Grain Keeps Arriving and Exporting Is Light.

SEVERAL DOCKS BLOCKED

Mariners Oppose Purchase of Craft From Warring Nations, Contending That London Pact May Allow Seizure.

Shortage of ships on account of the Suropean war has left many of the Portland docks practically blocked with grain shipped in since harvest. Half a million bushels have arrived in the city this week. For some time the grain has been arriving at the rate of about 160,000 bushels daily. Meanwhile the shipping has been comparatively light. "I have 150 cars of wheat standing around here." said a waterfroat man yesterday. "The grain is arriving at the rate of 35 carloads daily. Despite our efforts, we cannot get rid of more than 25 cars a day, and about ten car-loads a day are piling up on us."

Ship Waits on Sound.

The first ship to fall in with Congress' plan for relieving the scarcity of vessels by allowing any Americanowned, foreign-built vessels to be admitted to American registry, is the six-masted British barkentine Everett G. Griggs, owned by the Everett G. Griggs Company, Ltd. She now is on Puget Sound, open for charter. Her owners have made arrangements to have her measured and registered at once by United States customs officials, The Griggs is said to be the only six-masted barkentine afloat. She is listed as an iron six-masted schooner vessel barkentine of 2577 tons. Various Portland shippers object to the purchase of foreign ships from the belligerent powers of Europe, as a means of relieving this present shipping stringency, on the ground that vessels bought from a belligerent na-tion, after the declaration of war, are still subject to seizure as prizes of war, even if sold to a neutral nation. London Pact Quoted.

Declaration of London, signed in 1909 by the representatives of ten powers, provides as follows: "The transfer of an enemy's vessel to a neutral flag, effected after the opening of hostilities, is void, unless it is proved that such transfer was not made in order to evade the conse quences which the enemy character of the vessel would involve."

This declaration allows bona fide transactions, but if seized by bellig-events under the Declaration of London, marine authorities say, the owners of the vessels and their cargoes would have to prove, before the prize court of the captor, that the purchase of the ship had been a bona fide transfer.

NEW FLEET SECURES BERTH

Liner Atlantic to Discharge Initial Cargo at Municipal Dock.

G. B. Hegardt, chief engineer of the Commission of Public Docks, has closed a deal with Statter & Co. for berthing the new steamer Atlantic, of the Boston-Pacific line, at Municipal Dock No. 1. She arrives October 5, and is is assumed that the company will continue the arrangement, though the new steamer Pacific, which starts from Boston shortly, will go direct to Puget Sound. The Atlantic will have about 1800 tons of freight for this city.

Ine Monmouthshire reached the dock last evening from Europe via Oriental ports, and the next carrier due there is the Grace liner Santa Clara, on September 24. The Santa Catalina, of the same fleet September 34. The Santa Catalina, of the same fleet, and the Den of Airlie, of the Royal Mail line, are looked for October 15, and the Merionethshire, October 22. Unless much of the cargo moves promptly from the dock there will be little chance of accommodating other steamers.
