

HOP BIDDING HEADS

McClellan Gets 600 Bales in Independence Section.

EIGHTEEN CENTS PAID

Fuggle Crop of State Is Now Bought Up—Inquiries Are at Hand From England and Export Shipping Is Being Done.

The hop market opened up with a rush yesterday when 600 bales of the new crop were bought at 17 cents.

The buyer was O. C. McClellan, of the Kola Nels Hop Company, of Salem, and the crops were all bought in the Independence section. The largest lot was 200 bales purchased from W. W. Perival.

Another interesting development of the day was the inquiry received from England. It was stated that the Wisard-Richardson crop is being shipped to London and fuggles are also being sent over.

OPENING RAISIN PRICES ARE NAMED

WHEAT AGAIN SOARS

Reports of Austrian-German Victories Lift Prices.

ADVANCE OF FIVE CENTS

Chicago Markets Also Affected by Rumors of Heavy Buying of Flour by Representatives of Foreign Governments.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Wheat went soaring today largely because of reports of Austrian-German advantages that made the end of the war appear remote.

Jump in quotations at Liverpool tended from the outset to make wheat buyers cautious and sellers more and more scarce.

Conditions in the egg trade were unchanged. The supply of fresh ranch was not large and the demand was also restricted.
