

PORTLAND IS VICTOR

Lewiston Poloists Decisively Defeated.

CORBETT BROTHERS STAR

Spokane Scene of Spectacular Contest, Score of Which, 20 to Minus 1-4, Might Be Styled Record in Tri-State Tourney.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Portland, 20; Lewiston, minus 1. Only the day before the Spokane quartet had been trimmed by the Boise team to the tune of 17 1/2 to minus 3/4.

This was thought to have been a record for a one-sided game, but the active fans, after witnessing today's game, are inclined to give the Portland players the credit of the record.

In spite of the one-sidedness of the contest it was spectacular. The plays were featured by long and difficult drives. The Portland squad had their batting eyes and seldom did they miss the white missile, although riding their horses at a dead gallop when they struck at it.

The Corbett brothers again established themselves in the spectators' eyes after their year's absence from the city. They guarded their positions well, kept their opponents covered and made most of the goals.

Hamilton Corbett drove the ball from difficult angles between the Lewiston goal posts six times, and his brother, Harry, was able to get the ball over four times.

The Lewiston players, while guarding well, were off on their drives. Time after time they missed easy swings when the ball was directly in front of their opponents.

A peculiar play came up just before the bugle sounded the end of the seventh chukka. The ball was in play in front of Lewiston's goal, having been brought down the field by some rapid drives by the Corbett brothers.

There was a mad scramble for the ball, in which all players on both sides participated. During the scramble Thiesen, captain of the Lewiston team, accidentally forced the ball through his own goal post.

Rain began falling at the beginning of the fourth chukka and continued. The players were soaked and chilled. Water was dripping from the heels of their boots and off their saturated saddles.

In the third chukka Harry Corbett made a goal drive of more than 70 yards that brought him a loud cheer. Robertson scored a goal in the last chukka from a long, difficult angle while riding his pony at full speed, the ball hitting the ground about eight inches and whistling as it sailed between the goal posts.

In the seventh period Hamilton Corbett made a sensational drive from the back field forward drive from in the midst of a melee.

Summary: Position. Lewiston. Victor Johnson... No. 2. George Thiesen (c). H. Robertson... No. 4. Dr. J. B. Hollenbeck.

Score—Goals, Portland 20, Lewiston 0; no goal safety. Goals, Boise, time, 17 1/2 chukkas.

JAMES E. SULLIVAN DIES

FAMOUS OLYMPIA GAMES COMMISSIONER PASSES.

Noted Authority on Amateur Track and Field Athletics and an Athlete Himself Much Honored.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—James E. Sullivan, secretary and treasurer of the American Athletic Union, and American Olympic Commissioner in recent Olympic games, died here today.

Mr. Sullivan was operated on at a local hospital on Monday for intestinal trouble and never rallied. He returned from the A. A. U. track and field championship games in Baltimore on Sunday and was stricken late that night with the illness which resulted in his death.

As a mark of respect to Mr. Sullivan, the senior championship games of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U., of which he was president, have been postponed from September 19 to October 3.

James E. Sullivan was noted throughout the world as an authority on amateur track and field athletics. In his youth he was a famous athlete, having won American championships in all-around running, jumping and boxing contests.

He was national and sectional president, and, in late years, held the position of secretary-treasurer of the A. A. U., as well as being chairman of the American Olympic committee. He passed several weeks abroad this summer as the chief representative of American athletic bodies at the international conference at Paris and Lyons.

His greatest athletic fame came in connection with the Olympic games held in Europe beginning in 1906. He was appointed special American Olympic commissioner at the Athens, London and Stockholm meets by Presidents Roosevelt and Taft.

PORTLANDERS DISPEL GLOOM Doble's Sad Story Weakens When Leaders Appear on Gridiron.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Gilmore Doble is again peddling the gloom stuff. Although he has had stories last year, Doble now has a tale of a darker hue. Students, however, were encouraged when Edwin and Elmer Leader, Portland Juniors, appeared on Denny Field yesterday in regular suits to get on the job this year.

ROSE FESTIVAL VISITORS MAY SEE TRACK MEET.

C. F. Berg Says No Balloon Races Will Be Held Next Year Here, but Athletics Will Be on Tap.

There will be no repetition of the balloon race, but instead Chairman Berg intends to make the bid for the holding of the Pacific Northwest Intercollegiate track meet in Portland next summer.

The meet is held about the first week in June every year, and its 1915 place of holding will be decided at the annual schedule meeting of the conference during the Christmas holidays.

Walla Walla entertained the college athletes this year on May 30. It is possible also that the Pacific Northwest intercollegiate championships will be staged here, although it is not Portland's turn, as this city had the meet two years ago.

The Northwest Association is scheduled to meet in Seattle September 20, at which time the matter will be settled. It is Vancouver's turn, but on account of the war the Canadian city declines to be willing to waive in favor of either Portland or Seattle.

"So far as the balloon races are concerned," said Chairman Berg, "the novelty has been taken off this summer and attractions of that sort are better when not staged too often."

Furthermore, I don't believe we could lure any of those famous balloonists out in this rocky, mountainous country again for love or money."

DINNER DANCE GAY

Society Event at Commercial Club Is Great Success.

SOCIABLE NOW PERMANENT

Tango, Twinkle Hesitation Waltz, One-Step, Castle Half-and-Half and Others Enjoyed—150 Glide Between Courses.

Portland society swung through the maze of hesitation, one-step and old-fashioned waltz steps at the initial dinner-dance at the Commercial Club last night.

The evening's dancing was broken into by an excellently-arranged menu. Dinner with dance for popularity, and fought a losing fight for there was no doubt at the close of the affair that all had danced far more than they had eaten.

Standard Steps Shown. As a feature of the evening, M. Christensen and Mrs. Christensen exhibited the correct steps of the modern dances, giving the standard interpretations adopted at the recent Congress of Dancing Masters at Cleveland, O., which was attended by Mr. Christensen.

The dances they interpreted were the tango, the twinkle hesitation waltz, the one-step and the Castles' half-and-half, or five-step. The rhythmic harmony of the exhibition dances won rounds of applause.

Another dance was shown by Master Victor Christensen and Miss Jennette Dantler. This was the mambo, correctly pronounced "machechee" from the Spanish, but generally given the French pronunciation, "maxee." In both the "a" is short.

Dinner was served at 6:30 although in the future 7 o'clock probably will be the hour set. The first course was followed by dancing by the guests, and from then on dancing occupied the most of the evening, the various dinner courses being served only as the dancers found time to eat them.

The Commercial Club quarters presented a gay scene with the shimmering silks of the famous ballroom flashing against the background of black and white of the men's attire. Many colored rubber balloons floated about the ceiling and the numerous tables. The center of the floor was cleared for dancing, the tables being grouped about the wall.

Winter Series Started. George W. Kleiser, of the committee in charge of the evening, in a short address pointed out the desire of the club to make the dinner dance a permanent sociable this winter. The plan is one followed out in many Eastern clubs and hotels and the reception given its introduction here last night assures its popularity in Portland.

Reservations were made last night for 150 persons. George W. Kleiser and W. J. Hofmann, the committee in charge of the event.

FOREST SEED GATHERED

CAMP ESTABLISHED BY FORESTRY SERVICE IN NATIONAL RESERVE.

Pine and Fir Cones, Dried and Opened by Workmen, Yield Life of New Trees for Denuded Areas.

A camp containing 12 men and boys recently has been established about 30 miles north of the Columbia River, in the Columbia National Forest, to collect tree seed for the use of the Forest Service.

Western yellow pine, Douglas fir and Noble fir are desired. In gathering the seed, the men climb the trees for the cones in which the seed is hidden, because when the cones fall the seed is lost.

After the cones have been gathered, the seeds are extracted. If the weather is favorable, the cones are spread on a sheet in the sun and allowed to dry. If the weather is wet, the cones must be dried and opened by artificial heat.

This is secured by means of a portable dry kiln, consisting of a tent equipped with stoves and shelves. When the cones are dry, they are placed in a churn and the seeds shaken out.

The seed then is passed through a fanningmill and the chaff removed. The seed is now ready to be sowed or stored. Ultimately it will be used in the Wind River Nursery, near Carson, Wash., where the Government raises 2,000,000 trees each year, with which to reforest the denuded areas in the Oregon and Washington National forests.

The service does not intend to collect seed on an extensive scale this year, as 300 or 400 pounds will be sufficient for the present need.

REFUGEE PICTURES TROOPS

Letter From Mrs. K. L. Belcher of Soldiers in Havre.

A letter received in Portland recently from Mrs. Katharine Lawler Belcher, daughter of Mrs. Honora Lawler, 483 East Twenty-sixth street, North, tells her experience in leaving Europe during the present hostilities.

An extract from her letter says: "You feel that this is a war of silence. Havre was filled with French and English and Belgian soldiers. The picture of those brave, quiet-faced boys standing by the train in the moonlight I will always remember. They were so young, and, although you would find you hear broken for the boys, you would see the older men and would think of the wife and babies back somewhere in Belgium."

OLD RAGS TO BE CLEANED

Ordinance Aimed at Contamination of Cloths Workmen Use.

If an ordinance read first and second time by the City Commission yesterday is passed, either the housewife who sells castoff clothing and rags to the junkman or the junkman himself will be compelled to boil them in caustic soda and to rip open and flatten out all sleeves, legs and bodies of all the garments.

The ordinance is aimed at the use of unclean and contaminated rags for use in wiping machinery and all other surfaces. The ordinance makes it unlawful to sell the rags for wiping and cleaning purposes unless they have been fully sterilized.

650 Chemawa Indians in School.

CHEMAWA, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—School began yesterday in all departments at the Chemawa Indian school, although the smaller pupils began study last week. The students were allowed an additional week to pick hops. The attendance will be about 650 this year.

QUARTER MILLION ASKED

GOLDEN DRIFT MINING COMPANY SUED BY CHICAGO CONCERN.

Plaintiff Alleges Defendants Have Failed to Meet Terms of Lien Issued to Cover Bonds.

Suit was filed in the United States District Court yesterday by A. E. Reames and Clarence Reames, attorneys for the State Bank of Chicago, which as trustee claims the sum of $253,135.88 from the Golden Drift Mining Company, the Grants Pass Banking Company and others, alleging that they had failed to comply with the terms of a deed in trust to all its properties.

This deed was given to the State Bank of Chicago as mortgage security to cover the bond issue by the bank of $165,000.

Accrued interest at 6 per cent brings the total up to the sum asked in the complaint, while, in addition, $1000 as trustee's fees and $10,000 as attorneys' fees are demanded.

The State Bank of Chicago alleges that the Golden Drift Mining Company and the Grants Pass Banking Company delivered a deed of trust conveying all its property as mortgages to cover the issue of bonds bearing 6 per cent interest with the stipulation that the property was to revert to the State Bank of Chicago as trustee in case of non-payment of taxes, assessments, interest or principal. They say that none of the bonds or coupons have been paid except a portion of the coupons representing the first interest payments.

Most of the property lies in Josephine County, Oregon, some of it being in Bourne's First Addition to Grants Pass. Of this property the Grants Pass concern claims the ownership of certain portions, but the State Bank of Chicago says that all right, title and interest held by the former is subject to the lien created by the trust.

The complaint also declares that there are now liens in Josephine County against the property amounting to $40,000.

The Golden Drift Mining Company's headquarters are at Prescott, Ariz.

THREE SEEK SEPARATIONS

S. E. Hallal Accuses Wife of Fraud in Marrying Him.

Accusing his wife of practicing fraud in marrying him when she had another husband living, S. E. Hallal yesterday brought suit asking that his marriage, which took place in August, 1907, and was performed in this city by the Rev. John Dawson, be annulled. He charges that his wife was married in Syria some years ago to Joseph Behrer, a barber and a daughter was born to them, who is 22 years old.

Benjamin F. Williams sued his wife, Lillian, for divorce, charging she frequently stayed away from his home for days and also associated with other men. They were married in Monmouth in 1912.

Sarah Duncan sued L. M. Duncan, a druggist, charging desertion in 1912. It is stated the two were married in Lafayette, Or., in 1896. The custody of three minor children and $45 month alimony are asked.

MRS. ABIGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY ISSUES AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

It has been brought to my attention that the Anti-Saloon League, following the same tactics it has followed in every campaign heretofore, is trying to besmirch this organization and to carry on a vicious campaign of untruths. No name seems to be too good to be dragged into the mud by them. I have reliable information that a statement has been made to the Anti-Saloon League and to the Committee of One Hundred by Mrs. Cora C. Talbot, former secretary of the Taxpayers and Wage-Earners' League, that she was brought into this work by me under the impression that it was a Women's Suffrage movement and her duties would be those of a physician while I made speeches throughout the state. I also understand that Mrs. Talbot makes the statement that funds have been collected without authority, and in some way the Brewers' Association has been collecting these funds. These two statements are absolutely untrue. The collection of funds was authorized by me as president, and the secretary was ordered to have a letter sent out in connection with this work. I understand that Mrs. Talbot, in this purported letter, in the hands of the Anti-Saloon League and the Committee of One Hundred, states that she objected to the raising of funds under her signature as secretary. How did the good lady think the work of this league was to be carried on? Why did she think Mr. Bortzmeyer, cashier of the Scandinavian-American Bank, was appointed treasurer of this league? Did she think we would ask the brewers to put up the money surreptitiously? If so, she reckoned without her host. I have always fought in the open, and now, in my 80th year, and probably in my last campaign, I do not intend to change the principles I have always fought for, nor depart from my honesty of purpose in advocacy of equal rights for all the people—by no means excluding women for whose interests I have spent my life to obtain the ballot. My chief concern in their behalf has always been to secure for them their economic independence, as married mothers within the home, which alone will enable any woman to quit the business of marrying inebriates or raising drunkards.

The moneys collected are in the hands of Treasurer Bortzmeyer, and all those who have donated have received a letter acknowledging receipt thereof. Any one so desiring may inquire from our treasurer as to whether the money has been put in his hands, and I am quite sure he will advise them of receipt of their donation. If there is any one who has paid their money into this organization under misapprehension as donation for carrying on this work this league will be only too glad to refund it.

It is indeed strange that Mrs. Talbot thought this was a Suffrage movement when she went to the Portland Hotel, engaged the dining-room for our first luncheon for organization and arranged for the payment of this luncheon, and went so far as to get speakers to express their views against Prohibition.

The real break between Mrs. Talbot and myself was caused when I found out that she had gone to the Brewers' Association and told them she could be of good service to them in connection with this league and asked and received a salary from the Brewers' Association on the ground that she was putting in her time and needed the money. On the 26th of August a meeting was held between Mrs. Talbot and myself for the purpose of getting matters straightened out before starting the general organization. At this meeting a statement was signed by myself as president and Mrs. Talbot as secretary that the two letters sent out by myself, as well as the letter sent out by the publicity department, were approved. This statement ended with the sentence: "After discussing generally the affairs of the league, the officers ratified all work that had been done up to date by the publicity bureau and officers of the association."

I have lived in this state for 60 years, during all of which time I have toiled and worked for the people of my state, and I am willing to leave it to the public to decide as to whether I would lend myself in any way to any organization or any act that could be construed as anything but honorable. Every one in this state knows Mrs. Duniway and her family. I wish further to say that, if the occasion arises and I deem it necessary to go further into this matter, I will be glad to publish some additional facts in these same papers not necessary to publish now, and will meet the conditions as they arise. If the Anti-Saloon League, by its paid foreign agitators or Committee of One Hundred, think they can belaud this issue by trying to drag into the mud my name or others, they are very much mistaken. I expect to carry this work on to the conclusion of this campaign and then allow the people to judge as to whether we will control our own affairs in the State of Oregon or allow the paid agitators of the East to show us what to do.
