FEDS RAID COAST

One From Venice and Two Angels Seek Posts.

WHOLESALE GRAB PLANNED

Draft Period Drawing to Close, Great Endeavor Is Made to Glean Men; "Bit" Promised Is Lure to Players.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10. - (Special.) - A loud roar may be expected from the Pacific Coast League magnates. The Federals are on their trail. What may prove the first of a series of raids came out when one member of the Venice (Cal.) club and two members of the Los Angeles aggregation unblushingly announced they were firting seriously with the third league

One of the men who admitted thinking of hopping to Gilmore's circuit is "Babe" Borton, once a White Sox firstbaseman and now holding down that position for the Venice club. Borton has already signed with St. Louis, but will finish the season on the Coast.

Johnson and Ryan Apply. Johnson and Ryan Apply.

The other players are Ernie Johnson and Jack Ryan, shortstop and pitcher respectively with Los Angeles. They have been made flattering offers, Chicago trying to induce Johnson to jump, while Brooklyn wants Ryan, once with the Naps. Johnson is a Chicago boy and for this reason probably will desert Los Angeles for his home town.

In a few days the public will learn that additional Coast Leaguers have gone over to Glimore's circuit. The reason for the Federals' becoming so that additional Coast Leaguers have gone over to Glimore's circuit. The reason for the Federals' becoming so active at this time is plain. Drafting time is only four days hence and the "Feds" plan to grab the players who appear good enough to be taken by the majors in the draft net.

Chance Is Entleing. In this way the Coast League club-owners lose the amount of coin hand-ed over for a drafted player, but the athlete gets his "bit," hence he is easily induced to sign a Federal con-

Not long ago the Coast Leaguers let-out a wall against the draft. They wanted it abolished, but the big fellows refused to notice the complaint. Back of it was the Federal League bugaboo. Now that the "Feds" have openly announced a campaign for the acquisi-tion of the stars of the league beyond the mountains another howl may be looked for. The Coast Leaguers, like other minors, want protection, "Ora soothing syrup or a chaotic condition never before known in basebail will exist next season

GRUMAN FACES KELLY TONIGHT

Portland Boy to Meet Veteran at San Francisco Ring.

Ralph Gruman, the Portland lightweight, meets another crucial point in his ring career tonight, when he tackles Harlem Tommy Kelly at the Pavilion Rink in San Francisco.
Kelly is a veteran of some 80 battiles and has met Kilbane and Abe Attell. This will be the first important battle since Gruman has gone under the wing of Harry Foley.
On the same programme will be Ernie Madden pitted against one of the San Francisco best middleweights.

In the three-quarter-mile dash Velocka was first, Steel second and Zelina third. Time, 1:18. The half-mile dash was won by Wade Hampton; The Mighty was second and Jack Kertel third. Time, 52 seconds.

A special trainload came down from Ashland, 100 strong, and 1000 people were on hand. Tomorrow the livestock and agricultural displays will be judged.

All the stores in Medford will close tomorrow, Medford day. As a special feature, the management announced tonight a bucking contest for Friday and Saturday.

EIGHT LEFT IN COLLEGE GOLF BENTON FAIR TO EXCEL

Competitors for Championship Qualify at Garden City.

GARDEN CITY, N. Y. Sept. 10.— Eight golfers representing Yale, Har-vard, Princeton and Pennsylvania, survived the first day's play in the annual individual championship competition of the Intercollegiate Golf Association, which consisted of a qualifying round followed by an 18-hole match play round on the Garden City links today. Yale has three men left in the race September 17-18-19, promises to surpass that of last year in many ways. There are more premiums, more people uterested, more crops planted for exhibit purposes than ever before.

The Benton County Fair is not conducted for profit, but is liberally contributed to by the Gounty Court. This money is offered as premiums for agricultural exhibits.
