

RUSSIANS BREAK AUSTRIAN ASSAULT

Retreating Army's Loss Is Reported as Enormous. Czernowitz Seized.

70,000 MADE PRISONERS

Around Lemberg Alone Russians Take 300 Cannon—Second Austrian Army Near Krasnosodow Suffers Great Losses.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 7.—The following announcement was given out today: "The Austrian army corps between the river Vistula and the River Bug are retreating with enormous losses. The resistance of the enemy has been broken. There are evidences of the possibility of a famine in Austria."

An earlier dispatch from London reported that the Russian army had entered Czernowitz in Bukovina. The city is the capital of Bukovina, Austria-Hungary, and is 146 miles southeast of Lemberg.

DYSENTERY HITS AUSTRILIANS

Hundreds in Hospitals Through Disease, Ravaging Ranks.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 7.—The Russian general staff in an official communication issued tonight says: "In the sphere of operations around Hava (32 miles northwest of Lemberg in Galicia) the Russian forces continue a number of serious engagements. The Austrian army, which has been operating in the direction of Kholm, is retreating, repulsed by the Russian troops, which have taken numerous prisoners together with artillery and ammunition trains."

"Five hundred Austrian soldiers are in hospitals suffering from dysentery, which is said to be ravaging the ranks of the enemy. On the German front there have been only insignificant skirmishes."

GALICIAN FORT SURROUNDED

Russians Reported as Covering Przemyel, Big Stronghold.

LONDON, Sept. 7, 10:55 A. M.—Official reports from Russia say the Russian troops are gradually surrounding Przemyel, which will soon either surrender or be taken by assault. Przemyel is a strong fortress, 50 miles west of Lemberg, and its fall would mean the loss by the Austrians of the last stronghold of Galicia. It would clear the way to an advance of the Russians westward toward the junction of their forces on the East Prussian front.

The correspondent of the Times at Petrograd, under date of Sunday, referring to a battle just begun, which has succeeded in driving the Austrians against Lemberg, will overthrow the Austrian forces and practically open the road to Berlin, says: "Reliable reports of the progress of the battle enable me to state that the outlook is no whit less promising, but that several days may elapse before the final overthrow of the Austrian army."

"The enemy is composed of at least 20 divisions, besides several German corps, and will fight with the courage of despair."

"On the East Prussian front there is news of the appearance of part, if not the whole, of the third Bavarian army corps. The troops were installed at Allenstein, which is being reconnoitered by Russian cavalry."

According to reports from Paris a second Austrian army, operating in front of Krasnosodow, in the Lublin region, has suffered great losses and is now on the defensive. Some of the Austrians have been forced to retreat. A dispatch from The Hague says the Austrian legation last night issued the following statement: "Reports from Russian sources that Lemberg, Galicia, has been taken by the Russians after a desperate fight for possession of the city are untrue. In reality, Lemberg, which was not fortified, was abandoned to the Russian troops without fighting, for tactical and human reasons."

General Von Auffenburg, in a statement received at the legation, says he is following up his successes at Czernowitz, and that General Dank continues his attack in the direction of Lublin. The legation also contradicts a dispatch of last Saturday, according to which two Czech regiments had mutinied, claiming that at the present time there are no Czech troops in Vienna, whose garriens are of Slavie origin from Bosnia and Croatia. It also contradicts a report claiming that Servians had completely routed the fourth, eighth, ninth and 13th army corps. It is pointed out at the legation that these troops occupy a wholly different position than that assigned them in the report.

1644 AUSTRILIANS CAPTURED

Russian Victory in Kranostav Region Reported.

PARIS, Sept. 7, 2:20 P. M.—The Havas correspondent at Petrograd transmits the following official announcement: "The Russians adopted extended offensive tactics September 4 along the entire Austrian line of battle. The enemy's center, located in the region of Kranostav, bore the Russian attack. The 45th Austrian Infantry was completely surrounded and the commander, 44 officers and 1500 men were taken prisoners."

"The German division which came to the aid of the Austrians was attacked on the left bank of the Vistula. Russian troops have occupied the region around Stryl, and Russian cavalry is in possession of the Carpathian Heights."

"In Eastern Prussia only light skirmishes have been reported."

Prisoners Now Total 70,000.

PARIS, Sept. 7, 5:08 P. M.—In a dispatch from Petrograd, a correspondent of the Havas Agency says that the Russians took 70,000 Austrian prisoners and 300 cannon of various sizes around Lemberg alone. They also captured three regimental flags, 41 cannon, two aeroplanes, 18 officers and 1200 men in other engagements in Galicia.

According to advices received here a second Austrian army operating in front of Krasnosodow, in the Lublin region, has suffered great losses and is now on the defensive. Some of the Austrians have been forced to retreat.

YANKEE VIEW PRIZED

British Eager to Gain Backing of American Opinion.

ONLY MORAL AID SOUGHT

England, Realizing Part United States Will Play at Conclusion of Strife, Anxious to Have Views Understood.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—England is grateful for America's favorable opinion which the numerous dispatches to the London newspapers described as being almost wholly on the side of the allies. To England one curious development of this war is that American public opinion has become something of appreciable value. Hitherto in great world questions America's opinion has amounted to little and has received slight consideration. Now, however, the opinion of the United States is eagerly sought, and it is realized that when the end comes Washington will play an important part in the settling of the account.

Ship Purchases Feared

The only point of irritation which has appeared here is the possibility of German ships being transferred to the American flag and transporting food to Holland, whence it will be shipped to the German army. It is a question of pure neutrality. Some commentators profess agitation on this point, but others take the view that America can be depended on to observe all the proprieties.

England naturally is anxious that no part of the German fleet should be transferred to the American flag, as it is so small part of the allies' plans to starve Germany should the war be long drawn out.

Kipling Makes Address

(Continued From First Page.) That attack will be successful, England will not be reduced, as some people say, to the rank of a second-rate power, but we shall cease to exist as a nation. We shall become an outlying province of Germany to be administered with what severity German safety and interest require.

"We arm against such a fate. We enter into a new life in which all the facts of war that we had put behind or forgotten for the past hundred years have returned to the front and test us as they tested our fathers. It will be a long and a hard road, beset with difficulties and discouragements, but we tread together and we will tread it together to the end."

Political Prisoners Freed.

PARIS, Sept. 7, 10:55 A. M.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Petrograd says the political prisoners in Lemberg, Galicia, were set at liberty by the Russians soon after they entered the city.

BRITISH CHASE REPORTED

Dreadnought After German Cruiser Nurnberg, Says Radio.

HONOLULU, T. H., Sept. 7.—The Matson Navigation Company's steamship Wilhelmina reported on arrival here today that she had picked up a wireless message from the British dreadnought Australia, then in Hawaiian waters, saying she was in full chase of the German cruiser Nurnberg, which left here September 1.

The Nurnberg is a small cruiser of only 2450 tons, and if overhauled would have no show with even an armored cruiser. Her main battery consists of 10 four-inch rifles. It is believed here that the Australian cable to British Columbia was cut by the Nurnberg.
