

HARRIETTA CROSMAN DEPICTS

Mother at Star.

FARNUM ON PEOPLE'S REEL

"The Wife," Klaw & Erlanger Play, Is Majestic Feature, "Stacked Cards" Thrills at Columbia.

Globe and Sunset Please.

Henrietta Crosman, for many years one of the foremost women before the footlights, is at the Star Theater in one of the best plays ever presented there, "The Unwelcomed Mrs. Hatch." One can feel the strength of her vivid personality in her portrayal of the mother who lost her child, and finding her, was not allowed even to touch her gown.

The play is woven about a man, his wife and baby. The husband, tiring of his golden-haired, baby-faced little wife, seeks another woman and desert his first love. She, on the other hand, plans to run away with a friend of her husband's, but when she falls at the last minute and she runs back to her baby to find that she will not be allowed to enter the house. Broken-hearted, she goes to the home of her own living, and returning to her daughter, finds herself confronted by a seemingly insupportable brick wall. The problem is solved by the girl's fiancé.

This play is, without exception, one of the best of its kind ever seen in the city.

A clever play, "The Higher Law," concludes the programme.

COLUMBIA'S BILL THRILLING

"Stacked Cards," Political Drama, Is New, Bright Headliner.

"Stacked Cards," a drama of political trickery, teeming with sensational features, is the headline attraction on the bill which opened at the Columbia yesterday. It deals with the methods employed by gangsters to defeat a young man who is a candidate for Mayor on the reform ticket. Through the medium of a beautiful woman they plan the candidate's downfall, and the story is told in a series of thrilling episodes.

In "A Secret Agent From Russia," the leader of the "Black Hundred" in Russia sends a dispatch to a special agent to take charge of the efforts of the conspirators in securing the wealth of Harrogate, the future of the American continent and he returns in disguise. There are the usual number of thrilling and spectacular features in this episode.

Pay Tichner and Ted Browning make merry in "The Millionaire's Comedy" that is a comedy from first to last. Fred Schill presides at the organ. This bill runs until Sunday.

DRAMA AT GLOBE IMPRESSIVE

Especially Selected Cast Presents "Twin Brothers Van Zandt."

In the "Twin Brothers Van Zandt," presented at the Globe, Malcolm Douglas has evolved a powerful drama. The story is thrilling, John E. Ince gives a forcible performance of the two brothers and is aided by an especially selected cast. The production has evoked beautiful scenery and impressive atmosphere.

Miss Mildred Gregory, as the heroine, gives one of the best interpretations of her experience. It is an unusually attractive play.

"Motherless Kids," a comedy-drama featuring Margaret Fisher, is a heart-stirring picture combining humor and pathos. "The Generals of the Future" is a series of interesting and instructive West Point scenes. "A Terrible Lesson," by the Englishman, impresses the moral that the straight path is best. R. F. Outcall's Buster Brown is seen in his first screen production, together with Tighe and the goat.

This same programme will continue for the rest of the week at the Globe, Eleventh and Washington.

TANGLED LOVE AT MAJESTIC

Klaw & Erlanger Play, "The Wife," Is Most Amusing.

Klaw & Erlanger are presenting "The Wife" at the Majestic Theater. There it will remain four days, beginning yesterday. The play is attractively serious and humorous. The old Mayor's love affair with the widow is a scream. Two men are in love with the same woman, who gets her affairs of the heart badly tangled. Swift unraveling of the plot makes the story exceptionally comprehensive. Few explanatory captions are used. The play is woven about three candidates for office, a woman, with whom two of the men are in love, and a third man bent on mischief and revenge for imaginary wrongs.

Marshall Neilan and Ruth Rowland are seen in "What Women Want," a laugh from one end of the film to the other. Women take up the mantle of drab and men become manufacturers under the new order.

"VIRGINIAN" IS AT PEOPLES

Dustin Farnum Appears in Noted Play Requiring 400 Scenes.

Today and for the remainder of the week at the People's Theater, Dustin Farnum, star of the "Squaw Man," will appear in "The Virginian," from the book by Owen Wister and the play by Kirk La Shelle.

The photo-drama is in 400 scenes and requires a special cast of players. It is composed of five beautiful parts.

Almost everyone is familiar with the story of "The Virginian," his calm temper, his magnificent personality and his power to make friends, his radiant worship of Molly and his devotion to duty. Mr. Farnum is one of America's most popular actors and the role of the Virginian is especially well suited to his ability. In play form "The Virginian" was one of the sensations of its period. As a photo-play it surpasses in every detail both the book and the stage production.

This superb play will remain on all week.

Bite From Man Fatal.

TACOMA, Sept. 16.—Daniel Harkins, aged 35, a well-known detective of the Tacoma police department, died last night from complications resulting from being bitten on the hand by a prisoner whom he was trying to arrest a year ago.

Heard on the Train.

"What have you got in the package?" "Drawing materials." "I didn't know you were an artist." "Artist nothing! It contains a couple of pairs of forceps the dentist asked me to get for him."
