"GUILTY" PLEA ENTERED

ERNEST H. CARPENTER, PARTNER OF MRS. HEIM, SEEKS PAROLE.

Judge Morrow Declines to Act Without Consideration and Leniency Is Opposed by Prosecution.

Entering a plea of guilty to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, Ernest H. Carpenter, formerly a shoe salesman of Portland who last December joined with George Hammond and Mrs. Kota Pierce Heim, known as "June the Blonde," in passing forged checks, asked Judge Morrow that he be sentenced and paroled. The court, after listening yesterday to pleas for mercy from Carpenter's attorneys, said he would not decide the matter then but would pass sentence September 21. "Mrs. Heim, who was not entitled to the faintest consideration," said Judge Morrow in addressing Carpenter, "was paroled and now it appears that you consider you are left to be made the scapegoat. I want to consider this matter and will not decide it today." "This defendant is not entitled to the same consideration as Mrs. Heim," said Deputy District Attorney Murphy, "for he was in the business of passing bad checks from December to June and was involved in passing about 20 checks. He has been shown generosity by the Grand Jury in that the charge of forgery was reduced to that of obtaining money under false pretenses, thereby reducing his possible penalty one-half."

H. O. Carpenter, the aged father of the prisoner, made a heart-broken plea for mercy and the young man's mother, his wife and young daughter were in court. The defendant, who is 26 years old, submitted through his attorneys a number of letters from local department stores, where he had been employed, testifying to his good character prior to the time he fell in with Hammond and "June the Blonde."

VISIT FIRST IN 7 YEARS

DAVID RICH, OF NEW YORK, AMAZED BY PORTLAND.

Visitor to Preside Over Fred A. Jacobs Company's Auction at Hotel Portland Today and Tomorrow.

David Rich, New York member of the firm of A. J. Rich & Co., is in Portland to take charge of the two-day auction sale to be held by the Fred A. Jacobs Company at the Hotel Portland today and tomorrow. Mr. Rich has been passing the past two or three days looking over Portland and inspecting the various properties to be placed on sale. This is his first visit to Portland after seven years.

"I am astounded to find Portland so marvelously grown up," said Mr. Rich. "I return to find the city with a quarter of a million people, some of the finest office buildings in the world, and East Portland alone much larger than Portland itself was seven years ago. I am impressed with the tremendous and prosperous back country, which will continue to make this city thrive in spite of any outward conditions, and Portland, because of its strategic situation, always will be the most important city in the Northwest."

"We shall experience little bad effects from the present war in Europe, and, ultimately, this war is bound to make the United States the money, food and manufacturing center of the world."

"As to the auction sale, indications point to a large crowd being present, and there ought to be spirited bidding. This method of selling property should grow popular in the West, as it is more and more becoming the custom in New York and other Eastern cities. The Fred A. Jacobs Company deserves great credit for this auction, and I trust they will reap the benefit in a great many sales today and tomorrow."

It is expected that the dining-room of the Hotel Portland will be taxed to its capacity this afternoon on the fall of the gavel.

German Savant Quits Edinburgh.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Professor H. Julius Eggeling, professor of Sanskrit and comparative philology at Edinburgh University since 1875, has resigned his professorship on account of the war. Dr. Eggeling was born in Germany in 1842 and has a world-wide reputation.

BY-PRODUCTS DATA IN

COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY APPLE CONGRESS TO REPORT TODAY.

General Selling Agency Reported Probable Suggestion As Means of Adding to Cannery Profits.

Headquarters for the by-products cooperative committee, which will hold an open meeting in Portland today, have been opened at the Commercial Club. The committee was engaged yesterday in assembling the data it has accumulated during the past year and will submit reports at the meeting this morning, beginning at 9 o'clock. The by-products committee was appointed at the National Apple Congress at Spokane last Fall and in the intervening 10 months has been studying marketing conditions. It is understood that the committee will recommend the formation of a general selling agency through which all canned and evaporated products will be distributed through the markets of the world. It is argued that this plan will reduce materially costs of marketing to all canners. A standard pack will be fixed, skilled processors supplied to the various canneries and a plan for conducting business will be outlined which will reduce costs from 25 to 50 per cent.

Information in the hands of the committee is that a large attendance is to be expected from Western Oregon and Western Washington points. Robert E. Struborn, president of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, yesterday gave a luncheon to the members of the committee then in the city. It was held at the Commercial Club. Those present were: H. C. Sampson, Spokane; J. F. Batchelder, Hood River; W. S. Brown, Corvallis; Paul H. Weyrauch, Walla Walla; D. D. Olds, Wenatchee; C. J. DeVine, North Yakima; M. J. Higley, Payette, Idaho; H. M. Sloan, Florence, Mont.

Prohibition Ticket Named.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 9.—(Special).—A Yakima County Prohibition convention today nominated a full county ticket and also named J. V. Mohr, of this city, as the candidate of the party in this district for Congress.
