Millinery for Women

Have Sent Their Best Models to Us for Portland Women's Wear

There's a wide latitude in choice of Millinery this Fall, though we will confess that BLACK VELVET HATS hold first place in favor. The charming models that we've secured from the exclusive houses mentioned above are worthy of their recognized cleverness. Close-fitting Hats are very chic, though the wide-brimmed models are coming into more and more favor. Sailor shapes in dozens of variations, too, are extremely popular, and turbans in myriads of shapes. Tall trimmings are featured strongly. Black and white was never more popular.

Children's and Misses' Hats, too, are shown in immense variety at very moderate prices.

Full lines of trimmings—fancy stick-ups, feather novelties, plumes, silk flowers and other favored trimming effects.

EXPORT HAS BIG FALL

CONSULAR REPORTS INDICATE THAT TRADE DWINDLES IN WAR.

What Part of $16,000,000 Loss Is Due to Conflict Not Yet Estimated. August Sums to Tell.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The far-reaching effects of the European war upon American trade are indicated in a review of Consular reports published today by the Department of Commerce. Of the $2,000,000,000 worth of foreign products bought by Great Britain in 1912, the United States furnished 20 per cent, while America's share of Germany's $2,500,000,000 worth of imports was 15 per cent. Eleven per cent of the $1,500,000,000 of products bought by France came from the United States.

To what extent trade has been interrupted by war will be determined in a measure when the details of August's exports are compiled later this month. The total value of the exports was $110,327,545, compared with $187,909,929 one year ago. What part of that decrease was caused by war has not been worked out.

Other nations involved in the European conflict buy much of their imports from the United States. Eight per cent of Belgium's purchases in 1912, amounting to nearly $1,000,000, came from American ports. The Consular figures show that of products worth $208,000,000 imported into Brazil in 1912, about 15 per cent came from the United States, although 40 per cent of Brazil's exports were sent to American ports.

SOCIALIST SPENDS NOUGHT

Washington Senatorial Candidate and Idaho Men Make Reports.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 21.—Adam H. Borth, Socialist candidate for Senator in Washington, today filed a statement with the secretary of the Senate showing he received no contributions and made no expenditures in his campaign for nomination at the recent primaries. Three Idaho candidates filed statements. Senator Brady reporting no contributions and $183 expenditures. John F. Nugent, Democrat, received contributions aggregating $290 and spent $95. J. F. Allshie, Republican, had no contributions and spent $1651.

WAR TRACED TO TWO

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA RESPONSIBLE, SAYS LONDON PAPER.

Times Bases Report on Extracts From Russian Orange Book—Kaiser Alleged Peace Foe.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The Times publishes today extended extracts from the Russian official Orange book upon the diplomatic antecedents of the war, which, according to the Times, taken in conjunction with the official papers issued by the British Foreign Office, completes the chain of evidence, fixing irrevocably upon Germany and Austria the responsibility for the outbreak of the war.

The dispatches given prove, says the paper, that Russia made efforts to avert the conflict by finding a formula satisfactory to Austria and acceptable to Serbia. On July 12, it is said, Sergius Sazanoff, Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, instructed the Russian Ambassador at Rome to urge Italy to use her influence with Austria in favor of peace. On July 27, Mr. Sazanoff expressed his readiness to accept the proposal of Sir Edward Grey, British Minister of Foreign Affairs, for a conference; but on that same date Germany insisted upon the impossibility of holding any conference of mediation and sought to persuade France to associate herself with Germany in putting pressure upon Russia. The Times says that the real situation first is indicated in a telegram to Petrograd from the Russian Ambassador to Austria pointing out "that Austria, influenced by the assurances of the German Ambassador at Vienna, who has played the part of an instigator during the crisis, counted on the probability of the localization of her conflict with Serbia and on the possibility of striking a severe blow with impunity."

ANTI-TRUST BILL ON SNAG

Amendments Protested.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Conferees on the Clayton anti-trust bill struck a snag today when on the verge of reaching an agreement, modifying amendments to the section relating to the prohibition of exclusive or "tying" contracts having aroused a storm of disapproval on the part of the House members of the conference committee.

As the bill passed the Senate it contained an amendment by Senator Walsh to prohibit contracts between manufacturer and purchaser which would deprive the latter of independence in purchasing supplies. The conference committee revised the section last week. The committee also failed to reach an agreement on the Read amendment giving the courts authority to appoint receivers to negotiate the sale of the property of corporations convicted of violating the anti-trust laws to persons who would restore competition.
