AN atmosphere of the Old World prevailed last night at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, when Miss Lora Nettie Cumming became the bride of Paul Emil Woll, of Philadelphia. The bride was given into the keeping of the bridegroom by her father, Dr. W. A. Cumming, and was attended by her sister, Miss Shanna Cumming, as maid of honor. Following the old English custom, the bride and groom were seated at the door by the vested choir boys, who preceded them up the aisle to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Archibald Wright. At the conclusion of the ceremony, while the bride and bridegroom signed the records, the fresh young voices of the choir boys sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

Dr. John E. H. Simpson officiated at the ceremony, and the guests were ushered by Richard Jones, Ferdinand Smith, Joseph Lambert, John Howland, Harold Bates, Egbert Mersereaux and Harold Perrall, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as best man.

The bridal procession was most attractive. In addition to the maid of honor, there were six bridesmaids, the Misses Katherine Holbrook, Clementine Lambert, Sarah Hart, Margaret Hewett, Louise Burns and Harriet Cumming, the bride's youngest sister.

An artistic arrangement of greenery, white lilies and chrysanthemums adorned the church.

The bride, one of the fairest young girls of the smart set, was charming in a beautiful gown of white satin, filmy tulle and rare lace, and her full-length veil was wreathed with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was most artistic, and was a shower effect of lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern.

Miss Cumming, maid of honor, was in a charming rose-pink satin gown, adorned with exquisite lace and net, and she carried a bouquet of bridesmaid roses. The bridesmaids' gowns were fashioned after the same model of turquoise blue satin, with net flourishes and pleatings. They carried bouquets of fragrant Madame Aaron Ward roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father at Ewald street, at 9:30 o'clock. Balmi Summer, Deathey, entertained the guests out of doors, the Cumming residence being situated ideally for all fresco entertainments. Huge clusters of Autumnal foliage in brilliant tones were combined with a profusion of golden rods and effectively arranged about the drawing-room. A delightful decorative scheme was developed in the dining-room with soft rose-toned napery. The artistically-appointed supper-table was covered with a white cloth, and the table was set with a white and gold service of silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Woll left last night for the East, and will make their home in the Lawton Apartments, Oak Lane, a fashionable suburb of Philadelphia.

Tonight the second of the series of dinner dances will take place at the Commercial club, at 10 o'clock. The dances are becoming popular, and judging from the number of reservations already placed with the committee, the evening will be a gala one in the history of the club. The affairs commence at 7 o'clock and continue until 10 P. M.

Social affairs to aid the war sufferers are gaining in popularity daily and are claiming the attention of prominent women, who are eager to help their fellowmen. Mrs. James Laidlaw has offered her spacious home for a large tea to be given on Friday, October 2, from 3 until 7 o'clock. The hours are unusually long for a tea, but Mrs. Laidlaw's idea is to give everyone an opportunity of calling sometime during the afternoon and early evening. The affair is for the benefit of the British Red Cross and Prince of Wales Fund, and as there will be a large number of the hostesses hopes that everyone in sympathy with the destitute and helpless will avail themselves of this splendid opportunity to pass a pleasant hour and at the same time perform a humane act.

Invitations have just been received for the wedding of Miss Anna Marie Barron to Thomas M. Hepatic at 11 o'clock A. M., October 2, at St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral. Miss Barron's engagement was announced about a fortnight ago, at a pretty tea given by Miss Margaret Meara. She is a charming girl, and will be the inspiration for much entertainment before her wedding.

Mrs. William C. Alvord returned to Portland last night after a fortnight's visit with her sister, Mrs. Frederick G. Wheeler, at Seaside, Wash.

Miss Elizabeth Hoben has returned from Southern Oregon, after a visit of several weeks.

Miss Hazel Ralston, a popular member of the younger set, and a general favorite in college circles, returned recently to the University of Oregon to resume her studies. She is a Tri Delta girl, and during the vacation period was entertained at a dinner party in compliment to F. X. Arens, of New York. The table was centered with pink asters. Covers were laid for a few congenial friends who were invited to meet the distinguished musician. An informal musical hour followed.

FORMER ALBANY GIRL WHO WILL WED PORTLAND MERCHANT TONIGHT.

The wedding of Miss Eva Sternberg and Max Politz will be solemnized tonight at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Sternberg, 709 Lovejoy street. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will officiate. Miss Sternberg is an Albany, Or., girl, who has lived in Portland for seven years. The bridegroom is a member of the firm of Politz Brothers. After the wedding the young couple will leave for a wedding trip of six weeks, visiting in the East. They hope to be at home to their friends at 109 Lovejoy street, after November 1.

Friday evening. Plans for a series of inter-school dances to be given by the regular inter-school committee at Cottillion Hall have been completed and the annual hop Friday evening will be the first of the series.

There are to be seven regular dances and those attending four of the seven dances will be invited to the complimentary dance at the end of the season. This dance will be an elaborate affair.

A special feature of the first dance will be the supper dance, at which R. Carey, a vaudeville artist, will entertain. Another feature will be six cozy corners, to be decorated by appointed committees from the different schools. Hundreds of pennants have been ordered to decorate the hall.

The patronesses of the series will be: Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. Elliott Ladd Corbett, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Donald Green and Mrs. Donald Munro. The committee: Ray Staub, P. L. Menefee, Ted Stiles, Max Schultz, Fred Porter, Stella King, Annabelle Crawford, Genett Wiggins, Beth Ludlam, Ruth Walters, Clayton Patterson, Gordon Mounce, Paul Cudlipp, Billie Lewis, Mrs. Barker, Harriet Cummings, Flo Killingsworth, Margaret Porter and Nancy Zan.

The Scotch Thistle Social Club, under the auspices of Clan Macleay Order of Scottish Clans and Ladies' Auxiliary, will give a dance in Knights of Pythias hall, at 10 o'clock, on Friday, October 2, at the Red Cross fund. The patronesses are Mrs. D. H. Gowans, Mrs. F. Gibson, Mrs. H. R. Hewitson and Mrs. R. D. Reunie.

Latest advices from Miss Edith Varney, who has been traveling abroad with Miss Maud Ainsworth, state that she has been detained indefinitely on account of the war, but expects to be in Portland soon after November 1.

The woman's organizations of the First Presbyterian Church have issued invitations to all women connected with the church and congregation, and strangers who are unattached to other churches, to an opening reception in the parlors of the church-house, 454 Alder street, this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Elaborate preparations have been made for an entertaining program and the women hope to create such an atmosphere of friendliness and welcome as shall make the occasion one of charming memories and the occasion one of those who heretofore may have felt strange or unacquainted, and excluded from the social activities of the community.

HOW THE AIR WILL RESTORE GRAY HAIR

Wonderful Method by Which Gray and Faded Hair is Made Natural Color by Action of Oxygen. Not a Dye.

Are you one of the thousands who are suffering from the stigma of premature baldness? If you have placed upon you—and yet you think that nothing can be done to prevent it? You are wrong. It is possible for you to bring back your NATURAL COLOR—the whitening strands that are so rapidly dropping out of your hair. You can also KEEP OTHER GRAY HAIRS FROM COMING IN. Not by dyeing, but by so simple a process as the action of AIR through the use of HAY'S HAIR HEALTH. This is a NATURAL method. Hay's Hair Health contains elements which stimulate growth and maintain hair and hair root. In addition it contains a wonderful ingredient which, when applied, causes the faded gray hairs to gradually but surely come back to their NATURAL color, through the action of oxygen in the air. Nothing could be simpler or more effective. A most efficacious remedy. Nothing dandruff, cleansing and toning the scalp, enlivening the hair follicles and producing abundant, beautiful growth. THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT BY Mrs. F. A. WALKER

DRUSILLA'S little mother came every day to the playroom after her illness, and sometimes Bobby could see them out of the top of his box.

Drusilla had a new dress every day, and a new hat, too. Her little mother, who played Drusilla was a beautiful lady, and sent her to parties and teas, and Drusilla grew very vain; at least, that was the way it seemed to Bobby Jones.

But Drusilla's pride had a fall one day, and Bobby happened to be out of his box and saw what happened.

It was a rainy day, and Drusilla's little mother was tired of playing with all her toys, and even Drusilla, with all her new clothes, failed to amuse her.

"I'll tell you what we will do," said her mother, "we will play paper dolls, and I will show you how to make clothes for the one you have."

"We will call this paper doll Mrs. Olden," said the big mother, "because she is the old one, and this new one I am making will be her friend, Mrs. Newcomb."

This pleased the little mother very much, and such beautiful clothes as the big mother made for the paper dolls, she told Drusilla, "and I like my paper dolls better than the others."

Drusilla's little mother looked at her sitting in her chair and then she took Drusilla in her arms, and she said, "Drusilla saw the pretty dresses of Mrs. Olden and Mrs. Newcomb."

"I like Drusilla best," said her little mother, "but I think my paper dolls have prettier clothes and a prettier home."

"That night Bobby Jones put his head out of his box and looked over toward Drusilla."

"Are you asleep?" asked Bobby after sitting for Drusilla to speak and hearing no answer.

"No; I am awake," replied Drusilla. "I am thinking about that Mrs. Newcomb. I ought to call on her, but she has been so busy that I expect she will be very haughty."

"I shouldn't think the clothes she wears are so nice," said Bobby, "besides that, your clothes are new and very stylish. You said so yourself."

"Yes, they are new," replied Drusilla, "but hers are later than mine. They were made early this afternoon, and the styles do change so quickly."

Bobby knew that Drusilla's vanity had received a blow and he wanted to make her feel easy, so he said: "You must wash your hands the same way as I do, washed off with warm water." Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, New York City.

CITY EXPENSES LOWERED

Water Department and Incinerator Cost Less in 1914.

Reductions in the cost of operating the city water department and the municipal incinerator are shown in a report completed yesterday on the cost of these divisions of the service during the last eight months as compared with the corresponding period of 1913.

The incinerator the amount of refuse consumed in the eight months of 1913 was 29,429 tons while this year the amount has been 31,775 tons. The cost of operating the incinerator last year was $1,000,000, while this year it has been a little over 30 cents a ton. This includes the cost of handling the material.

In the water department a saving is shown by the dismissal of nine clerks and the establishment of a system whereby water inspectors deliver water bills. The clerical cost of the department during the first eight months of 1913 was $36,600.50, while the cost for the last eight months has been $27,224.65.

How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths

(Aids to Beauty.) A well-known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face: Mix into a paste some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair is vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment, however, it is well to make certain you get genuine delatone.—Adv.

Parent Teacher Associations

THE first Fall meeting of the Portland Parent-Teacher Association will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in room A, Public Library. Mrs. Martin Wagner, president, is anxious to make the meetings a success and urges all officers, especially the newly-elected presidents and others, to be present. There are in Portland parent-teacher circles in all of the schools and the membership numbers between four and five thousand members. The activities are many and varied. The establishment of school lunches, the social service work and the social and educational features fostered by the associations are but a small part of the good accomplished. Plans for the year will be outlined at the coming meeting.

A free stereopticon lecture on "Commercialized Vice" will be given on Friday night, October 1, in the assembly hall of Montavilla School by Superintendent McLaughlin, of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Association. All young men and women, as well as parents, are invited to be present.

Capitol Hill Parent-Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the season Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. Interesting topics will be discussed and refreshments will be served. All members and others interested in the work are a b to him. He has read Shakespeare from end to end, critically, analytically, for he has a keen, critical faculty. He has seen the Hamlet of the best actors and can give you a criticism better than is to be found in some of our best journals. The longer you know him, the more does the scope of his studies amaze you.

You ask him sometime why doesn't he make some use of all this learning, why doesn't he speak in some one thing and make it his work or profession and give up the long hours and monotonous toil of the mill. He shrugs and says he doesn't mind that work that it mentally taxes him little and leaves his energies free for the study which he loves. His insatiable thirst is for knowledge. He has little desire to put that knowledge to practical use. He wants to know. He knows all he can about one subject, then he wants to go on and learn all he can about another. He is indifferent to money. He is indifferent to dress. He is indifferent to society. And so he goes about shabby, unkempt, presenting anything but an attractive exterior. His appearance is altogether against his making friends among the people he is mentally fit to associate with. To the eye, he is a shabby, grimy mill-worker. To the
