BEAVERS WIN AND LOSE TO WOLVES

Eleven Innings Tell on Missions and Rodgers' Rally Puts Score at 3 to 2.

EARLY TROUBLE

League Leader Has Series of Bad Luck and Errors Behind Him Give Afternoon Game to Home Squad, 2 to 0.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6 .- (Special.) —It took 11 innings this morning at Ewing Field before the Mission Wolves, late of Sacramento, came a cropper and met defeat at the hands of the and met defeat at the hands of the Beavers, 3 to 2.

Harry Krause worked himself clear up to the last of the ninth inning with the score 2 to 1 in his favor and allowed but three hits. Then he fell a victim to the Missionites, who pounced on him for three nice singles, safeties by Hannah, Eddie Hallinan and Pop Young accounting for the run that tied.

Hodgers Starts Rally. Rodgers Starts Rally.

With the score evened up the Wolves fought a good battle, but Stroud, who had been hit liberally all the way, was touched up for two long-distance hits in the eleventh, which sounded the finish. Captain Bill Rodgers had started with a shot to center and went along to second on an out for Gus

Onkland Crowg Small.

Not much of a howling mob turned out across the bay to enjoy the privilege of seeing an afternoon game, but Magnates Wolverton and Leavitt were not discouraged, explaining that it will take some time to educate the Oakland fans to the afternoon sports.

A special feature was the downfall of the leading league pitcher, Irve Higginbotham. The Missions didn't stage shy slaughter at his expense, but a special feature was the stage shy slaughter at his expense, but a special feature was the downfall of the leading league pitcher, Irve Higginbotham.

the leading league pitcher, live his-ginbotham. The Missions didn't stage any slaughter at his expense, but a triple, followed by a passed ball, and an earned run was over. Later on Buddy Ryan muffed a soft pop fly right in his mits and another run fol-lowed that was not needed. Francisco Arellanes sprung the sur-prise in shutting out the hard-hitting Beaver crew.

Higs Troubles came in the first, when he passed Coy. Orr popped out to Bancroft weakly, but Shinn sliced a long triple to right and Coy scored. In the seventh the other run came. With one out, Young best out a drive In the seventh the other run came. With one out, Young beat out a drive to deep short and stole second. Rohrer raised a short fly to center and Buddy Ryan in an unconcerned manner dropped the ball, Young racing to third. Arellanes bunted toward first and the play for Young at the plate was late, a taily resulting.

Captain Bill Rodgers had started with a shot to center and went along to second on an out for Gus Fisher. Waiter Doane fanned, but Kores poked a drive to the outfield and Rodgers reached the plate.

Two of the early scores came through errors. The Missions sent a man around in the second on a walk, an error for Bancroft, who dropped a throw that would have cut off a steal, and finally a single for Daddy Rohrer.

Stroud Heavily Pounded.

In the third the Beavers evened up on a single for Krause and a poor throw for Young, along with a juicy bit, for Derick, first sacker. They pounded Stroud for three nicely bunched hits in the fourth, and that lead lasted then until almost the close of the game.

In the afternoon the game was switched to Cakland and resulted in a 2 to 0 victory for the Missions.

pennant-contending quartet, St. Louis dropped off badly during the week, winning but one game in six, and despite a victory over Cincinnati today, is six games removed from the leaders. Chicago has done better, but not so well as the leading pair and is four games from the top.

A little interest was injected into the American League race during the week by a spurt on the part of the Boston Red Sox. Their notable feat was the taking of four straight from Philadelphia, reducing the league lead of the Athletics appreciably. There is still an eight-and-a-half game gap between the two clubs.

Indianapolis had the better of the crucial series with Chicago on the latter's grounds in the Federal Loague race. Milwaukee Again in Race.

In the American Association, Milwaukee once more got into the pennant race. Meeting the league leading Colonels on the latter's own grounds, the Brewers trounced them in three out of four games and left Louisville Friday night two and a half games behind. The Colonels had won $1 and lost 61.
