were held up three hours by the wreck and did not arrive in the city until 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. So, as we said before, there was no baseball matinee for the railbirds who are interested in as close a struggle as Coast League fans have seen since that memorable 1911, when the Beavers left home October 2 four points behind Venice.

ber 2 four points behind Venice. However, the series will be convened this afternoon at 3 o'clock and Frank Dillon plans to use either Perritt or Love, righthanders, against Southpaw Harry Krause, of Portland. Sunday a double-header will be dished out to the fans, so, if it doesn't rain, "Pop" may go back south with his board bill paid after all.

after all.

Dillon dragged his entire outfit north, with the exception of Pitcher Musser and Infielder Page. Among the new faces is that of Terry, the Stanford infielder, who is looked upon as quite some phenom.

"My team is going well now," remarked Dillon as he attached his scrawl to the Multnomah Hotel register. "The pitching corps held up its end last week, but we fell a little shy on stick work. We are still very much in the running and this week may show a different speet to the statistic column."

"Anybody been drafted from your club?" Manager Dillon was asked. "Not that I know of," replied "Silver

"Have you drafted anybody?" was the next question.

"Nope. Nobody is drafting this year. I don't think any of the Pacific Coast managers have filed a draft."

But in this Dillon is wrong. Portland outguessed everybody by putting in six drafts after announcing that no young players would be sought. Then when all six were awarded the Beavers, W. W. McCredie did like Finnegan, he telegraphed J. H. Farrell, secretary of the board, and sloughed the whole bunch was the best he could do.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 29.—Anna Bradford, in the final heat of the American Horse Breeders' futurity, which was the last feature of today's grand circuit racing programme, lowered the 3-year-old pacing record to 2:00%. A week ago she put the mark at 2:71%. They Squantum was a good contender.

graphed J. H. Farrell, secretary of the board, and sloughed the whole bunch into the discard.

"Why did you draft and then cancel?" asked the writer.

"Changed my mind, that's all," replied the Judge, smilling. "Got to think-fing it over and decided we would buy instead of drafting, so as not to be worrying over possible Federal League invasions. Also we'll know by a cond of 2:03%. He trotted the first half in 1:00% and was at the three-thanking in 59% seconds and wa

Tom Moko was placed last because of running.

White Sox won the 2:18 pace in three heats. Major Hardy beat the gun in the last heat, but White Sox left the other at the half-mile post and came home with plenty to spare.

Jason Stanley, a buckaroo riding for Del Blancet, had a good lead in the relay race, but in the final race his horse got away from the groom and Stanley. In the final heat the saddle came off, throwing Stanley just before the wire.
