Home Industry and This Page-- The Relation!

DO YOU realize what this page has done for Oregon's industries? Here is a brief outline: Some articles advertised here have been lifted from obscurity and brought to the buying public's attention. Others have been popularized and standardized! But the big thing is the unifying and solidifying of Oregon manufacturers. They are working together as one man for the

Upbuilding of Home Industry

Co-operation is as the weaving of a stout cloth—warp and woof—thread upon thread. Each one ineffectual alone, but made strong and powerful through unity.

Oregon can grow and become strong only as her industries—the very backbone of her existence—become strong. Now is the time to show your price and love for your own state.

Keep your money at home to develop Oregon. She depends upon you—you need her. As Oregon grows, your own position will become firmer—it is bound to be mutual.

Work with this definite end in view—Buy Oregon-made goods. Support the state that supports you!

SECRETARY OLCOTT EXPLAINS VOTERS' PAMPHLET.
Political Parties Have Until September 24 to File Statements at $50 a Page—Some Restricted.
SALEM, Or., Sept. 13.—(Special).—Because of false impressions regarding the filing of statements for publication in the campaign pamphlet, Secretary of State Olcott today directed attention to sections 3491 and 3492, Lord's code, as amended. These sections provide that "not later than the 40th day (September 24) before the general election the state executive committee or managing officers of any political party or organization having nominated candidates, but no other except

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES, MAY FILE WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Independent candidates, may file with the Secretary of State portrait cuts of its candidates and typewritten statements and arguments for the success of its principles and the election of its candidates and attacking the principles and candidates of all other parties.
"Political parties," said Mr. Olcott, "are limited to 24 pages and independent candidates to four pages of space in the pamphlet and shall pay at the rate of $50 a page for each page used." "Every person regularly nominated by a recognized political party for any office to be voted for by the electors of the state at large or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall be entitled to use four pages of space. The candidate, or his supporters with the candidate's written permission filed with the Secretary of State, may set forth the reasons why the candidate should be elected. Where any individual statements, other than those presented by the state executive committee of a recognized political party, are filed with the Secretary of State under the latter provision of the law

SPRINGFIELD HOPS AND DRYER, BURN

SPRINGFIELD, Or., Sept. 13.—(Special).—Fire Saturday morning totally destroyed the three-kiln hop-drier at West Springfield owned by Campbell & Walker, of Eugene, together with approximately 50,000 pounds of choice baled hops. The loss on the hophouse is $3500, and that on the hops is estimated at $9500. The loss is partially covered by insurance. Palmer Bros., A. A. Seavey and Campbell & Walker owned the hops that were destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown.

ELLIS MORRISON PASSES

Washington Politician, One-Time Head of State Senate, Dead.
SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 13.—(Special).—Ellis Morrison, a former member of the Seattle City Council and at one time Speaker in the House in Washington State Legislature, died at 8 o'clock this morning at his home, 1215 Terry avenue. Death was due to a gradual decline caused by age.
In 1890 Mr. Morrison came to Seattle from Pennsylvania. Since that time he has been actively engaged in financial circles. For six years he was a member of the City Council and in 1902 was chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. In 1908 he was a Republican candidate for nomination as Lieutenant-Governor.
