

High middle distance and half-mile, who has been getting into condition in the harvest fields of Eastern Oregon, has returned home and is again attending the East Side High. Staub is president of the February, 14, class, as well as the student body. In the Spring he intends going either to Stanford or Oregon.

Because illness prevents Captain Ward Irvine from accompanying his Jefferson High squad to Aberdeen, Steve Wilcox will be the acting captain. Irvine is being kept here to be in good condition for the Hill-Jefferson affair next Friday on Multnomah field.

In getting ready for the Astoria-Lincoln High game tomorrow a great rally was held in the local high's auditorium yesterday afternoon. The Hill-Jefferson and members of the faculty addressed the gathering.

EARL'S TEAM IN DOUBT

COACH OF WASHINGTON HIGH HAS ONLY FOUR LETTER MEN.

Interscholastic season opens Wednesday, but scrimmage for five squads only started this week.

Captain Earl, of Washington High, is not highly optimistic over the prospects of a 1914 championship team, for the four programs mentioned in this season, and has seen only one year of campaigning.

Three Districts Ask Schools. Petitioners have been received from the Latta, Richmond and Shaver districts asking that night schools be established, but were denied.

Principals Are Named. The board elected the following non-employees to act as principals of their respective buildings: Jefferson High, J. W. Huff; Albina Homestead, J. B. Carter; Lincoln, J. B. Carter; Lincoln, J. B. Carter; Lincoln, J. B. Carter.

Coach Borleske, of the Lincoln High, will officiate as referee at the Astoria-Lincoln affair on Multnomah field tomorrow afternoon.
