The Two Sisters.

them a great deal of money.

asked the elder sister.

younger sister replied.

after we are gone."

RINITY'S wedding bells joyously tolled the marriage of Miss Dorothy Huber to Kurt Hermann Kochier last night at $:30 o'clock. It was a green and white wedding, tall standards of white lilies and feathery ferns adorning the chancel, where Rev. A. A. Morrison officiated. Oskar E. Huber, father of the bride, gave her into the keeping of the bridegroom, and she was attended by her sister. Miss Winnifred Huber, as maid of honor, and the Mirses Louise Burns, Katherine Holbrook, Violet Erskine and Jean Morrison bridesmalds. Mr. Koehler's best man was Irving Web-ster, and the guests were ushered by larden Zar Edward W Ortman Harold Jordan Zan, Edward W. Ortman, Harold Wells and Frederick T. Forster.

12

Wells and Frederick T. Forster. The bride, an exceptionally attrac-tive girl, was radiant in her gown of soft white satin and rose point lace, with flouncings of tulle. She also wore a full length vell wreathed with orange blossoms, and the bridal bouquet was fashioned in a shower effect of or-chids and lilles of the valley. Miss Huber, maid of honor, was also attractive in a stunning gown of white attractive in a stunning gown of white satin, embellished with opalescent se-quins embroidered on the flounces, and the bridesmaids' gowns were alike, shimmering white satin tulle and lace, with deep silver girdles. The maid of honor carried a shower bouquet of copper-colored roses, and the maids' bou-quets were of vivid Richmond roses.

At the close of the ceremony the wedding bells pealed forth, and the throngs of guests in their festive ral-ment adjourned to the old home of the ment adjourned to the old home of the Sherlocks, on Washington and Twenty-first streets, where an elaborate re-ception was held. It was a pretty co-incidence that the bridal party stood in the same place where the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Huber, parents of the bride, took place. Mr. and Mrs. Huber and Mr. and Mrs. Bichard Washler received with the un-

Bichard Koehler received with the un-usually attractive bridal party. Mrs. Koehler was admired in a lovely gown of white satin with black lace overdress. Mrs. Huber was handsome in a strik-ing gown of scintillating blue and black sequins, built over white satin, with a chic arrangement of black satin forming a train. Miss Elizabeth Hu-ber, dainty little sister of the bride, was attractive in a girlish frock of white silk with overdress of ceral pink chiffon and silver zirdle. chiffon and silver girdle.

chiffon and silver girdle. The Sherlock residence was beauti-fully decorated with huge clusters of Autumnal foliage with feathery tops, branches of tall sunflowers and asters. The bride's traveling suit was a smart blue cloth with deep lavender and silver girdle, worn with a chic hat of black velvet, adorned with a soft silver quille, and a corsage of vio-lets.

lets. Mr. and Mrs. Koehler left for a fort-night's wedding trip, and upon their return will be at home in their new home on Marshall and Twenty-fourth streets. . . .

Amid a golden setting of yellow Amid a golden setting of yellow blossoms, yellow gowns and golden-volced music, Miss Margaret Hackett became the bride of Frederick Harvey Harkness last night at the Unitarian Church at § o'clock, Rev. Thomas G. Eliot officiating. Mr. Eliot also offi-ciated at the wedding of Captain and Mrs. Hackett, the bride's parents. Masses of yellow chrysanthemums, yel-low roses nalms and ferns decked the Masses of yellow chrysanthemums, yel-low roses, palms and ferns decked the church and banked the chancel, and Mrs. Frederick Olson's clear and mel-low voice was heard in the precessional. The bride was attended by Mrs. Wil-ber Davis as matron of honor, and her bridesmalds were Misses Ellen Mc-Curdy, a cousin, of Hood River, and Irene Mosher. Little Elsie Hackett, niece of the bride, was ringbearer, and the guests were ushered by Joseph Dorney, Leonard Hurst, Carl Taylor and Wilber Davis. Edward Klepfer, a fellow pitcher with the bridegroom on the witch, "and I will give you a black cat to keep harm from you while you live and the house will last forever." But the sisters did not like the house or fron furniture, so they went to an old hermit who lived in the mountains. "What shall we do with our money that people will remember us after we are dead?" they asked him. "Live as I do," replied the hermit. "It is the only way to live in comfort, and nothing you can do will make peo-ple remember you after you are dead. Take my advice and do not try." On their way home they met a poor man carrying a bag on his back. "Let us help him," said the elder sister. So they took the bag and carried it be-tween them, and when they reached their home they took him in and gave him food and a place to sleep. The next morning the elder sister said: "We will start out again today. Borthare the the sume they said: "We will start out again today. Perhaps we can find someone today Perhaps we can find someone today who can tell us what to do with our money, so that we may be remembered after we are dead." The old man whom they had helped heard what the sister said. "Why do you go about asking when you have a Book that will tell you what you wish to know?" he said. "If you read it understandingly you will have your question answered. The If your grocer has no FOL-GER'S Golden Gate Tea in tins, he can get for you th Special Value offered, as we cheerfully forward him a sin-gle package at our regular price, through any chan-nel he designates, and we pay him his regular profit in addition.

A PORTLAND BRIDE OF YESTERDAY AND ONE OF TODAY.

MRS. FREDERICK HARVEY HARKNESS, WHOSE WEDDING WAS AN ELABORATE AFFAI R OF LAST EVENING.

"If you read it understandingly you will have your question answered. The Book tells us 'Seek and ye shall find." Your kindness to a poor old man may not make you remembered long on earth, but it will be remembered else-where, never fear." As the old man went out the door there seemed to be a ring of light about his head. The sisters stood looking after him in silence, and then the elder said: "We should have read in the Book as the old man told us; let us do so now."

J. A. FOLGER & CO.

ers may realize that "handsome is as hand-some does" is the stand-ard by which most owners judge their cars. The Detroit Electric is built upon that principle. built upon that principle.

for the children's lunch.

was gowned in a lovely creation of ivory-toned duchess satin, and chantilly lace. Her vell was becomingly ar-ranged in a mob cap of princess lace, wreathed with orange blossoms, and she carried an artistic shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were gowned allke in yellow satin, with deep lace basques, and they carried shower houquets of yellow chrsanthemums. The matron of honor was attired in yellow satin and

and a corsage of American Beauty

where a grown of pink satin and lack and the stating of same services and a corsage of American Beauty.
After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's particular to the wedding of saces and the sole marked to morrow at the sole to the bride's part of November.
Dignity and simplicity characterized marked to morrow at the sole marked to morrow at the sole to the bride's part of November.
Dignity and simplicity characterized form a two years to the bride's part of November.
Marked the forme of the bride's part of November.
Dignity and simplicity characterized form a two years to the bride's part of November.
Marked the forme of the bride's part of November.
Dignity and simplicity characterized form a two years to the bride's part of the sole form at the sole marker and bride to the sole at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole of the bride's part of the sole form at the sole part of the sole form at the sole part of the sole form at the sole at

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her maid of honor was Miss Martha Whiting. George Clinton Reed acted as his brother's best man, and Miss Doris Clarke played the wedding march

The bride, who is an attractive brunette, was charming in a handsome gown of white satin, embellished with rare old rose point lace and tulle. She wore a filmy tulle veil wreathed with orange blossoms, and carried a shower arrangement of bride roses and lilles of the valley. Miss Whiting was attired in a pretty shell pink satin gown, with overdress of net lace, draped with tiny clusters of rosebuds. Her bouquet was a shower of bridesmaid roses. and Scotland for the past three months, will sail from Southampton today. They expect to reach Portland early in October.

their money while they lived. When they died two big trees that stood at the entrance to the park were called "The Sisters," and under these the good sisters were buried. (Copyright, 1914, by the McClure News paper Syndicate, New York City.) MISS FLORENCE BONNELL, WHO WILL WED JACOB KAMM TODAY. honor was attired in yellow sain and lace gown, and her bouquet was a shower of yellow Killarney roses. Mrs. Hackett, mother of the bride, was admired in a lavender crepe de chine gown, trimmed with silver lace, and silver roses at the corsage. Miss Hattiebelle Hackett, sister of the bride, their pretty little bungalow, just com-their friends in their pretty little bungalow, just com-tion for many delightful affairs.

BARBARA BOYD, The Right Kind of Empoyer. S o many investigations are going on nowadays, wouldn't it be interesting to have an investigation of employers?

SNAPSHOTS

Miss Bonnell is a charming and in-teresting girl, a graduate of University of Oregon class of 1913, and a popular member of Chi Omega sorority. Since the death of her mother, which oc-curred while they were traveling in Alaska, Miss Bonnell has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McLaughlin, in Irvington. Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hart returned Tuesday night from a week-end busi-ness trip to Roseburg and Ashland. Mrs. Harriét McArthur and Miss Gen-evteve Thompson, who left Portland iast September for an around-the-world tour and who have been in England and Sociand for the past three months, will sail from Southampton today. They expect to reach Portland early in October.

Miss Whiting was attired in a pretity with all overdenses in the part three months, it is all from Southampton today. They cellulate the bould be achieved to be assessed at the part three months, it is all from Southampton today. They cellulate the bould be achieved to be assessed to be assessed at the bridal part was augmented in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. State assessed to be assessed to b

FREE With every loaf of Butternut Bread sold next Wednesday, Sep.. 23, a fine Lead Pencil will be given free. Ask your dealer.

Insist on the Butter-Nut Label

There are all kinds of imitations of Butter-Nut Bread on the market.

But the title or the shape of the loaf is all they can imitate. They can't approach the delicate, appetizing Butter-Nut flavor.

BUTTER.

NUT

So, for your own protection, look for the Butter-Nut label like that shown in the left-hand lower corner of this advertise

For that label marks perfect bread from ordinary bread

Butter-Nut is the best 5 cents' worth of bread you ever bought. Larger size loaf, 10 cents. A single loaf, ordered from your grocer today, will prove it. 14

UNITED STATES BAKERY Cor. E. 11th and Flanders. Both phones of this season if you are among those who keep their hair perfectly soft and appearing naturally heavy by use a shampoo that makes it very fluffy. Do not take chances with some makeshift or unknown soap mixtures. have tried many in search of the best, cheapest and easiest to use and finally have decided to always use canthrox, which is made for shampooing only and is so beautifying in its effect upon the hair. I get it at any good drugstore and one package lasts so long that it is the most economical shampoo I can get and my first trial convinced me that it was the most easily used. In clearing the scalp and hair of all dandruff, dirt and excess oil, its delicately perfumed lather gently permeates to the hair roots and not only takes loose dirt but dissolves all the oil accumulations so they are rinsed out instead of being rubbed and scoured out, as with soap and so many cheap washes. My hair is now so fluffy that it seems much heavier than is naturally .- Adv.

Warning to Users of Gasolene

Gasoline contains water and s e d i ment, causing 90 per cent of gas engine trouble, ex-pensive re-pair bills and loss of time Actual tests have proven there is only one ab-solutely sure way of separating all water all water and dirt from gasoline, kerosene and distiliate, and that is by using an ENTORF Filter, which has been recently patented by an Illinois man. The Entorf Filter re-sembles the common funnel. It will strain ten gallons of gasoline per min-uite, and is sold on an absolute guar-autee to do all that is claimed for it. F. G. Epton, 182 Morrison street, Port-land, Or., is the district sales manager for this company. for this company.

