Senator Chamberlain's campaign managers are getting peeved, also, over the indifference displayed by the friends of Senator Lane, Chamberlain's colleague in the Senate, While the Lane supporters openly profess a deep interest in the Chamberlain candidacy and pretend to be working in his behalf, it is understood that they are not wasting any time in the work.

Allen turned the horse on to the streetcar track and a car struck the outfit, throwing out the three men and probably mortally injuring two of them, wrecking the buggy and injuring the horse so it had to be killed. Allen

More Indians arrived and put up their tepees, and more Frontier Days performers are coming. Democratic voters are being subjected to a cross fire of correspondence these days. The letters originate in the various offices and "headquarters" maintained by the several Democratic candidates, and seemingly are not written with intent to help the entire Democratic ticket.

"Anything to elect Chamberlain," is the tone of the appeal coming from the Chamberlain headquarters in the Journal building.

"Anything to elect Smith," is the substance of the "confidential" communication.

"Anything to elect Smith," is the substance of the "confidential" communications coming from Dr. Smith's office in the Broadway building.

Nether of these prolific letter writers seems to be doing much to aid the candidacy of the other. In fact, it is broadly hinted in certain Democratic circles that neither intends to do much to help the other.

Chamberlain Men Complain.

The friends of Senator Chamberlain, it is reported, are complaining about the lack of support that they are getting from Governor West and the other Smith supporters.

On the other hand the Smith followers complain that they are getting little encouragement from the Chamberlain camp. It would not be surprising, before the end of the campaign, to see the lack of sympathy between the two Democratic forces brought into sharp relief.

Senator Chamberlain's campaign ward sendency and buyers were so eager to get sheep quickly they bought many of them into the price paid for standard hogs on Monday.

Steady prices were realized in the few transactions in the sheephouse. Choice swes wild at $4.50 and others at $3.50 and $4.

negotiations were revived in the financial district today, presumably as a result of the Turther reported successes of the allies. The exchange market, which was more diversified in its operations than at any time since the European outbreak, continued to show improvement. Rates on London hardened a trifle and a few Reichsmark bills on Germany were offered via Copenhagen. Some business was done in france for Paris and an inquiry for Spanish pesetas offered additional evidence of the market's increasing breadth.

Tentative applications for loans or short term issues of notes by various municipalities, whose obligations are about to mature, were received by bankers. It is expected that many states and cities in need of funds will soon come into this market for either of these forms of accommodation. Passing of the Republic Iron & Steel Company's deferred dividend for the current quarter, because of the financial situation growing out of the war, called renewed attention to the general state of that industry, and the dividend state of their industry, and the dividend state of the financial situation are single engaged in the same line of manufacture. According to conservative estimates, mills at leading centers are now operating at 50 per cent of capacity, and it is believed that many will be reduced to a 50 per cent basis by October.
