BY ROSCOE FAWGETT. Southpaw Krause was in rare fettle yesterday and as a result of his feat of holding Los Angeles to three hits, Portland defeated the Angels in the opening game of the series, 3 to 1. The afternoon was cold and windy and the ladies' day crowd only fair. Manager Dillon, of the Angels, was out playing golf in the forenoon and did not reach the grounds until just before game time, but he arrived in time to see Pol Perritt rather harshly treated by the Beavers. Eleven Hits Rung Up.

Eleven Hits Ruag Up.

Perritt lasted seven innings, during which time he was lambasted for 11 hits, and then a human Elifel tower in the person of Slim Love ascended the mound. Love responded sensationally by whiffing Fisher. Ryan and Davis almost as fast as they scrambled to the platter.

This duplicated a precedent established by Harry Krause in the second inning, when he fanned Ellis, Gedeon and Johnson without cracking a smile.

while the Beavers were winning from Los Angeles the Scals were lar-ruping the Oaks again, so that the relative position of the two leaders remains the same.

Lober's Single Helps.

Portland scored two of its three runs in the fifth inning on Lober's single to short, Krause's bunt and successive doubles by Bancroft and Speas. Hits by Fisher, Rysn and Kores added the third tally an inning later and but for a star foul catch against the stand by Boles, it might have been worse.

Los Angeles registered its ione score in the sixth, when Boles, Wolter and Maggert secured hits off Krause and broke his no-hit endeavor in twain. Buddy Ryan furnished the only thrilling fielding stunt of the day. In the seventh Bud reared up against the right wall and robbed Babe Ellis of a two-base swat.
