Germans Forced to Retreat After Heavy Fighting.

BRITISH TAKE PRISONERS

London Official Report Says Bodies of Infantry Cut Off in Woods Are Captured — Belgians Continue Activity.

man Embassy today received the following wireless from Berlin:

"Headquarters on Thursday, in its first official report, says that in a battle east of Paris the Germans held their own in a heavy two days' fight against superior forces attacking between Meaux, Montmirail and from the direction of Paris. We captured 50 guns and several thousand prisoners, but retired the flank when the advance of strong hostile columns was reported. The enemy failed to pursue."

Another version says: "The vanguard of the right wing of the German troops, advancing over the Marne River eastward from Paris were attacked by hostile forces coming from Paris. After fierce fighting between Meaux and Montmirail, they repulsed the enemy and even themselves advanced, but on receipt of news of the arrival of strong hostile columns, the left had to retire. It was not pushed by the enemy. The German troops took 50 guns and some thousands of prisoners.

"Headquarters also reports fighting west of Verdun and on the eastern scene of war."

"The enemy is retreating rapidly east of Soissons in some disorder. "In a later telegram it is declared that from further information the captures of yesterday are higher than first

Paris of the Crown Prince's army have attacked Verdun south of Verdun, which since yesterday have been bombarded by heavy artillery of the Germans.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Ghent says that Belgian troops are pursuing a German army corps which is marching towards France. An engagement has taken place on the right bank of the Scheldt in the triangle formed by Audenard, Courtrai and Renais. The Germans are said to have completely evacuated the region of the Scheldt between Antwerp and Ghent. Many German soldiers detached from their units are being made prisoners in the environs of Termonde.

It is officially announced in Antwerp today that the town of Waereghem, in the Belgian Province of West Flanders, was bombarded by the Germans yesterday for 30 minutes. There were no casualties and only a few houses were destroyed by the German fire.

German General Declared to Have Admitted Disaster.

CAVALRY REPORTED LOST

"We Are Badly in Need of Horses and Supplies," Says Interrupted Wireless to Berlin—Britons Say Only Miracle Can Save.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph has sent the following dispatch from the front: "The last remnants of the German cavalry have been destroyed and a large part of their mobile artillery and ammunition trains have been taken. Huge numbers of their rank and file have been either captured or cut off. "A wireless message to Berlin which was intercepted here today said: "We are badly in need of horses and supplies. "A German General who slept in an inn here last night was overheard to say to one of his aides: "A great disaster has overtaken us. "An English officer of an aviation scouting corps remarked: "It will be a miracle if any of the Germans get home again. Their only anxiety now is to increase the distance between themselves and their pursuers. "There can be no doubt that the tide has turned in the allies' favor. The great German coup has failed.
