BY ADDISON BENNETT. SALEM, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special).—You can set down the attendance at the State Fair today as the largest ever assembled on the grounds. I have this from President Booth, who estimated the crowd at 30,000, and from Secretary Meredith, who thinks there were anywhere in excess of 25,000. As Mr. Booth was in the better position to form his estimate, it is quite sure there were from 25,000 to 30,000 people there.

While the day has not been one of sunshine, it was nevertheless pleasant in every way, being just warm enough for comfort. There was also a total absence of dust, and the track was in splendid condition. The races were simply grand. In the first heat of the 2:08 pace four horses came under the wire so close that a distance of 15 feet would have reached from the nose of the leader to the dusty wheels of the fourth.

All of the races were closely contested. No record-making time was made, but every heat excited the greatest interest and brought the audience up standing. The directors put on one extra race today, made up of trotters in the 2:15 class and pacers of the 2:20 class. This proved to be one of the best of the day. Too much cannot be said of the new system of making county exhibits. Heretofore it has been useless for the Eastern Oregon counties to compete with the counties in the coast and valley tiers. So this year the state was divided into three districts, the coast counties competing with the valley counties another, and the Eastern Oregon counties another. This brought out four splendid exhibits from the Eastern Oregon counties to compete with the counties in the coast and valley tiers. So this year the state was divided into three districts, the coast counties competing with the valley counties another, and the Eastern Oregon counties another. This brought out four splendid exhibits from the Eastern Oregon counties to compete with the counties in the coast and valley tiers.

It can be said safely that the agricultural exhibits this year far surpass any ever before seen at one of our state fairs, and with the exception of horses the animal exhibits fully equal and in most cases excel all heretofore shown. This is especially true of hogs and poultry. I heard a good judge of swine say that he saw at the fair a black bear, less than a year old, weighing about 700 pounds, which he believed was the best young animal of the breed in the world. Another thing that is pleasing is that nearly every exhibit, no matter from what section, has a plentiful supply of field corn. The domestic science, manual and arts exhibits, and the horticultural exhibits were also excellent. The show of hogs is wonderful and has the largest exhibition of show hogs. The results obtained from the school clubs in fruit growing, hog raising, etc., are shown in the exhibit palace. The educational exhibit is the best that I have ever seen at a fair of this kind. The domestic science, manual training and art departments are particularly fine. There is a whooper of a crowd here today and Portland will have to look to her laurels tomorrow if she is to beat Salem Day. They are looking for Portland to retain its record so it is up to everyone to turn out for the fair excursion trains in the morning.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY WINNER Polk Second and Multnomah Third in Willamette Section at Fair. SALEM, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special).—Clackamas County, which has one of the finest exhibits in the history of the State Fair, was awarded first honor in the Willamette Valley competition today with a score of 94 points. Polk County was second, Multnomah third, Washington fourth and Yamhill fifth.

Always a contender for first prize, this is the first victory for Clackamas. Two years ago Clackamas was tied with Benton for first day for the blue ribbon and lost by only a small percentage. The grain and fruit displays this year establish a new record and were the factors in giving the county the prize. R. M. Standish, of Estacada, is in charge of the booth. He gathered many of the products on display, many of which shown at the Clackamas County fair. Polk County's exhibit excels in vegetables. Multnomah in fruit and grain and Washington in vegetables and grain. Yamhill's exhibit consists largely of manufactured products. D. M. Lewis, of Ashland, won first prize for individual farm exhibits; J. Sherman, of Lebanon, was second; C. E. Donaldson, of Tillamook, third, and Charles Ogilvy, of Pilot Rock, fourth. Rapid progress was made in the judging of livestock today. James H. McCronek & Sons, of Fishtown, Wash., won the grand shorthorn championship for bull, any age, with Choice King, and for cow or heifer, any age, with Fancy Minnie.

H. C. Fletcher, of Salem, won the grand championship for thoroughbred stallions, any age, with McAliso, and Mrs. A. G. Smith, of McMolton, won the grand championship for mare or filly, any age, with Compact. Padding of Byth, belonging to F. P. Wolfe, of Woodburn, won the grand championship in the stallion Shetland pony class, and Montreal, also owned by F. P. Wolfe, won the grand championship for mare or filly.

FAIR ATTENDANCE IS URGED O. M. Plummer Says Livestock at Salem Show Is West's Best.

"From a livestock standpoint the Oregon State Fair this year has the best showing of dairy cattle that the West Coast has ever seen," said O. M. Plummer, secretary and treasurer of the Portland Union Stock Yards over the long distance telephone from Salem last night. Mr. Plummer has been in the habit of visiting fairs during the past 10 or 15 years and has been at the Salem Fair every year during that time.

"The showing of hogs is wonderful and from breeders' standpoint this fair has the largest exhibition of show hogs. The results obtained from the school clubs in fruit growing, hog raising, etc., are shown in the exhibit palace. The educational exhibit is the best that I have ever seen at a fair of this kind. TAXPAYERS, ONLY, TO VOTE Roseburg Finds Property Owners Alone May Pass on Measure.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special).—That only voters who pay taxes on real and personal property, as shown by the records of the County Assessor at the last election, will be eligible to vote on the bond issues to be submitted to the people of Roseburg at the regular city election next Monday, was the opinion handed down by City Attorney Albert Abraham Tuesday. The opinion was requested by the City Council, and it is now likely that the property clause of the city charter will be enforced in the coming election. Although this law has been a part of the city charter for years, it has been disregarded in previous elections, and all voters were given the privilege of the ballot. Considerable opposition has been created against the railroad bond issue for $500,000 and it is believed Monday's election will be one of the most spirited contests held here for years. In addition, the voters will be asked to vote on a bond issue authorizing a park. They also will elect four Councilmen.

Ontario Banks Take City Bonds. ONTARIO, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special).—The $20,000 bond issue, authorized by special election yesterday for a new Courthouse, was subscribed by two local banks today. Missouri, in two years, has received $100,000 from its corporation tax.

WELCOME ROUSING

All Classes of Citizens at Baker Greet Withycombe.

ANSWER MADE GOVERNOR

Value of Experiment Station Instanced by Production of Hybrid Wheat, Which Promises to Be Worth Millions to Farmers.

BAKER, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special).—Dr. James Withycombe spent today in Baker meeting hosts of citizens who are working for his election. A large number of business men and farmers gave an informal luncheon to Dr. Withycombe, and subjects pertaining to the campaign were discussed at length. There was not a man present who did not come in person to Dr. Withycombe and promise to do all in his power to insure the doctor's election. The consensus of opinion was that Dr. Withycombe would carry Baker County by the largest majority yet accorded to a candidate for Governor. The people of Baker County have known Dr. Withycombe by reputation for a number of years, and they appreciate the work he has done for the advancement of farming in Eastern Oregon.

Governor's Attack Resented.

Referring to Governor West's personal attacks on Dr. Withycombe in the Governor's recent address at Portland, Dr. Withycombe said: "It is astonishing that the chief executive of our state can be so inaccurate in his statements regarding my connection with the Oregon Agricultural College and the work of the Eastern Oregon Experiment Station. The statement made in that address by Governor West as to my creating a position for myself at the Agricultural College is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. I have never at any time been an applicant for any position at the college. As a matter of fact, a committee of the board of regents begged me to accept the position, and I finally did so in the interest of my children, two of whom were attending the college at the time. I have given 15 of the best years of my life through the college in the service of the State of Oregon.

Farmers' Benefits Shown. "The Governor is apparently incapable of understanding the difference between a demonstration farm and an experiment station. A demonstration farm should be self-supporting; an experiment station never is, though its ultimate benefit to the farming industry far surpasses that of the demonstration farm. "The farm at Union is not a demonstration farm, but an experiment station, and I would respectfully refer the Governor to the farmers and busi-

LINE TO RESORT PLANNED

Electric Road, Three Miles Long, Is Proposed by Siuslaw Capital.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 30.—(Special).—An electric railroad, three miles in length, to operate between Glendale, on the Siuslaw River, and Telitooos Lake, south of the Siuslaw, is contemplated by Siuslaw capital. The road would connect with the new Willamette-Pacific at Glendale and would make a direct rail route to a summer resort townsite on the long string of lakes which extend for 15 miles along the coast between mountain arms.

The proposed electric line would utilize a narrow gauge railroad contractor's tramway which is now used to carry coal and supplies from the sea-going barges to distribution to the railroad camps along the lakes.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drugstore here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

BORAH ATTACKS REPORT

ANTI-TRUST BILL DECLARED AID TO TRADE COMMISSION.

Tendency Is to Restrict Popular Government in Opinion of Idaho Senator.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Senator Borah, of Idaho, attacked the Clayton anti-trust bill conference report in the Senate today as a phase of the tendency to take the Government out of the control of the people and center it in commissions of individuals. He declared that the Clayton bill was nothing more than an aid to the Federal Trade Commission bill. Explaining his opposition to what he called a tendency to restrict popular government, the Senator quoted from a speech of President Wilson before his inauguration in which Mr. Wilson said he did not believe in commission forms of government and that he would not submit government to any form of trusteeship. Already, Senator Borah asserted, the railroads had been turned over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the banks to a Federal reserve commission and industrial affairs to a trade commission. Trust legislation as embodied in the bills enacted by this Congress, Senator Borah declared, reflected the views of the big business men of the country who opened a campaign for

ORDINANCE VOTE DEFERRED

Mr. Bigelow to Investigate Details for Removal of "Old Shacks."

To enable Commissioner Bigelow to investigate some details of the proposed ordinance providing a method whereby the city can force the removal of dangerous or unsightly buildings, the measure was not voted on at the meeting of the City Council yesterday. The ordinance was deferred for two weeks. The measure if passed will take the place of an ordinance which was knocked out recently by the Circuit Court. Under the provisions of the new measure it is planned to start a campaign to cause the raising of many old structures in the business districts of both the East Side and the West Side.

ROBBERS TERRORIZE TOWN

Citizens Are Targets in Attempt of Three to Crack Hartline Safe.

HARTLINE, Wash., Sept. 30.—Three men made an unsuccessful attempt to rob the safe of the Hartline State Bank early today, but they caused great property loss and terrorized the citizens. They first obtained tools from a blacksmith shop, then robbed a hardware store of dynamite and rifles, and blew the safe of the bank. The explosion threw the safe over on its front so that it could not be opened. The safe contained $3000 in currency. While two men were in the bank another man stood in front and shot at each citizen who appeared on the street. The men escaped.
