"Vendetta," Corelli Story at Majestic, Is Beauteous.

LONDON THRILLS AT STAR

Peoples, Columbia, Globe and Sunset Also Present New Shows Which Teem With Gasps and Laughs.

Marie Corelli's "Vendetta" is being presented at the Majestic Theater for four days, beginning yesterday. The coles are enacted by an all-star cast of Italian actors. Mme. Regina Badet, impersonator of the Countess Romani, in-terprets her role artistically.

terprets her role artistically.
George Baud enacts the role of Count Romani, and Charles Angelo is well cast in the role of the artist.
The incident of the play, which the author declares in her preface are founded on fact, take place in Naples in 1884, during the cholera epidemic. The play centers about a man, who, thinking he is afflicted with the cholera, allows himself to a hourled to protect his ing he is afflicted with the choiera, allows himself to be buried to protect his wife and child.

He awakes in the coffin, escapes and by a prank of Fate finds a key to his house in one of his pockets. He returns home to find his wife in the arms of his artist friend, and his beloved baby neglected.

neglected.

His revenge is complete when the woman, who has ruined his life, gives up hers in the ghost-peopled vault where his ancestors lie.

A sparkling comedy, "Sherlock Bonehead," concludes the offering.

"FIJUSIVE TREASURE" FEATURE Under the Ocean Scenes Are Show

at Columbia Theater. "The Elusive Treasure Chest" is the "The Elusive Treasure Chest" is the big hit on the bill which opened yester-day at the Columbia. The 12th episode of "The Million-Dollar Mystery" deals with the finding of the much-sought-after treasure box of the mysterious man of millions by an old sailor and its subsequent loss in the ocean, from which it is recovered by a diver. The "under the ocean" scenes are wonder-ful

A splendid heart interest drama entitled "Granny," by the Majestic players, with Dorothy Gish in the leading role, is another offering which pleased. This is the story of a little girl who supported herself and her aged grandmother by hard work. Although greatly abused by her employer and discharged, she returns good for evil. An avalanche in which a miner is caught is shown in "The Stolen Ore." The Keystone players appear in "Masqueraders." which contains many laughs. This bill runs until Sunday.

GLOBE SHOWING BIG COMEDY

Joseph Knowles' Life in Forest Also Depicted by Film.

Laughter reigns supreme at the Globe Theater, "Bungling Bunks," who Globe Theater. "Bungling Bunks," who endeavors to win the girl he loves, appears in the best animal comedy since "Wild Animals at Large." His hunting expedition in Africa is one big scream. The monkeys, tigers, lions and elephants seem to combine against him. To cap the cilmax he finds himself obliged to choose between a lion's den and a woman. Needless to say, he takes the woman. He takes a live lion home to prove his prowess and when that animal breaks loose, fun and exciteanimal breaks loose, fun and excitement follow in rapid succession

Joseph Knowles, "the nature man," is seen in a reel taken in the wilds. He is shown catching fish without a line, making fire without a match, writing without a pen and doing other wonderful things.

Francis X. Bushman appears in the role of an athlete in "The Masked Wrestler." This bill holds until Satur-

JUNCTION CITY SHOW NEAR Fifth Annual Pumpkin Exhibit Will Take Place September 17-19.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., Sept 3.—(Special.)—The fifth annual pumpkin show of Junction City will be held here September 17, 18 and 19. The interest manifested by the people signifies that there will be an abundance of agricultural displays and industrial exhibits. The prize exhibits will be taken to the Lane County fair and to the State Fair. A large number of cash prizes and a handsome silver cup are offered for the best individual exhibit of sheaf grains, modern injurious effects incident to modern injurious effects incident to many essentials. For instance, the President's assertion that the great social and economic problems of woman suffrage and prohibition are problems for the state to control is wrong.

"I stand for effective legislation looking to the prevention of industrial accidents, occupational diseases, overwork, involuntary unemployment, and other injurious effects incident to best individual exhibit of sheaf grains, modern industry. rrasses and seeds.

The first pumpkin show queen will preside over all the events. The Women's Improvement Club was the instigator of this plan. Miss Hannah Peterson was elected queen and Miss Arda Kirk, Grace Jackson, Florence Cooley and Grace Leppert will serve as maids of honor.
