A 9093. Printing-room Main 7076. A 9093. Business Building Main 7076. A 9093.

AMUSEMENTS

HEILIG THEATER (Broadway at Taylor)—House dark for week. LYRIC (Fourth and Stark)—Musical comedy, "The Band and the Circus" at 8:30 and tonight, 7:30 and 9:10 o'clock. OAKS AMUSEMENT PARK—(Cars from 1st and Alder) Band and orchestra music, musical comedy and vaudeville. This afternoon at 2 and tonight at 8.

Vandeville

FANTASIES (Broadway and Alder)—This afternoon at 2 and tonight at 7:15 and 9:15. EMPRESS (Broadway and Yamhill)—Continuous from 1:30 to 11. Moving Picture Theaters. PEOPLES—West Park and Alder. MAJESTIC—Park and Washington. COMET—Broadway and Stark. GLOBE—Eleventh and Washington. NEW STAR—Park and Washington. SUNSET—Washington near Broadway.

JAMES IRWIN CRABBE TO LECTURE

James Irwin Crabbe, who is working in the interest of the Manufacturers and Land Products Shows, has completed arrangements to deliver an illustrated lecture at three points in Eastern Multnomah County. Mr. Crabbe will use more than 100 views, including some of the present war, the object being to attract interest in the show. The first lecture will be given tonight in the auditorium of the Gresham Branch Library to which the public is invited.

MUNICIPAL SUPPORT REQUESTED

A number of persons having withdrawn their support of the free medical dispensary in Portland, physicians in charge have asked the city to take over the institution. Dr. K. A. J. MacKenzie appeared before the City Commission yesterday and requested such action. The commission has taken the proposition under advisement with the hope of being able to work out plans to keep the dispensary in existence. Dr. MacKenzie said the dispensary does a great deal of good and saves the city a great deal of expense. He says the establishment will have to close unless it can receive municipal support. He says the expense to the city would be about $70 a month.

ALAMEDA DISTRICT PAYMENT FAVORABLE

Property owners of the Alameda improvement district in Rose City favored the improvement of the Alameda improvement district as soon as it can be brought about at a meeting held at the home of L. R. Bailey. The principal opposition, as announced, was because one block on East Fifty-fourth street from the Alameda district to the boulevard had been omitted from the contract, but it was stated petitions now are being circulated asking that this block be paved also with the general contract for the district. The general estimate of the cost of the district improvement is $87,150. Gleibsch & Joplin, for asphaltic concrete pavement, submitted the lowest bid for the work.

LEGAL TECHNICALITIES ATTACKED

Whether or not legal technicalities are to stand in the way of prosecutions in the Police Court is to be determined by the State Supreme Court. The City Commission yesterday authorized an appeal to the higher tribunal of the case of Ah Po and 27 other defendants. An attorney got hold of the case and raised a technicality, which was upheld in the Circuit Court. POPCORN VENDOR LOSES CASE.—E. Wilhelm, a popcorn vendor, lost in Municipal Court yesterday where he appeared to test the ordinance which prohibits the vending of wares about public parks. Wilhelm was arrested Sunday by Patrolman Morelock for selling popcorn in the city blocks. At a special hearing yesterday Wilhelm requested a $25 fine to enable him to appeal from Judge Stevenson's decision in overruling the ordinance which he appealed from. Judge Stevenson refused the fine. Wilhelm returned and requested that the fine be remitted, having decided not to appeal. Judge Stevenson remitted the fine.

SHELLWOOD WANTS MORE FACTORIES

At the meeting of the Shellwood Board of Trade Tuesday night at the Shellwood Y. M. C. A. rooms, Peter Hume, of the Shellwood Bank, spoke on the need of securing more factories for Shellwood. The removal of the Multnomah Mohair Mills from Shellwood was discussed and its removal was considered unfortunate at this time. Mr. Hume and J. W. McBride were appointed a special committee on factories, and the membership was urged to encourage the location of factories in Shellwood. SHADLAND OATS YIELD 70 BUSHELS AN ACRE.—At Seaside, on the Mount Hood Railway, a field of oats which the county was on the farm of J. B. Eder, who threshed 61 bushels an acre from a seven-acre field. The oats are well developed and the yield was considered a record for the county. Mr. Eder secured 956 bushels of oats from 45 acres. The highest yield reported so far was in the Kelso district, where one field threshed at the rate of 70 bushels to the acre.

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Non-Partisan League of the City of Portland, at the Public Library, Tenth and Yamhill streets, tonight at 8 o'clock. At this meeting City Commissioners Daly and Block will be present, and it is expected to be helpful to them in city work. The manager also will report concerning the work of the league. The public is invited.

CHURCH ZONES NOW ONE

MINISTERS OF CHRISTIAN DENOMINATION LINK DISTRICTS. Northwestern Oregon and Southwestern Washington Sections United and Quarterly Meetings Decided. At the meeting of the Portland Ministerial Association of the Christian Churches, in monthly session yesterday in the Central Church at East Salmon and East Taylor streets, a general association of Northwestern Oregon and Southwestern Washington churches was organized. The new association will hold quarterly meetings.

BUILDING BILL IS READY

Ordinance Empowers Commission to Condemn Old Structures. City Attorney LaRoche yesterday completed the ordinance which empowers providing for the condemnation of insanitary, dangerous and badly deteriorated buildings. The measure has been sent to the City Commission to take the place of the measure which was defeated several months ago. Under the measure the city building inspection department is empowered to condemn buildings which are dangerous or insanitary. In case the owner refuses to allow the razing of the structure he has an appeal to the City Council. When the ordinance is passed proceedings will be started for the condemnation of a number of structures including the Graiser & McLain barn at Fifth and Taylor streets.

ST. JOHNS MAY LEND BOAT

Willingness to Aid Ferrying Vancouver Fair Crowd Told. St. Johns is being asked by Vancouver and Portland to lend its fine ferry to do supplementary work on the Vancouver run next week when the Interstate Fair is on, and the citizens of St. Johns appear willing to help the Vancouver fair out in this way. If arrangements are made to bring up the old ferry from Kalama to do service on the St. Johns run, the ferry from St. Johns will be moved over and will aid in handling the traffic during the fair week. A committee from the Portland Commercial Club, consisting of George L. Baker, C. C. Chapman and Phil S. Bates, within a few days will call on St. Johns yesterday to ask for the use of the Albatross ferry on the Vancouver run for the fair, but it was decided that if St. Johns would agree to lend the ferry now contemplated could be made more advantageous. The committee then went to St. Johns, where it met with a cordial hearing and assurance that if possible the loan would be made.

ROBBERS ELUDE OFFICERS

Which Is Fruitless. Detectives of the Portland Police Department devoted all yesterday to a search for the surviving highwaymen, one believed to be wounded, of the Tuesday night holdup, in which one robber was killed by John A. Lee. There was a persistent rumor yesterday that one of the highwaymen had been found and taken to a hospital to be treated for gunshot wounds, but no foundation could be found for it.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN FORM PLANS FOR ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

Walter L. Toome, Jr., of Dallas, Co. and Booth and Dr. Wrightcombe Will Get Large Majorities. "You need not worry about Polk County," said Walter L. Toome, Jr., of Dallas, Republic party campaign manager, who was in the city yesterday on his way home from Seaside, where he has been passing his vacation. We have one of the best organizations in the Republicans of our county here and in the past ten years. We are fortunate in having for secretary of our county committee, the late Dr. Wrightcombe, who managed the Nesmith County campaign. Mr. Toome is editor of the Polk County Observer.

ACCUSED BOARDER FREED

McNulty was discharged by Judge Dayton yesterday after a trial in which much of the afternoon on a charge of defrauding an innkeeper. It was alleged by Mrs. E. Hoard, of 1673 East Third street, that the defendant left her boarding-house owing her almost $100. The court failed to find any criminal intent to defraud.

MORE SPENDERS FINED

Three were fined $20 each yesterday by Municipal Judge Stevenson. H. D. Wagner was assessed for speeding on the Burnside bridge. Charles Bailou was fined for going at a rate of 10 miles an hour on the Milwaukee road and George Dilley paid a fine for speeding on Grand avenue.

JUDICIAL MORNINGS COURT

Judge Moore will be in court Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to hear any matters that may be presented in his department, including default divorces. Although out of the city, he sent this information yesterday that attorneys may be accommodated. He will continue to hear criminal cases during September.

CONVICTED JAPANESE APPEALS

J. G. Imaki, a Japanese, gave notice of appeal yesterday from the recent decision of the Municipal Court, where he was convicted and fined $25 for offering for sale at the Yamhill public market vegetables and fruits he had purchased at another place.

RECORD BURIAL AT SALEM

The funeral of John C. Reed, who died at his home, 1028 East Tenth Street, August 28, was held at Salem yesterday and the interment was made at the City View Cemetery of that place. Mr. Reed was 65 years of age, and was father of George B. Reed.

WIFE COMPLAINT WITHDRAWN

Mildred F. Wise, who was arrested and held in the County Jail upon telegraphic advices from Spokane, was released yesterday after being the enforced guest of Jailer Kennedy for about a week upon word from Spokane that the complaint against her had been withdrawn. She was charged with removing plumbing and other fixtures from a public building. Chafing at his confinement here, he had started to sue out a writ of habeas corpus. Judge McGinn, before whom the petition came yesterday morning, decided Wise would be held a reasonable time for the Spokane officers and then released.

GRISHAM GRANGE PREPARES EXHIBIT

At a special meeting of the Grisham Grange the first of the week plans were adopted for its competitive exhibit to be made at the Multnomah County Fair, which will be held September 15-19. The following committees were appointed to take charge of the exhibit and arrange the display at the fair pavilion. On decoration of the booth, Mrs. D. W. Metzger, department of horticulture; Roy Kern, department of agriculture; Mrs. M. D. Kern; agricultural exhibits, George Sleret; domestic science work, Mrs. J. R. Cavanaugh; and the exhibit of the new variety of corn to be first prize of $200.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, THE first in the state

It is composed of a precinct committee woman from each precinct. On last Saturday they held a meeting in Dallas and 24 out of the 49 precincts were represented when the organization was perfected. Mrs. Mary Steiner, of Monmouth, was elected chairman, and Nettie Boche, also of Monmouth, secretary. The women are going to maintain separate headquarters and conduct their campaign in their own way without any interference from the regular county central committee.

ALAMEDA DISTRICT PAYMENT FAVORABLE

Property owners of the Alameda improvement district in Rose City favored the improvement of the Alameda improvement district as soon as it can be brought about at a meeting held at the home of L. R. Bailey. The principal opposition, as announced, was because one block on East Fifty-fourth street from the Alameda district to the boulevard had been omitted from the contract, but it was stated petitions now are being circulated asking that this block be paved also with the general contract for the district. The general estimate of the cost of the district improvement is $87,150. Gleibsch & Joplin, for asphaltic concrete pavement, submitted the lowest bid for the work.

LEGAL TECHNICALITIES ATTACKED

Whether or not legal technicalities are to stand in the way of prosecutions in the Police Court is to be determined by the State Supreme Court. The City Commission yesterday authorized an appeal to the higher tribunal of the case of Ah Po and 27 other defendants. An attorney got hold of the case and raised a technicality, which was upheld in the Circuit Court. POPCORN VENDOR LOSES CASE.—E. Wilhelm, a popcorn vendor, lost in Municipal Court yesterday where he appeared to test the ordinance which prohibits the vending of wares about public parks. Wilhelm was arrested Sunday by Patrolman Morelock for selling popcorn in the city blocks. At a special hearing yesterday Wilhelm requested a $25 fine to enable him to appeal from Judge Stevenson's decision in overruling the ordinance which he appealed from. Judge Stevenson refused the fine. Wilhelm returned and requested that the fine be remitted, having decided not to appeal. Judge Stevenson remitted the fine.

SHELLWOOD WANTS MORE FACTORIES

At the meeting of the Shellwood Board of Trade Tuesday night at the Shellwood Y. M. C. A. rooms, Peter Hume, of the Shellwood Bank, spoke on the need of securing more factories for Shellwood. The removal of the Multnomah Mohair Mills from Shellwood was discussed and its removal was considered unfortunate at this time. Mr. Hume and J. W. McBride were appointed a special committee on factories, and the membership was urged to encourage the location of factories in Shellwood. SHADLAND OATS YIELD 70 BUSHELS AN ACRE.—At Seaside, on the Mount Hood Railway, a field of oats which the county was on the farm of J. B. Eder, who threshed 61 bushels an acre from a seven-acre field. The oats are well developed and the yield was considered a record for the county. Mr. Eder secured 956 bushels of oats from 45 acres. The highest yield reported so far was in the Kelso district, where one field threshed at the rate of 70 bushels to the acre.

NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Non-Partisan League of the City of Portland, at the Public Library, Tenth and Yamhill streets, tonight at 8 o'clock. At this meeting City Commissioners Daly and Block will be present, and it is expected to be helpful to them in city work. The manager also will report concerning the work of the league. The public is invited.

CHURCH ZONES NOW ONE

MINISTERS OF CHRISTIAN DENOMINATION LINK DISTRICTS. Northwestern Oregon and Southwestern Washington Sections United and Quarterly Meetings Decided. At the meeting of the Portland Ministerial Association of the Christian Churches, in monthly session yesterday in the Central Church at East Salmon and East Taylor streets, a general association of Northwestern Oregon and Southwestern Washington churches was organized. The new association will hold quarterly meetings.

BUILDING BILL IS READY

Ordinance Empowers Commission to Condemn Old Structures. City Attorney LaRoche yesterday completed the ordinance which empowers providing for the condemnation of insanitary, dangerous and badly deteriorated buildings. The measure has been sent to the City Commission to take the place of the measure which was defeated several months ago. Under the measure the city building inspection department is empowered to condemn buildings which are dangerous or insanitary. In case the owner refuses to allow the razing of the structure he has an appeal to the City Council. When the ordinance is passed proceedings will be started for the condemnation of a number of structures including the Graiser & McLain barn at Fifth and Taylor streets.

ST. JOHNS MAY LEND BOAT

Willingness to Aid Ferrying Vancouver Fair Crowd Told. St. Johns is being asked by Vancouver and Portland to lend its fine ferry to do supplementary work on the Vancouver run next week when the Interstate Fair is on, and the citizens of St. Johns appear willing to help the Vancouver fair out in this way. If arrangements are made to bring up the old ferry from Kalama to do service on the St. Johns run, the ferry from St. Johns will be moved over and will aid in handling the traffic during the fair week. A committee from the Portland Commercial Club, consisting of George L. Baker, C. C. Chapman and Phil S. Bates, within a few days will call on St. Johns yesterday to ask for the use of the Albatross ferry on the Vancouver run for the fair, but it was decided that if St. Johns would agree to lend the ferry now contemplated could be made more advantageous. The committee then went to St. Johns, where it met with a cordial hearing and assurance that if possible the loan would be made.

ROBBERS ELUDE OFFICERS

Which Is Fruitless. Detectives of the Portland Police Department devoted all yesterday to a search for the surviving highwaymen, one believed to be wounded, of the Tuesday night holdup, in which one robber was killed by John A. Lee. There was a persistent rumor yesterday that one of the highwaymen had been found and taken to a hospital to be treated for gunshot wounds, but no foundation could be found for it.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN FORM PLANS FOR ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

Walter L. Toome, Jr., of Dallas, Co. and Booth and Dr. Wrightcombe Will Get Large Majorities. "You need not worry about Polk County," said Walter L. Toome, Jr., of Dallas, Republic party campaign manager, who was in the city yesterday on his way home from Seaside, where he has been passing his vacation. We have one of the best organizations in the Republicans of our county here and in the past ten years. We are fortunate in having for secretary of our county committee, the late Dr. Wrightcombe, who managed the Nesmith County campaign. Mr. Toome is editor of the Polk County Observer.

ACCUSED BOARDER FREED

McNulty was discharged by Judge Dayton yesterday after a trial in which much of the afternoon on a charge of defrauding an innkeeper. It was alleged by Mrs. E. Hoard, of 1673 East Third street, that the defendant left her boarding-house owing her almost $100. The court failed to find any criminal intent to defraud.

MORE SPENDERS FINED

Three were fined $20 each yesterday by Municipal Judge Stevenson. H. D. Wagner was assessed for speeding on the Burnside bridge. Charles Bailou was fined for going at a rate of 10 miles an hour on the Milwaukee road and George Dilley paid a fine for speeding on Grand avenue.

JUDICIAL MORNINGS COURT

Judge Moore will be in court Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to hear any matters that may be presented in his department, including default divorces. Although out of the city, he sent this information yesterday that attorneys may be accommodated. He will continue to hear criminal cases during September.

CONVICTED JAPANESE APPEALS

J. G. Imaki, a Japanese, gave notice of appeal yesterday from the recent decision of the Municipal Court, where he was convicted and fined $25 for offering for sale at the Yamhill public market vegetables and fruits he had purchased at another place.

RECORD BURIAL AT SALEM

The funeral of John C. Reed, who died at his home, 1028 East Tenth Street, August 28, was held at Salem yesterday and the interment was made at the City View Cemetery of that place. Mr. Reed was 65 years of age, and was father of George B. Reed.

BRING an eager appetite and go away satisfied when you dine at The Portland.

All the good things in their season that Mother Earth can produce—savory, tempting, delicious. Luncheon 11:30 to 2. Afternoon Tea 3:30 to 6. Dinner 5:30 to 8. Grill Service to 1 A. M. Delightful music in the grill every evening.

The Portland Hotel. C. J. Kaufmann, Manager.

Where Prices Are Lowest for Safe Quality. Where every customer receives personal attention, and where there is one price for everyone, the true success of "The Store of Quality," Portland's exclusive handlers of everything good to eat. L. MAYER & CO. 148 Third Street. A 4432, Main 9432.

One, Two, Three or Four Passengers. First Mile 50c. Each Additional Mile 30c. Pay by the Meter—a Safeguard Against Overcharge. Competent, Honest, Courteous Drivers. Be Sure You Call Main 98.

HOTEL HOYT. Hoyt and Sixth Sts. New—Fire Proof—200 Rooms. RATES 75c UP. Permanent guests solicited—Special Rates. One Block from Union Depot. H. JENNING & SONS, Props. W. A. Burleigh, Mgr.

Portland Academy. 13th and Montgomery Streets, Portland, Oregon. This school makes a specialty of preparing boys and girls for college. Its graduates enter Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Bryn Mawr by examination. Its certificate is accepted without examination at Cornell, Michigan, Vassar, Smith, Oregon, Reed, Stanford, California and other colleges.

The Imperial Hotel Grill. Where dining is good every day in the year. Everything properly served, clean, wholesome and appetizing. Lunch 12 to 2 35c-50c. Dinner 5:30 to 9 75c. Sunday Dinner One Dollar.

FOOK SANG & CO. 246 Pine Street, Portland, Or. Phone A 3770. CHINESE PURE JADE JEWELRY. Gold bracelets, silver rings, belt buckles in any design. Made to order, with names of good luck Chinese characters engraved thereon. Prices reasonable. Orders promptly executed and sent prepaid anywhere in U. S. We are skilled Chinese jewelers. JAY YU CHONG MAN MGR.

EUGENE WOMAN 87, PASSES. Mrs. E. M. S. Frank, whose kin Served in Revolution, is Dead.

A Chinese Love Song—with all the romantic mystery of the Orient—will be sung in native costume by Miss Lillian Earle, Miss Veta Florenze, Lynn F. Cowan. This is an attraction of great charm for the guests at "Ye Oregon" Miss Blanche Barret will entertain with a number of new novelty songs.

Where Prices Are Lowest for Safe Quality. Where every customer receives personal attention, and where there is one price for everyone, the true success of "The Store of Quality," Portland's exclusive handlers of everything good to eat. L. MAYER & CO. 148 Third Street. A 4432, Main 9432.

One, Two, Three or Four Passengers. First Mile 50c. Each Additional Mile 30c. Pay by the Meter—a Safeguard Against Overcharge. Competent, Honest, Courteous Drivers. Be Sure You Call Main 98.

HOTEL HOYT. Hoyt and Sixth Sts. New—Fire Proof—200 Rooms. RATES 75c UP. Permanent guests solicited—Special Rates. One Block from Union Depot. H. JENNING & SONS, Props. W. A. Burleigh, Mgr.

Portland Academy. 13th and Montgomery Streets, Portland, Oregon. This school makes a specialty of preparing boys and girls for college. Its graduates enter Princeton, Yale, Harvard and Bryn Mawr by examination. Its certificate is accepted without examination at Cornell, Michigan, Vassar, Smith, Oregon, Reed, Stanford, California and other colleges.

The Imperial Hotel Grill. Where dining is good every day in the year. Everything properly served, clean, wholesome and appetizing. Lunch 12 to 2 35c-50c. Dinner 5:30 to 9 75c. Sunday Dinner One Dollar.

FOOK SANG & CO. 246 Pine Street, Portland, Or. Phone A 3770. CHINESE PURE JADE JEWELRY. Gold bracelets, silver rings, belt buckles in any design. Made to order, with names of good luck Chinese characters engraved thereon. Prices reasonable. Orders promptly executed and sent prepaid anywhere in U. S. We are skilled Chinese jewelers. JAY YU CHONG MAN MGR.

EUGENE WOMAN 87, PASSES. Mrs. E. M. S. Frank, whose kin Served in Revolution, is Dead.

A Chinese Love Song—with all the romantic mystery of the Orient—will be sung in native costume by Miss Lillian Earle, Miss Veta Florenze, Lynn F. Cowan. This is an attraction of great charm for the guests at "Ye Oregon" Miss Blanche Barret will entertain with a number of new novelty songs.

Miss Harker's School for Girls. Accredited to Colleges. Grammar and Primary Grades. Opens August 25th. Catalogue upon application. Address 823 Market, Pasco, Wa.

Miss Harker's School for Girls. Accredited to Colleges. Grammar and Primary Grades. Opens August 25th. Catalogue upon application. Address 823 Market, Pasco, Wa.